The association wish to thank the merchants and others for their kindness in donating the above prizes and thereby encouraging the sport of rifle shooting. This makes two wins for Mr. McLean of the handsome cup given by Mr. Gibson some five years ago, and which becomes the property of the winner of three successive years. Mr. McLean is to be congratulated on the good score he made yesterday, which is fifteen points higher than last year.

LOCAL HUNTERS IN LUCK.

Recorder Colter's Party Shot Two Moose and Two Deer.

A party of local sportsmen, composed of Messrs. T. H. Colter registrar of deeds, Charles H. Weddall and George F. Wilkes, returned last night from a week's hunting trip to Young's Brook, near the head of Cain's River.

Mr. Colter and Mr. Wilkes each shot a moose, with antlers spreading forty-five and fifty inches respectively, and Mr. Weddall shot two deer. The latter also wounded a moose, but it succeeded in getting away from him. The party had for guides Messrs. James T. and Alex. Somerville, of Taymouth, two of the most expert moose callers in York County.

Recorder Colter, who is an old-time sportsman, shot his moose on Saturday last, after it had been called up by the guide. He fired at the animal five times, and claims that every shot took effect. The big fellow turned and charged the hunter at the third shot, but the Recorder stood his ground bravely and continued pumping lead into the enemy and had the satisfaction of seeing him go down.

The heads of the moose shot by Messrs. Colter and Wilkes were on exhibition today in front of Emack Bros. establishment, and attracted much attention, and the lucky hunters came in for hearty congratulations.

Hon. J. R. Perkins, of Rochester, N. Y., republican member of the United States Congress, arrived in the city by the late train last night and is a guest at the Queen. He will leave by this evening's train for Boiestown enroute to the Crooked Deadwater on a hunting expedition. Mr. Alex. Turnbull, of Stanley, will accompany him as guide. Mr. Turnbull has hunted caribou in Newfoundland, but this is his first trip to New Brunswick, and he has yet to see his first moose. Mr. Perkins is a lawyer by profession, and is now on his fourth Congressional term. Lord Hawke, the celebrated English cricketer, is now in Canada, and is expected here to-morrow or Monday on his way to the Little Southwest Miramichi on a hunting trip. He has been fortunate in securing for a guide the veteran Henry Braithwaite. Mr. I. J. Blair, of New York, who, with a party of friends, is hunting with Guide W. H. Allen at Little River, sent a fair-sized moose head to Emack Bros. this morning.

The Presidential Salute.
The American presidential salute is 21 guns, as is the English royal salute, but the reason why just 21 guns are fired is obscure. Antiquarians have put forth different theories as to this. One states that seven was the original salute, but that in England this was given three times, once for Scotland, once for Ireland and once for England. Some declare that the American salute is 21 guns because the sum of the numbers 1, 7, 7, 6 (the year of the Declaration of Independence) is 21.—Minneapolis Journal.
