Lunatic Immigrants.

In the report for 1906 on the lunatic and idiot asylums for the province, just issued, some interesting figures are provided, showing the part that immigrants play in loading Ontario with expense. Many cases were deported to England, Scotland, Sweden, Russia and the United States.

In several instances cases were deported who had been four times in English asylums, and in one case the patient came to Ontario for his seventh asylum residence. Of 54 male patients admitted to the Toronto Asylum, 37 were of foreign birth and 17 Canadians. It is recommended that the Dominion Government require more stringent regulation governing such matters.

The total population of asylum inmates at the end of 1906 numbered 5,972, against 5,848 on Sept. 30, 1905. Housekeepers and wives provided the largest number of cases admitted since the establishment of the asylum, numbering 6,406, and domestic servants 3,831. Farmers numbered 4,508 and laborers 4,824.

During the year, out of a total of 1,085 admissions, 322 were housekeepers, 144 laborers, 130 farmers and 106 domestic servants. These are evidently occupations to be avoided, and may account for the preference for city and store life.

Indian Potlatch In B. C.

The Indians of British Columbia have just been holding a great feast or "potlatch"—the greatest they have ever held it is said. Over two thousand Indians took part in the celebration at Alert Bay. One feature of the event was the bartering of young Indian girls to rich chiefs of the region. The Vancouver Province says that one little girl of nine was sold at auction for $1,400, and that another girl of eighteen brought $1,000. Nice revels these!

And Hadn't Lost It.

Her Husband—You were a good looking woman when I married you. She—Yes, I had the advantage of you even then.

Every substantial grief has twenty shadows, and most of them are shadows of your own making. — Sydney Smith.

Marrying Age in England.

For the last five years there is a marked hesitancy on the part of bachelors to assume matrimonial responsibilities, and the age at which both spinsters and bachelors meet at the altar grows greater at every decade. A century ago, eighteen was considered the normal age of the bride. Many thousands of marriages took place at sixteen. If at twenty-five a woman was still unmarried, her chances were considered very remote; at twenty-eight she was placed on the celibates' shelf, and at thirty took to wearing the lace cap of middle age. To-day, the average age of brides in England is twenty-five years and five months. Out of 1,000 brides only 147 are minors. The tendency to later marriages is marked among the young men in the Kingdom. The average age of a bridegroom is now twenty-seven years. More marry at forty than ever before; one bachelor put off matrimony until he was past a hundred, and the half of postponement is growing so strongly upon the sex that thousands go to their graves, alas, without ever having married at all! Out of every 1,000 husbands forty-four only are minors, half as many as there were forty years ago. — Strand Magazine.

No Nose to Speak of, So He Didn't.

A mother who had invited company to dinner said to her young son, "Freddy, don't say anything about Mr. M.'s nose at the dinner table to-night."

"No'm," replied Freddy.

Just as the dessert was brought in Freddy remarked in clear, distinct tones:

"Ma, what did you tell me not to say anything about Mr. M.'s nose for? He hasn't got any."

Wisdom of the Raven.

Two collie dogs were hunting rabbits, and the ravens were soaring overhead. As the dogs drove the rabbit out into the open near the top of a hill it ran straight into a trap and was caught. As the dogs came near the ravens came down and by loud croaking managed to drive away both. They then started to devour the rabbit, which they quickly dispatched.

OUTH'S VITALITY SAPPED AWAY.

Your child looks poorly, is tired and fretful. You would like this boy or girl to be more robust, more energetic and vivacious. The "something" that is wrong is simply this. Stomach and bowels need attention. Constipation and indigestion must be relieved, new life and vigor are required in the blood, slight assistance is needed for the kidneys and liver. Nothing is so effective as Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They put new life into young folks as well as the old ones. Every child should use this medicine regularly because its benefits are not to be had in any other way. 25c. at all dealers.

THE MEXICAN CARGADOR.

Just as one finds the rickshaw everywhere in Japan, so one finds the cargador in Mexico. He is a beast of burden. In general, he is a comparatively small man, with broad shoulders and stout arms and legs. To look at him one would not think he would be able to carry heavy burdens, but the weight he can carry is surprising. You have a heavy trunk, which you can scarcely move, for instance. You send for a cargador. He gets it upon his back, high up on his shoulders, and he marches off with it as easily as though it were only a plaything.

