STUDENT'S BANQUET.

King's College Debaters Pleasantly Entertained at Windsor Hall.

March 22.—The judges of the recent debate between King's College and the U. N. B., with the brilliant debaters of the former university, and their president, Rev. Dr. C. J. J. Balden, were banqueted at Windsor Hall last evening by the students of the University of New Brunswick.

The U. N. B. boys, as would be expected, were very jubilant over the victory of their debating team, and gave expression to their feelings in class yells and college songs.

Mr. Everett, the genial proprietor of Windsor Hall, has always proved himself to be a very proficient manager on all such occasions, and last evening's preparations were no exception to the rule.

The spacious dining hall presented a fine appearance, with all the tables arranged and decorated in banquet order.

Owing, perhaps, to the exceptional length of the debate, it was after eleven o'clock before all sat down to the excellent repast.

Dr. Inch and Mr. J. D. Hazen sent regrets at their inability to attend. A regular full course dinner was served in fine order. At the conclusion of which, Mr. J. D. Phinney arose amid continued applause and cheers from the University boys, all of whom respect him to the very highest degree.

Mr. Phinney has proved on all occasions to be willing and glad to lend his valuable time and assistance to all educational matters and particularly to the interests of the U. N. B., his old alma mater.

Mr. Phinney remarked that it was always a deep pleasure for him to be present on such occasions, and to be with the young generation of this most progressive age that now reigns not only in Canada, but over the whole world. He thought in view of the many fields of work on arts the time and persistent labor that can be and is, expended upon any and every one of them, that the art of oratory should receive such time and young man to be able to give expression to his views, not in a flowing way at all, but simply in a plain, forceful and audible manner.

He heartily congratulated the debaters of both colleges on the very able and creditable manner in which they acquitted themselves and remarked that they had done credit to course opens up to a young man, and attention as would prepare any themselves and to the institutions to which they belonged.

The toasts were as follows:
The King—Singing of National Anthem.

Our Dominion—His Worship the Mayor.

The Judges—H. W. Sangster, Hon. C. W. Robinson, Alma Mater—Dr. C. C. Jones, Dr. L. W. Bailey.

Our Visitors—G. E. Tobin, U. N. B. Debaters—M. L. Orchard, U. N. B. Literary and Debating Society—H. A. Carr.

The graduating class—Wm. Woods, Auld Lang Syne.

MADE CRAZY BY IROQUOIS FIRE.

Chicagoan Who Lost Wife and Children Becomes Insane as Cedric Nears Land.

New York, March 22.—A wanderer over the face of the globe since the fateful Iroquois fire in Chicago, in December, 1903, James Henning, a wealthy broker of that city, who lost his wife and four children in that awful catastrophe, went raving mad, and boarded the White Star steamship Cedric as he neared the shore that recalled such frightful memories to him.

When the big liner docked, he was placed in a strait jacket and sent to Bellevue Hospital for observation. Henning collapsed when his family and his health failed steadily, and he gave up his business and moved to a small town in Michigan, but remained only a few weeks. Nothing could drive the awful memory from his mind. He sought travel, and since has been in almost every civilized part of the world.

COULDN'T ESCAPE MEMORIES. Only at times would he communicate with his brother Edward, the owner of a large cooperage supply house in Chicago. The last heard of Henning by his brother was three months ago, when his brother wrote from Vienna, saying he was about to return home, and that he could not find relief the world over.

Sunday morning while at religious service on board the Cedric, Henning suddenly jumped to his feet, gesticulating wildly and uttering incoherent cries. He began to rave about his lost family and only the quick action of officers of the ship saved the grief-stricken man from casting himself into the sea.

He was overpowered, given sedatives by the ship's surgeon, Dr. Bell, and watched constantly. Early yesterday as the Cedric passed in the Hook, Henning escaped his guard and rushed to the deck, where he was found struggling wildly with one of the saloon stewards, who tried to stop him. With the strength given only to mad men, Henning fought half a dozen seamen who struggled to secure him.

In the melee one of the stewards was severely bitten and had to be attended by the surgeon. When placed in a strait jacket, Henning wept and raved alternately.

In the earlier stages of the voyage he had been melancholy and nothing seemed to lighten his spirits. To one or two fellow voyagers he volunteered his story, which finally drove him to the mad house.

"CAN I NEVER, NEVER FORGET?" As the Cedric neared the coast Henning paced the deck nervously as if contemplating suicide. Time and time again as the ship came in sight of the land, he would mutter: "My God! My God! Can I never, never forget?"

When his fellow passengers learned of his deep affliction, he was the object of sympathy on board. Although only fifty years old, he seemed a man of seventy, broken in health, spirit and mind.

Edward Henning was notified last night of his brother's condition. He wired that he would leave at once for New York to look after his brother.

HELPING MOTHERS.

"I always tell my mothers who have children how good I have found Baby's Own Tablets," says Mrs. L. Reville, Gawas, Ont., Mrs. Reville further says: "I would not be without the Tablets in the house for fear of no medicine that can equal them in curing the little ones which so often suffer." It is the enthusiastic praise of mothers who have used the Tablets that makes them the most popular childhood medicine in Canada. Any mother using Baby's Own Tablets has the guarantee of a government analyst that this medicine does not contain one particle of opiate or harmful drug. Sold by medicine dealers or by mail at 25 cents a box from the Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

GIRLS STRUCK SO AS TO CATCH BEAUX.

"How Can a Girl Get a Fellow if She Works Night?" They Asked And Won.

