THE FOWLER OUTBURST.

Mr. George W. Fowler was in a somewhat more amiable mood in parliament Thursday than when he made his coarse outburst in the same body on the previous Tuesday.

The matter was brought up by Mr. Bourassa who claimed that Mr. Fowler's insinuations about "wine, women and grass" should not be permitted to pass without investigation and both the leaders agreed with that view.

Mr. Fowler declared he would not have made such an exhibition if he had not been goaded to anger, but a bad temper is no excuse for such an outrageous violation of the dignity of parliament.

Mr. Foster seems to have entered a pathetic plea on his own behalf, fearful no doubt of what will happen when the insurance commission's report is under consideration, and Mr. Carvell apparently made things rather unpleasant for Mr. Bennett, one of the western land dealers.

There was, however, a spirit of dignity and calmness in Thursday's discussion not discernible in Mr. Fowler's hot headed reckless charges, but doubtless the calm will be disturbed when the insurance commission report's submission gives the members an excuse for delving into the revelations of the recent enquiry.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier correctly represented Mr. Foster when he declared that he was among the worst insinulators in the house, but it would have scarcely been fair to strike the ex-finance minister any harder when he was in such a penitent mood as he represented himself to be in Thursday's debate.

For Mr. Fowler, there seems to be only one course, either to retract his shattering charges or demand a full enquiry, and we venture the assertion that if he has the courage to adopt the latter course, there will be some developments of interest to him and his friends.

CARLETON COUNTY POLITICS.

The local opposition in Carleton county are to meet in convention at Woodstock tomorrow afternoon to select candidates for the legislature. Messrs. Fielding and Smith M. P.'s will be two of the number and who the third will be has not yet developed, there is not much likelihood, however that Mr. Simms who has made some sacrifices for his party will be chosen for a place on the ticket. Mr. Hazen with some of his colleagues in the legislature will attend the convention and real barnstorming may be anticipated.

The government ticket composed of Solicitor General Jones, Mr. Harry Carvell, and Mr. Andrew D. McCain, is a very strong team, and Messrs. Fleming and Smith feel nervous over the prospects of opposition defeat. They will miss the prestige and influence of Mr. Hale ex-M. P. and the government candidates will be strengthened by the active support of Mr. Carvell, M. P., who is unquestionably the ablest man Carleton has ever elected either to the legislature or the house of commons.

CURRENT TOPICS.

"Billingsgate in the House of Commons," is the way the Toronto Globe characterizes Mr. Geo. W. Fowler's outburst on Tuesday.

It is understood that a convention of the Liberal party in York will be held at an early day to nominate candidates for the legislature and the House of Commons.

No doubt the resolutions of the Forestry Convention dealing with matters of policy with respect to the crown lands will receive from the government the attention deserved.

The Tribune, Tory organ in Winnipeg announces that it will oppose the Roblin Tory government in the present provincial election campaign and its editor Mr. Richardson, ex-M. P., will be an opposition candidate in one of the rural constituencies.

Some of the politicians are pretty good dancers. There is the Minister of Railways for instance. At last night's reception at the parliament buildings, Mr. Emmerson threw off all care, and entered into the whirl of the dance as earnestly as he applies himself to wiping out I. C. R. deficits.

The Forestry delegates were a substantial looking lot of men, and represented a vast amount of wealth, intelligence and enterprise. As lumbermen they are doing a lot for this province, giving employment to many thousands of men, and incidentally are benefitting themselves. They are returning to their homes, it is hoped, with many new and useful ideas that will be helpful and elevating, and the province itself should be the gainer because of the convention.

Evidently there are some incidents in Mrs. Thaw's life that she did not speak of in her direct examination, although some of the newspapers announced in glaring scare heads that "She laid bare the story of her life." The cross-examination of Mrs. Thaw promises to develop sensational features.

