

OTHER SIDE OF THE STORY.

Opposition Restigouche Election Scandal Exploded by Affidavits of Sheriff Stewart, Mr. Reid, M. P., and Others.

NO IRREGULARITIES IN CONDUCT OF THE ELECTION.

In the Legislature Thursday afternoon, Premier Pugsley submitted the following affidavits disproving opposition allegations in the respect to alleged irregularities in the conduct of the recent by-election in Restigouche:

FROM THE SHERIFF.

1.—Timothy Robinson of the parish of Dalhousie in the county of Restigouche, in the province of New Brunswick, sheriff of the said county of Restigouche, do solemnly declare:

1.—That I was returning officer at the recent by-election held in and for the said county of Restigouche on the second day of January last past, and acted throughout said election as such returning officer.

2.—That Dennis A. Arsenau of the parish of Balmoral in the said county was appointed by me, deputy returning officer for sub-district number 3 in the said parish of Balmoral, and as I am informed and as appears from his return of the vote at said sub-district, and as I verily believe, he did act as such deputy returning officer at said polling place on the day of said election.

3.—That I duly supplied the said Dennis A. Arsenau before the said election, as required by law, with a ballot box and other articles and supplies for holding said poll at said sub-district, including a sufficient number of envelopes in which to insert the ballots of the voters as directed by law, which envelopes were exactly the same kind of envelopes as every particular as I furnished to all other deputy returning officers holding polls in the said election.

4.—That the envelopes so furnished by me to deputy returning officers as aforesaid were procured by me from Toronto on my order, not being able to procure any ungunned envelopes at Campbellton or in said county of Restigouche, and the envelopes came without flaps open at the end, notwithstanding I ordered envelopes with ungunned flaps, and it was too late to order again after the said envelopes came, and I used the supply sent me as aforesaid.

5.—That I was not present at said election day at said sub-district and have no knowledge of anything that took place there that day. No complaint has ever been made to me of any irregularities at said sub-district on said election day and I have no knowledge of any such irregularities.

6.—I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act.

Declared before me at the town of Campbellton in the county of Restigouche, this twenty-second day of February, A. D. 1907.

(Sgd.) TIMOTHY ROBINSON, Sheriff.

FROM MR. REID, M. P.

Province of Ontario, County of Carleton, S. S.

In the matter of the Restigouche election case.

1.—James Reid, of the parish of Colburn, in the county of Restigouche and province of New Brunswick, merchant, do solemnly declare,

1.—That I have read over copies of the solemn declarations herein made by Thomas Savoie and James E. Stewart, respectively declared to at the town of Campbellton, in the county of Restigouche, on the thirtieth day of January last past and the ninth day of February instant, before Albert Mott, Esq., commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

2.—That I was present at the polling place at polling sub-district number 3 in the parish of Balmoral in the said county, at the election held in the said county on the second day of January last past, as the legally appointed agent of William Currie, one of the candidates at the said election and said James E. Stewart, the other candidate was present during the whole of the said day and during the greater portion thereof I remained in the polling place where I remained from the opening until the closing of the poll.

3.—That it is true Dennis A. Arsenau acted as deputy returning officer at the said polling district during the said election and it is also true that the said Dennis A. Arsenau has invariably acted as returning officer there on provincial and Dominion elections held in the said polling district for at least six years last past, and in some instances has been a supporter of the party with whom I have been allied and in others has been in opposition thereto, and I never heard up to the present time, a word of fault found with the said Mr. Arsenau in his official capacity as deputy returning officer.

4.—The election hereinbefore referred to was held in the school-house, a room about forty feet long by twenty-five feet in width. The returning officer sat at a desk in one corner of the room opposite the door and across the opposite corner a screen was hung, behind which electors marked their ballots.