Hartford, Conn., March 22.—What chance has a girl to catch a fellow if she has to work at night? None, said fifty girls of the United States Stamped Envelope Factory yesterday morning, and walked out. They congregated in the hall, saying: "Why, the very idea, who ever heard of such a thing?"

The management finally came to terms and promised to arrange the working hours in the future so that entertaining young men will not be interfered with.

Eight of the girls were the primary cause of the trouble. In the rush business recently, they were called on to work nights. Last week it was Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. It might have been all right if it had been Monday, Tuesday or Wednesday, but all three together, hand running, was too much. Thursday night, the eight said, "No," emphatically, and knew of no medicine that can equal them in curing the little ones which so often suffer." It is the enthusiastic praise of mothers who have used the Tablets that makes them the most popular childhood medicine in Canada.

When the eight came to work this morning they were told they were discharged. The fifty arose to the occasion and Supt. Claus tried in vain to persuade them to stay.

"Only on the one condition that the eight be taken back," said the fifty. "Why, the very idea of expecting such a thing! Fellows can't get acquainted and propose if they can't see us longer than to call and take us home from the factory. What sort of a chance have we of getting a sweetheart when we can't go out with him?"

The argument was a new one to the superintendent, but it was sound enough to cause him to capitulate.

WHEN ILLNESS COMES.

Have you near at hand a remedy that will alleviate pain and help till the doctor comes? A wise thing is to have right in your home a bottle of "Nervine" which gives instant relief, and prevents disease from spreading. Nothing known for the stomach and bowels that compares with Nervine. For cramps, indigestion, heartburn and headache, it's indispensable. For fifty years Polson's Nervine in 25c. bottles has been a family stand-by. Get it today.

HOLD UP VILLAGE BUT GET NO CASH.

Burglars Blow Open the Post Office Safe, Wreck Store and Leave Empty Handed.

Troy, N. Y., March 22.—Three men evidently professional safe robbers, held up the village of Eagle Mills about five miles from Troy, early yesterday morning, and terrorized the inhabitants. Two stood in front of the main store, on which is the post office, while the third man went through the store and looted the post office safe.

The work was fruitless, as there was nothing of value in the safe. The money drawers in the store were also empty.

Residents of the village were kept at bay by the desperados until they fled. They are supposed to have escaped by way of some city, taking a trolley car to Albany.

Andrew Mullin owns the store and lives nearby. He was aroused by the sound of a dull explosion. Hurrying to the store, he was held up by a man with a pistol and was driven off. Other residents of the village who had been aroused hurried to the scene only to be greeted by a fusillade of shots, but none took effect. The residents were unarmed and retreated.

Mr. Mullin is postmaster and town clerk and the burglars evidently expected to make a good haul. They thought they were sure of the receipts of the week.

There was a substantial sum of money in the store but it was not kept in the safe. Mr. Mullin believed in case the place was ever raided the safe would be the principal point of attack. There was before his custom when he had a large amount of cash on hand to hide it in the store, which he did. The result was that the sum remained where he had placed it, although the interior of the place was wrecked.

To blow open the safe dynamite was used. The store looked as if it had been struck by a cyclone of an earthquake. The floor was strewn with merchandise and everything was topsy turvy. Thorough investigation showed that nothing had been taken and that robbers departed empty-handed.

SPRING ADVICE.

Do Not Dose With Purgatives and Weakening Medicines--What People Need at This Season is a Tonic.

Not exactly sick—but not feeling quite well. That's the spring feeling. You are easily tired, appetite variable, sometimes headaches and a feeling of depression. Or perhaps pimples and eruptions appear on the face, or you have twinges of rheumatism or neuralgia. Any of these indicate that the blood is out of order, that the indoor life of winter has left its mark upon you and may easily develop into more serious trouble. Don't dose yourself with purgative medicines in the hope that you can put your blood right. Purgatives gallop through the system and weaken instead of giving strength. What you need is a tonic medicine that will make new, rich, red blood, build up the weakened nerves and thus give you new health and strength. And the one medicine to do this speedily and surely is Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Every dose of this medicine makes new, rich blood which makes weak, easily tired and ailing men and women bright, active and strong. If you need a medicine this spring try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and you will never regret it. This medicine has cured thousands in every part of the world and what it has done for others it can easily do for you.

The headquarters for the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People in Canada is Brockville, Ont. So-called pink pills offered by companies located at other places in Canada are fraudulent imitations intended to deceive. If your dealer does not keep the genuine Dr. Williams' Pink Pills for Pale People send to Brockville, Ont., and The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co. will mail the pills to you at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50.

AN INSANE MOTHER.

Strangled Her Nine Year Old Daughter at Winnipeg.

Winnipeg, March 21.—While temporarily insane the victim of a peculiar form of insanity, which made her believe it was God's will that she should slay her children, Mrs. John J. Leslie, Jessie avenue, this city, today strangled her nine-year old daughter, Hilda, and then, as her horrible crime forced itself into realization in her diseased mind, she attempted to take her own life by slashing her throat with a razor. Investigation following this pathetic occurrence revealed the fact that the insane and frenzied mother had poisoned her infant with carbolic acid about three weeks ago, the circumstances at the time arousing suspicion, although the death was thought to have been accidental.

Mrs. Leslie was taken in charge by the police, and, after examination before a Magistrate tonight, was adjudged insane. When taken away from her home the poor woman wailed, "Hilda was the light of my life, but I could not help it, I had to kill her." Her husband is a patternmaker in the Elmwood Iron Works.

Give some men a dollar and they will believe anything you tell them.
