

Events of a Day

WELL INSURED.

It is reported on good authority that the late Mr. John Macpherson carried upwards of fifty thousand dollars insurance upon his life.

STUDENT TO PREACH

Mr. Hayward of the U. N. B. will occupy the pulpit of the United Baptist Church, Marysville both afternoon and evening on Sunday. The afternoon collection will be for missionary purposes.

A PLEASANT GATHERING

There was a pleasant gathering last evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. C. J. B. Simmons, St. John street, the occasion being the baptism of their infant daughter. Rev. J. W. McConnell, performed the ceremony.

SUPREME COURT.

Argument in the case of ex-parte Russia Williams was finished in the supreme court yesterday afternoon and judgment reserved. The point to be decided in this case is whether or not Mr. J. W. Dickie of Gagetown is disqualified from holding a seat in week.

the Queens Municipal Council, he being a vendor under the Liquor License Act. The case of Ingram vs. Brown is now being argued. Dr. Currey is moving for a new trial; Hon. C. N. Skinner and H. A. McKeown, K. C.'s contra.

FUNERAL TOMORROW.

The funeral of the late Mr. John Macpherson will take place from the residence of Mr. Willard Kitchen at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon to the rural cemetery. The cortege will leave the house at three o'clock. The members of St. Andrew's Society are to attend the funeral of the late brother. They will meet at the City Hall at 1.30 and barouches will be provided to take them to the residence of Mr. Willard Kitchen, members will have their badges trimmed with crepe and also carry a sprig of heather to be dropped in the grave. Chaplain Montgomery will read the society's prayer over the remains.

POLICE COURT.

A Scott Act case against a resident of Tay Creek, was to have been heard at the police court this morning, but owing to the absence of witnesses, was stood over until next week.

ACCIDENTALLY KILLED.

Son of Former Resident of Allendale, York Co., Shot Dead by His Brother at Pepperell, Mass.

The sad news was received by Mrs. Maggie J. Charters of Gibson, of the accidental shooting of one of her nephews by his brother, Allen.

An account of the tragedy sent Mrs. Charters by her niece, Mrs. Chas. Barker of Gibson, who is visiting relatives near their home, in Pepperell, Mass., is thus:—The two lads left their home on Saturday, Jan. 19 accompanied by five other playmates to shoot rabbits.

When about two miles from home they built a fire and had a game of snow-balling and afterwards one of the brothers picked up the rifle, not knowing that it was loaded. By some means his brother who was standing by received the contents in his heart. He only lived ten minutes after.

It is the first break in the large family of Frederick McCormack, who left Allendale a number of years ago, his wife being a Miss Savage of that place.

The victim was named after his grandfather the late Chas. McCormack of Prince William, so well known in York municipal circles. Kind friends and neighbors showed their sympathy by their attendance at the funeral and by their generous gifts of flowers.

The deceased was in his sixteenth year and was one of a family of ten.

WILL PROBATED.

Late B. A. Everett Left Estate Valued at $15,250.

The will of the late Benjamin A. Everett has been admitted to probate and letters of administration have been issued to his son Mr. Albert Everett and his daughter, Miss Carrie S. Everett, who are named as executor and executrix.

The estate was sworn at $15,250, of which $2,500 is personal property and the balance real estate. The real estate which is the Long's hotel property on King street, is subject to a mortgage of $5,000. Under the terms of the will the property is to be divided into seven shares, one of which is bequeathed to Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Everett and the remaining son and the five daughters of the testator are to receive the residue of the estate. The will is dated November 24th, 1903, and is witnessed by Messrs. J. W. McCready and F. W. Porter. Mr. McCready is the executor for the estate.

MRS. McLELLAN'S FUNERAL.