5.—In reply to the statement set forth in the fourth paragraph of the declaration of the said James E. Stewart, I deny that the said Dennis A. Arsenau ever refused when requested to do, to direct voters to go behind the screen for the purpose of depositing their ballots in the official envelopes, but on the contrary, more than a dozen times I heard the said deputy returning officer instruct and direct the voters to go behind the screen before placing their ballots in the envelopes, and on only one occasion was any protest made by the said James E. Stewart, against the manner of voting and in that case the deputy returning officer instructed the voter that he must go behind the screen, as provided by law, I positively deny the statement that the said returning officer held the envelope in his hand and allowed several voters to put their ballots into the envelope at the box, without going behind the screen; and such a transaction never happened during the whole time of the progress of the election. In a number of cases the voter, being unable to open the envelope himself asked the returning officer to do so for them, which he did but invariably he returned the envelope with instructions to go behind the screen and deposit his ballot therein. It is true that in many cases the electors did not actually go behind the screen but went up to it and deposited their ballot in the envelope with their back turned to the returning officer and myself and in such a manner that no person other than the voter could possibly know what kind of a ballot was placed within the envelope, and I most positively deny that I ever in a solitary instance, was able to follow a ballot from the time it was delivered to the voter until placed within the envelope.

6.—It is true that in many cases as a voter entered the room I offered him a ballot marked for the said William Currie and it is also true that whenever it was possible to do so, the said James E. Stewart offered voters when in the room, a ballot marked for himself, and in many instances voters took both the ballots offered by the said James E. Stewart and myself, and I have no knowledge which of the said ballots they eventually deposited in the envelope. Ballots for both candidates were to be found upon the returning officer's table but neither of the candidates or their agents availed themselves of the provisions of section five of chapter three of the statutes of A. D. 1904, by depositing marked ballots in the separate compartment of the polling booth behind the screen.

(7)—It is not true as set forth in the sixth paragraph of the declaration of the said Mr. James E. Stewart, that two-thirds of all votes polled at the said election were deposited in the envelopes by the voters in the presence of myself and officers of the poll, and in the few instances in which the said happened, it was done by the voter of his own motion and not due directly or indirectly to any previous arrangement between myself and him, or any other person acting on my behalf, and in the few instances in which ballots were so deposited, I did not know, and had no means of knowing, for which candidate said electors were voting, and it is not true that any number of the said voters were unduly influenced in the manner of their voting because of my presence at the said election.

(8)—That so far as I know the said deputy returning officer endeavored to conduct the said election entirely in accordance with the election law of New Brunswick, and nothing was intentionally done by myself or in my opinion by him, which would injuriously affect the rights of the said James E. Stewart or the number of votes received by him at said polling sub-district.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

Declared to at the City of Ottawa in the Province of Ontario, this 23rd day of February, A. D. 1907.

(Sgd.) JAMES REID.

Before me A. F. MAY, A notary public in and for the province of Ontario.

In witness thereof, I, the said notary public, have hereunto set my hand and affixed my official seal at said city of Ottawa, the day and year of the certificate written.

(Sgd.) A. F. MAY, Notary Public.

D. 1907, and the ninth day of February instant, before Albert Mott, Esq., commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

2.—That it is true that I acted as deputy returning officer at polling sub-district No. 3 in the said parish of Balmoral in the said county of Restigouche at the election held in the said county on the second day of January, A. D. 1907, and the ninth day of February instant, past before Albert Mott, Esq., commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

10.—That I am true that I acted as deputy returning officer at polling sub-district No. 3 in the said parish of Balmoral in the said county of Restigouche at the election held in the said county on the second day of January, A. D. 1907, and the ninth day of February instant, past before Albert Mott, Esq., commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

1.—Thomas Savoie, of the parish of Balmoral in the county of Restigouche and province of New Brunswick, farmer, do solemnly declare,

1.—That I was present at the polling place at polling sub-district No. 3 in the parish of Balmoral in the said county of Restigouche at the election held in the said county on the second day of January, A. D. 1907, as legally appointed agent of James E. Stewart, one of the candidates, and the said James E. Stewart being present within half an hour of the closing of the poll and during the greater part thereof was within the polling place where I remained from the opening until the closing of the poll.

2.—That it is true that Dennis A. Arsenau acted as deputy returning officer at the said polling district during the said election and it is true that Dennis A. Arsenau has acted as deputy returning officer there on provincial and Dominion elections before held in the said polling districts on several occasions, and I never heard up to the present time a word of fault found with the said Dennis A. Arsenau in his official capacity as deputy returning officer.