The Tory leader in the Nova Scotia legislature made prohibition the chief plank in his platform in appealing to the electors last summer, and only five opposition candidates were returned. In the Assembly the other day the same gentleman moved an amendment to the address, based on the alleged desire of the people for prohibition, and it received only five votes. There is not much likelihood of the Tory opposition leader in the New Brunswick legislature taking up the subject of prohibition, and if the friends of that movement do not believe the statement, let them interview Mr. Hazen as they have interviewed the government.

HONORED IN DEATH.

Large Number of People Attended Sir Wm. Hingston's Funeral.

Montreal, Feb. 21.—(Special)—Amidst a wild snowstorm, with the wind blowing forty miles an hour, Sir William Hingston was buried this morning.

Thousands of citizens formed the long line which wended its way slowly from his late residence on Sherbrooke street, to St. Patrick's church, of which he had been a member for upwards of forty years.

Well nigh every public institution in the city, Catholic and Protestant, French and English, was represented in the procession.

Col. Hanbury-Williams came down from Ottawa to represent the Governor General, while various members of the Senate represented the Dominion government.

Mayor Ekers and a large number of aldermen represented the city.

FORESTRY ASSOCIATION.

Preliminary Steps Taken to Organize One for New Brunswick.

At a meeting of lumbermen and others interested held immediately after the close of the Forestry Convention yesterday it was decided to form a forestry association for New Brunswick. Hon. J. P. Burchill presided and Hon. C. N. Skinner, K. C., acted as secretary. There were seventeen gentlemen in attendance, and all signified their intention of joining the association. A committee composed of Messrs. Burchill, Skinner, Hazen, A. H. F. Randolph, and J. Fraser Gregory was appointed to draft a constitution and bye-laws, and report at another meeting to be held in the near future.

CONCERT TONIGHT.

The Mission Band of the Broadway Baptist church, Gibson, will hold a birthday concert and party this evening at the church. An interesting musical and history program, comprising local talent, will be carried out. Silver collection at the door.

THE REAL CHINESE GONG.

It Makes an Uproar as Awful as It is Astonishing.

By the way, did you ever hear a real Chinese gong? I don't mean a hotel gong, but one of those great moon disks of yellow metal which have so terrible a power of utterance.

A gentleman in Bangor, north Wales, who had a private museum of south Pacific and Chinese curiosities, exhibited one to me. It was hanging amid Fiji spears beautifully barbed with sharks' teeth, which, together with grotesque New Zealand clubs of green stone and Sandwich Island paddles wrought with the baroque visages of the shark god, were depending from the walls; also there were Indian elephants in ivory, carrying balls in their carven bellies, each ball containing many other balls inside it.

The gong glimmered pale and huge and yellow, like the moon rising over a southern swamp. My friend tapped its ancient face with a muffled drumstick, and it commenced to sob like waves upon a low beach. He tapped it again, and it moaned like the wind in a mighty forest of pines. Again, and it commenced to roar, and with each tap the roar grew deeper and deeper till it seemed like thunder rolling over an abyss in the Cordilleras or the crashing of Thor's chariot wheels.

It was awful and astonishing as awful. I assure you I did not laugh at it at all. It impressed me as something terrible and mysterious. I vainly sought to understand how that thin disk of trembling metal could produce so frightful a vibration. He informed me that it was very expensive, being chiefly made of the most precious metals, silver and gold.—From "Life and Letters of Lafcadio Hearn."

A Royal Slip.

Considerable amusement was once caused by a slip of Emperor Nicholas' pen in accepting the offers of several companies of Siberian militia who volunteered for service at the front. The petition read, "We humbly lay at your majesty's feet our desire to be permitted to fight and die for the fatherland." The emperor in accepting wrote on the margin of the petition in his own hand, "I thank you sincerely and hope your wishes may be fully realized."

The Wasted Witticism.

"I always thought," said the hostess, "that Scotchmen were humorous. Last night I showed a departing Scotch guest a great pile of overcoats in the dressing room."

"Here," I said, with a wave of my hand, "you are the first to leave. Take your choice!"

"Thank you," said he as he fumbled searchingly among them, "I'll have me own!"—New York Press.

City Elections.
