FOLLOWING MR. MCLEAN.

Mr. Borden is the Tory leader in parliament in name only.

The real go-ahead man in the Tory ranks is Mr. W. F. McLean, and Mr. Borden seems to be sitting at Mr. McLean's feet to learn political wisdom.

Long before Mr. Borden decided to advocate government ownership of public utilities, including railways, and made it a part of the Tory platform, Mr. McLean had raised his voice in that direction in parliament. Another fact of Mr. McLean's is two cent passenger rate on railways, and Mr. Borden has suddenly veered in that direction, and he is in such a hurry to see the reduction that he wants immediate consideration by the railway commission.

Mr. Borden, while a lawyer of eminent ability and a very fine gentleman personally, has little originality as a politician and practically none as a constructive statesman.

It must distress the forceful and gifted veteran Sir Charles Tupper to see how poorly the Tory party is led in parliament, and the country looking on, finds no difficulty in deciding that it would never do to entrust the reins of government to so weak a politician as Mr. Borden, and to a party which he essays to lead, but lamentably fails.

TRURO'S SENSATION.

"A thunder bolt from a dark sky," is the way the Truro Daily News describes the unexpected nomination of William Dishman, a negro, for the mayoralty of that town.

It was anticipated that Mayor Murray would be returned by acclamation, but to the surprise and evidently to the disgust of a great many people, if we are to judge from the News' indignant protest, some practical jokers at the last moment formally and legally nominated Dishman, probably the first colored gent who has ever been nominated for such a position in Canada.

Mayor Murray, of course, will have a walkover, but his friends evidently do not relish the situation.

The News thus expresses its intense indignation:

"It was indeed a thunder bolt from a very 'dark sky' that startled our citizens last evening at 5 o'clock, when it was known that nomination papers had been signed by certain ratepayers for William Dishman, a colored man, and that he had been legally nominated as a candidate to contest the mayoralty against Mayor Murray.

Never since Truro was incorporated have we heard such condemnation of the action of any body of citizens as we have of those who put their names to Dishman's nomination paper.

These signers to this wretched paper knew perfectly well that Dishman was not capable of taking the responsibilities of the most important office in this town. So their action was a gratuitous insult, not to Mayor Murray alone, who was going to be returned as all expected, by acclamation, but to the decent citizenship of the town of Truro. Men may joke and make fools of themselves in private, in different ways, all they wish to, but it becomes criminally serious when in matters of moment they play the fool and insult the intelligence of a whole community.

The respectable colored men of Truro keenly feel this insult, and will vote almost to a man against Dishman.

We have not words, in a pretty extensive vocabulary, too strong enough to condemn this grossly insulting action to our town. We all as well as Mayor Murray, feel the insult, and it may be that some pretty heroic action will yet be taken in regard to this most contemptible and despicable action."

AN ELECTION FORECAST.

The Vancouver World, a valiant opponent of the McBride local government in British Columbia, makes the forecast that in the general election which takes place in that province on Saturday next, the Liberal opposition will elect 23 or 24, the Conservatives 14, and the Socialists 3 or 4,

SEVERE CANADIAN WINTERS DEPRIVED OF THEIR DANGER.

Colds and Their After-Effects Conquered By the Use of Pe-ru-na.

Mayor of Scotstown Recommends Pe-ru-na for Colds and Catarrh.

READ HIS LETTER.

THE first effect of a cold is a thickening of the mucous membranes of the nose and throat.

This gives rise to a discharge, or at least a stuffiness of the nasal passages. Sometimes fever accompanies the first attack, also a feeling of languor, dullness and aching of the bones.

If no attention is paid to it, the mucous congestion is liable to spread down into the larynx, producing hoarseness and into the bronchial tubes, producing a cough.

Even when this occurs, many people pay no attention to it.

Under such circumstances, the congestion is liable to become chronic, producing a condition of the mucous membranes known as catarrh. Catarrh lasts an indefinite time. Catarrh is essentially a chronic condition and does not leave except something is done to relieve it.

What should be done when a person catches cold is to take a few doses of Peruna.

Taken at the onset, Peruna would break up the cold and prevent all the train of symptoms which usually follow.

But, even in cases where the cold has been neglected and hoarseness or a cough has developed, Peruna can be relied upon to give prompt and permanent relief.

The frequency of coughs and colds in Canada makes Peruna a popular remedy in this country.