3.—In reply to the statement set forth in the fourth paragraph of the declaration of the said James E. Stewart, I deny that the said Dennis A. 6.—That, as far as I know, the deputy returning officer endeavored to conduct the said election entirely in accordance with the election law of New Brunswick, and nothing was intentionally done by the said deputy returning officer which would injuriously affect the privileges of the said James E. Stewart or the number of votes received by him at the said polling sub-district.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act, 1893.

A TRAINED NURSE

After Years of Experience, Advises Women in Regard to Their Health.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman of 55 Chester Avenue, Newark, N. J., who is a graduate Nurse from the Blockley Training School at Philadelphia, and six years Chief Nurse at the Philadelphia Hospital, writes the letter printed below. She has the advantage of personal experience, besides her professional education, and what she has to say may be absolutely relied upon. Many other women are afflicted as she was. They can regain health in the same way. It is prudent to heed such advice from such a source.

Mrs. Pohlman writes: "I am firmly persuaded, after eight years of experience with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, that it is the safest and best medicine for any suffering woman to take."

Immediately after my marriage I found that my health began to fail me. I became weak and pale with severe bearing-down pains, fearful backaches and frequent dizzy spells. The doctor prescribed for me four months, but it did not improve. I would bloat after eating and frequently become nauseated.

I had passed through my limits so I could hardly walk. It was as bad a case of female trouble as I have ever known. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, however, cured me within four months. Since that time I have had occasion to recommend it to a number of patients suffering from all forms of female difficulties, and I find that while it is considered unsophisticated to recommend a patent medicine, I can honestly recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, for I have seen it cure the female ills, where all other medicine fails. It is a grand medicine for sick women."

Money cannot buy such testimony as this—merit alone can produce such results, and the ablest specialists now recommend Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the most universally successful remedy for all female diseases known to medicine.

When women are troubled with irregular, suppressed or painful periods, weakness, displacement or ulceration of the female organs, that bearing-down feeling, inflammation, backache, bloating (or flatulence), general debility, indigestion, and nervous prostration, or are beset with such symptoms as dizziness, faintness, lassitude, excitability, irritability, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Succeeds where Others Fail.

said James E. Stewart, while the said James E. Stewart stood some distance off from the position I occupied as deputy returning officer, say about thirty feet.

6.—That the said Thomas Savoie occupied said position near me during the greater part of the day and never allowed several voters to put their ballots in the polling day (or polling of the ballots) did he object, protest or say a single word to me against the manner the voters were casting their ballots.

7.—Re the statement set forth in the fourth paragraph of the declaration of the said James E. Stewart I positively deny that I ever refused when requested to do so to direct voters to go behind the screen for the purpose of depositing their ballots in the official envelopes, but on the contrary more than fifty times I instructed and directed the voters to go behind the screen for the purpose of placing their ballots in an envelope, and on only one occasion did I refuse to do so.

8.—That I am true that I acted as deputy returning officer at polling sub-district No. 3 in the said parish of Balmoral in the said county of Restigouche at the election held in the said county on the second day of January, A. D. 1907, and the ninth day of February instant, past before Albert Mott, Esq., commissioner for taking affidavits to be read in the supreme court.

Mrs. Martha Pohlman

nervousness, sleeplessness, melancholy, "all-gone" and "want-to-be-left-alone" feelings, blues and hopelessness, they should remember there is one tried and true remedy. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once removes such troubles.

No other female medicine in the world has received such widespread and unqualified endorsement. The needless suffering of women from diseases peculiar to their sex is terrible to see. The money which they pay to doctors who do not help them is an enormous waste. The pain is cured and the money is saved by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

It is well for women who are ill to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant for many years before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. In her great experience, which covers many years, she has probably had to deal with dozens of cases just like yours. Her advice is strictly confidential.

cast Mr. James Reid had no means of knowing of whom said electors were casting their votes, and I must say that in my opinion Mr. James Reid acted in a very gentlemanly, kind, courteous and broad minded way during the whole polling day which always marks the high estimation in which he is held in Restigouche county.

10.—That in acting as deputy returning officer I tried to fill said office, without prejudice to either political parties and never have I while acting as said deputy returning officer endeavored by acts, signs or gestures to influence any elector at the poll from casting the vote for whom he thought fit.

And I make this solemn declaration conscientiously believing it to be true and knowing that it is of the same force and effect as if made under oath and by virtue of the Canada Evidence Act 1893.