A life dedicated to the carrying of heavy burdens has made this work easy for him. A slightly built Mexican will carry over 500 pounds on his shoulders for short distances. Until lately almost everything in Mexico City and elsewhere throughout the republic was carried on the backs of cargadores. If you wanted to move your household furniture, you hired a certain number of cargadores. For house moving they generally work in pairs, each pair having a hand truck which they pick up and carry when it is loaded, for it has no wheels. In Mexico City there is still hundreds of these hand trucks, though one may now find moving trucks. There are also regular transfer companies. But all of these are of very recent importation. — Mexican Herald.

A CERTAIN CURE FOR CROUP—USED FOR TEN YEARS WITHOUT A FAIL.

Mr. W. C. Bott, a Star City, Ind., hardware merchant, is enthusiastic in his praise of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. His children have all been subject to croup and he has used this remedy for the last ten years, and though they much feared the croup, his wife and he always felt safe upon retiring when a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy was in the house. His oldest child was subject to severe attacks of croup, but this remedy never failed to effect a speedy cure. He has recommended it to friends and neighbors and all who have used it say that it is unequalled for croup and whooping cough. For sale by all dealers.

Jeweller—You say you want some name engraved on this ring?
Young Man—Yes, I want the words "George, to his dearest Alice," engraved on the inside of the ring.
"Is the young lady your sister?"
"No, she is the young lady I to whom I am engaged."
"Well, if I were you I would not have 'George, to his dearest Alice,' engraved on the ring. If Alice changes her mind you can't use the ring again."

"What would you suggest?"
"I would suggest that the words be 'George, to his first and only love.' You see, with that inscription you can use the ring half a dozen times. I have had experience in such matters myself." — Philadelphia Inquirer.

IS WORTH SAVING.

Put It In Some Safe Place for It May Come In Handy Some Day.

Here is a simple home-made mixture as given by an eminent authority on Kidney diseases, who makes the statement that it will relieve almost any case of Kidney trouble if taken before the stage of Bright's disease. He states that such symptoms as lame back, pain in the side, frequent desire to urinate, especially at night; painful and discolored urination, are readily overcome. Here is the recipe try it:

Fluid Extract Dandelion, one-half ounce; Compound Kargon, one ounce; Compound Syrup, Sarsaparilla, three ounces. (Take a teaspoonful after each meal and at bedtime.)

A well-known local druggist is authority that these ingredients are all harmless and easily mixed at home by shaking well in a bottle. This mixture has a peculiar healing and soothing effect upon the entire Kidney and Urinary structure, and often overcomes the worst forms of Rheumatism in just a little while. This mixture is said to remove all blood disorders and cure the Rheumatism by forcing the Kidneys to filter and strain from the blood and system all uric acid and foul, decomposed waste matter, which cause these afflictions. Try it if you aren't well. Save the prescription.

AFFLICTED WITH SORE EYES FOR OVER 33 YEARS.

I have been afflicted with sore eyes for thirty-three years. Thirteen years ago I became totally blind and was blind for six years. My eyes were badly inflamed. One of my neighbors insisted upon my trying Chamberlain's Salve and gave me half a box of it. To my surprise it healed my eyes and my sight came back to me. — P. C. Eals, Cynthia, Ky. BEFORE AND AFTER.

The Tories are a funny crowd, They do some funny things Before elections they yell loud Their candidate has wings. The other man they kind of think Has got a cloven foot, A tail, and heart as black as ink, And a soul the hue of soot, They speak of him with hateful hiss Or else with voices low like this.

Then just before the polling day, They love to prophesy Of things to come they make their lay.

They swear they'll do or die. The Libs are sure coming out. Their men are all sure in, The people are with us, they shout. Poor Libs. They cannot win, In fact, their tones, jubilant cant, decided upward

Have a But afterwards when votes are cast, And all the shoutin's done Their tones are changed most awful fast

They drift off one by one, Taking long tramps up muddy lanes, To avoid the public eye. And further conversation pains When anyone is by. For once again their happy tones, Descend the scale to sighs and groans.
