

Events of a Day

THE GROOM'S PRESENT.

Moncton Transcript: Mr. Pottinger's gift to his bride was a magnificent diamond ring, a beautiful stone in the centre which was surrounded by a group of smaller diamonds.

IT'S A GIRL.

The home of Rev. George D. and Mrs. Ireland of Woodstock, was gladdened this morning by the arrival of a baby daughter. Mrs. Ireland was formerly Miss Carrie Winslow of this city.

HALF PRICE FOR MEN'S HATS.

The hat sale announced by Farrell Bros. for Saturday July 20th. will be a great chance for the men to procure a nice felt hat in any size or color at a very low price. Any colored felt hat on Saturday for one dollar and fifty-cents.—d.

BAND CONCERT.

The Fredericton Brass Band gave an enjoyable concert from the west end band stand last evening. There was a great crowd of people in attendance and the band boys came in for many well deserved compliments on their playing.

UNAVOIDABLY DETAINED

Three weary Willies from St. John struck town on Wednesday en route to Hartland and after loading up with cheap booze fell into the hands of the police. They all were considerate enough to plead guilty before Col. Marsh the next morning, and he fined them $4. each or five days in jail. Being without money they expressed a willingness to leave town on short notice, but His Honor decided to detain them.

HAS DISTEMPER.

One of the Clydesdale mares of the government importation is quite ill from an attack of distemper contracted during the voyage across the Atlantic. Veterinary Stockford is in attendance and hopes to pull her through all right.

THE ARTESIAN WELLS

Mr. T. B. Kent, the artesian well borer who is in the city today, has the contract for boring tests wells in the counties of Sunbury and Queens and expects to begin work in the course of a week or two.

THE MURDER CASE.

David's Examination will be Concluded on Tuesday.

The preliminary examination of Tom David charged with murdering his wife, has been postponed until Tuesday morning at eleven o'clock to procure the attendance of further witnesses. Drs. Rankine and Grant, who attended Mrs. David at the Woodstock Hospital, and Mr. N. Foster Thorne, editor of the Carleton Place Sentinel, an eye witness of the shooting, are yet to be examined. It is practically settled now that the accused will be sent up for trial at the next January circuit.

It is difficult to tell at this stage just what the line of the defence will be. Mr. Hazen, who has been retained by Assurances in the United States to defend the accused, attended the preliminary examinations, but apart from objecting to a few questions by Mr. Barry took no active part in the proceedings. As the evidence against the accused is very strong he will probably admit at the trial that he did the shooting and attempt to prove justification. As justifiable homicide is very clearly defined in the Canadian criminal code the task cut out for the counsel of the accused is not a very light one.

A railway ticket from Woodstock to Lowell taken from the prisoner when arrested has been restored to him, and the railway authorities will grant him a refund on the unused portion of it. The money will go towards supplementing the bill of fare of bread and water allowed the prisoner by the county council.

Several local lawyers, who regard themselves as being in the heavy-weight class of criminal practitioners are said to have been grievously disappointed when they learned that Mr. Hazen had been engaged to conduct the defence. It is understood that Mr. Hazen was recommended by a former university professor residing at Lowell.

GOVERNMENT HORSES.

Tory Organ's Efforts to Belittle Them Not Seriously Taken.

The auction sale of twenty of the horses imported from the old country by the local government will be held in the city on July 31st, and is being looked forward to with much interest. A great many people, including a number of strangers in the city have inspected the animals at the exhibition grounds since their arrival here and all speak well of the importation. Mr. William McFarlane, of Nashwaakiss, who is justly regarded as one of the best authorities on horses in the province, declares unhesitatingly that no finer lot was ever brought into New Brunswick. The Clydes, he says are typical of the breed, have good markings, and are splendid specimens in every respect.

Some of the animals have been a little under the weather since their arrival here, as a result of the long voyage, but are rapidly picking up and will be in good shape when the sale takes place. The local Opposition organ, in its issue of last evening devotes nearly a column of space in an effort to make out that some of the horses, particularly the Clydes, are not up to the standard. As the organ is only acting in the public interest, and is not desirous at all of having a fling at the local government, it's opinion on the subject is of course entitled to great weight. Our old friend, Mr. Pinder, of Nackawick, who made a trip to the city this week to see the horses, is said to have made the remarkable discovery that one of the stallions has white eyes. It was probably Mr. Pinder's opinion of the importation that found expression in the columns of the local Tory organ.

Hon. Mr. Harris, when asked last evening if he had anything to say in regard to the Gleaner's criticism of the horses, remarked that it was not worrying him very much. "I was expecting something of that kind from the Gleaner," said he. "Indeed I would have been disappointed if they had not been able to find some fault. Why the very fact that the Gleaner's criticism is of such a mild nature should go along way towards convincing people that the horses are pretty nearly right. I am well satisfied with the horses and I think the farmers of the province will be satisfied with them."

WESTERN VISITORS

Dr. and Mrs. G. F. Inch of Kalamazoo, Michigan, spent Wednesday in the city guests at the Queen Hotel and left by boat next morning on a visit to friends in Kings County. The doctor is a son of the late Mr. George Inch of Oak Point and a nephew of Chief Superintendent Inch. He has been in the middle west for number of years and fills a position on the staff of the insane asylum at Kalamazoo. While here the visitors enjoyed a drive about the city in company with the chief superintendent.

THE WEATHER.

Moderate winds, fine and warm in west districts, showery in Cape Breton and P. E. Island. Saturday, moderate westerly winds fine and warm.

Mr. Robie M. Burgess of Amherst, is among the guests at the Queen.

ANNIVERSARY SERVICE.

Former New Brunswick Clergyman Officiated at Calgary Church.

The Daily News, of Calgary Alberta of recent date contains a reference to the anniversary services at Grace Presbyterian Church at that place and gives considerable space to an eloquent and able sermon preached by Rev. S. Beacon Hillocks a former New Brunswick, now a prominent divine located at Banff.

Of the Reverend gentleman's sermon the Calgary News says: "He proved himself worthy of the occasion delighting his audience with the richness of his thought and the beautiful language in which it was clothed. Mr. Hillocks is true to the Evangelical school, is scholarly and eloquent and has a bright future before him. Though a young man he has developed in the art of preaching to a degree often not attained by men of twice his experience."

The reverend gentleman referred to above is a native of Bathurst, and was formerly a clergyman of the Church of England, being for some time stationed at Andover. He is a brother of Mrs. B. H. Babbitt of Gibson.

Mix stove polish with soft soap and coffee to give a bright lustre, and avoid the dust from polishing.