A number of the best people in Canada have given testimonials as to the value of Peruna in such cases.

Followed Dr. Hartman's Advice—Restored to Health.

Mrs. Samuelle Vigneau, Ayre au Berd, Isle de La Madeleine, Canada, writes:

"I write to tell you that I am perfectly well. I took only three bottles of your Peruna according to your advice and the directions in your book and it restored my health."

The house recently dissolved was almost equally divided between Liberals and Conservatives, but the latter were kept in power by the vote of three Socialists.

Speaking of the contest in Ymir, where Honorable J. Fred Hume, a former Frederictonian, is the Liberal candidate, the World says:—"It is the secret hope of the Conservative party that Mr. Hume will injuriously affect the candidature of Hon. J. F. Hume, and that he will confine his attention to places where he can hurt the Liberal candidate. The World staff correspondent, however, wires this paper from Trail that Ymir can be safely relegated to the Liberal column."

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Nova Scotia legislature meets Feb. 14, the same day as ours. This will be its first gathering since the general election, and the government returns with 33 of the 38 members supporting them.

The Boss is leader of the Grits. Sub-editor was seized with fits. The foreman at the joyous news. Filled up on fourteen kinds of booze. The devil pied a form of type. While full of pains from eating tripe. We had a bully time no doubt. Therefore the paper won't be out."

The new leader of the Liberal opposition in the Ontario legislature, Hon. Geo. P. Graham is editor of the Brockville Recorder, and the announcement of his selection, according to the funny man of the Toronto News: created intense interest and serious havoc and disorganization in the Recorder office. The News says: A passing stranger noticed the following interesting notice posted on the front door of the Recorder:

The versatile, picturesque, and large hearted Ald. McGoldrick of St. John at a council meeting invited his fellow alderman Sproul to accompany him to Fredericton with the bills committee during the legislative session and promised Mr. Sproul "the time of his life." Now what does Ald. McGoldrick propose in the way of entertainment. Is it to see the legislature in session and the opposition going down before a government assault or is there some extraneous attraction which Ald. McGoldrick has in mind?

The "Hello girls," in the Bell Telephone exchange at Toronto are striking because their hours have been increased, and Mr. McKenzie King, the deputy minister of labor is hastening

C. H. PARKER.

C. H. Parker, Ex-Warden of Compton Co., Quebec, has been mayor of Scotstown for a number of years. He is an influential resident in Scotstown and widely known.

He writes concerning Peruna, as follows:

"I had several attacks of colds from time to time and finally a severe attack developed into catarrh."

"I was advised to use your celebrated catarrh remedy, and after taking three bottles I find myself completely cured, and I no longer suffer from catarrh or colds."

"I can cheerfully recommend Peruna for colds and catarrh."

Should you desire special instructions relative to the use of Peruna, address Dr. S. B. Hartman, President of the Hartman Sanitarium, Columbus, Ohio.

down from Ottawa to seek a settlement. Mr. McKenzie is a nice looking young man with pleasing ways and he may be able to effect a peaceable solution of the trouble, but we are with the "Hello girls!" Perhaps if they don't get what they want they'll scratch Mr. McKenzie's eyes out. It's a dangerous business dealing with female strikers.

St. John firemen and other friends of Mr. John Kerr, the efficient chief of the fire department in that city, honored the 25th anniversary of his appointment on Wednesday evening by presenting him with a complimentary address and a massive silver loving cup, the affair being also characterized by the attendance of many prominent citizens and a round of congratulatory speeches. Mr. Kerr, who is a former Fredericton boy and by profession a lawyer, has given excellent service in his position as fire chief and well deserved the demonstration in his honor.

BITS OF NEWS.

Charles McAnn, a former Moncton barrister, was recently elected Mayor of Kaslo, B. C.

A despatch from St. Petersburg says that Count Tolstol, the novelist and social reformer, is dying.

Rev. E. D. Miller, pastor of the Presbyterian church at Yarmouth, N. S., has accepted a call to Chalmers' church, Halifax.

M. B. Dixon, clerk of the Supreme court for Alberta, speaking of Collins, under sentence of death in the county jail, said the prisoner is losing some of his cheerfulness for which he has been noted during his imprisonment. The condemned man is feeling blue, this being the first symptoms of being downhearted shown since his arrest for the New Ireland crime.