Newcastle Advocate: The funeral of the late Mrs. W. W. McLellan, whose death occurred at Fredericton last Saturday, took place Tuesday afternoon from the residence of Capt. Russell, son-in-law of the deceased, interment being made in the St. James cemetery. Rev. J. M. MacLean conducted the services. The hymns, "Abide With Me," and "One Sweetly Solemn Thought" were sung by the following quartette: Miss Shaw, Miss Sweeney, Mr. S. W. Jamson and Mr. A. E. Shaw. Mrs. McLellan's life was such that there will be universal regret at her sudden demise.

MRS. CHARLES TAYLOR DEAD.

Mrs. Catherine Taylor, widow of Chas. Taylor, died yesterday morning at St. John, after a lingering illness from a complication of diseases. She was aged seventy years. Deceased, who was a native of England, had been in this country a great many years. Her husband died more than thirty years ago. Three sons and two daughters survive. They are Wm. C., of St. John; James of Fredericton; Stephen, of New York; Annie, who lives at home, and Mrs. John Parlee, of St. John.

A GREAT AGE.

Chatham Commercial: In the 93rd year of his age, John Gordon passed away on Sunday. He was born Sept. 12th, 1808, at the Gordon-Murdock homestead, still standing, and one of the very few houses that escaped the great fire of 1825.

A NEW ENTERPRISE.

St. Andrew's Beacon: D. F. Maxwell, C. E., who was at Kennedy's hotel on Monday, says that he has secured a mill site for his proposed lumber mill near Plaster Rock on the Tobique, and the lumber is now being cut. He speaks hopefully of the prospect.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of People in whom our Readers are Interested.

Rev. Geo. D. Ireland of Woodstock, is among the guests at the Queen today.

Mr. W. H. Berry of St. Stephen is among the guests at the Queen.

Mr. L. B. Knight of St. John, Chief Game Commissioner, is stopping at the Queen.

Judge Ebbett of Gagetown, is among the visitors in the city today.

Messrs. R. W. McLellan and W. A. B. McLellan returned yesterday from Newcastle, where they were attending the funeral of their mother, the late Mrs. W. W. McLellan of this city.

CHATHAM COMMERCIAL: W. S. BENSON, manager of the Bank of N. S., Kentville, and J. J. Benson, of the Bank of Montreal, Pictou, have been allied here on the account of the serious illness of their father, Dr. John S. Benson.

A COURT INCIDENT.

In its review of the late Hon. A. G. Blair's record as a lawyer, the Winnipeg Free Press notes the following court incident:

"During Mr. Blair's first term as Premier, and while holding the position of attorney-general, an incident occurred that almost ended his career. The Circuit court at Bathurst one Philias Laitange was tried for murder. The court pronounced him insane, but Philias, who, from Mr. Blair's handling of the case, fully expected the death penalty, thought that such was the sentence. The prisoner seized a heavy water-pitcher, and shouting out in a frenzy of rage: 'If I'm going to hang you'll die first,' smote the attorney-general over the head with a well-directed blow."

A SUNBURY WEDDING.

Victoria, N. B., Jan. 28.—A pretty wedding took place in this vicinity, the contracting parties being Mrs. Rachel Boone, and Mr. Jas. Till, both of Victoria, Sunbury Co. The bride looked charming in a suit of black cashmere, with white silk-trimmed trimmings, and a black picture hat.

The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Boyer of Fredericton. The bride party drove to the home of Mr. George Till, brother of the groom, where a sumptuous supper was served. The bride was one of our most popular ladies of the place, her popularity being shown by the number of beautiful and costly presents received.

LAID TO REST.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Michael White took place Wednesday afternoon from her late home at Nashwaak Village, and was attended by a large number of relatives and friends. The body was taken to the Methodist church, where an impressive service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Ramsay, assisted by Revs. Dr. McLeod and A. A. Rideout, and Licentiate M. L. Orchard. The chief mourners included the two sons of the deceased, Messrs. Odour and Sebastian White. Another son, Whitfield, is absent in the lumber woods, could not get home in time for funeral. Undertaker R. B. Adams had charge of the funeral arrangements.
