MUCH ESTEEMED LADY.

Doaktown Sincerely Mourns the Death of Mrs. Betts.

The people of Doaktown were moved to an expression of respect and sympathy by the removal of Mrs. Nelson Betts to the higher and better world on April 26th, 1907. She was one of our old and respected residents having lived here during her married life of 51 years. She was born in Scotland over 70 years ago. Being of sturdy Scotch stock, she was always able to work, and did up to a few days before she died, and like one who knew her work was over, bade her friends adieu, telling them that she would meet them in Heaven. Her faith was anchored in God's promises, and thus it was abiding. Mr. and Mrs. Betts had eight children—born to them and two are dead. Samuel D. Mary Jane, Jared Edgar, Magnus and Charlotte are living. They are all married and have in all 45 children who no doubt will be esteemed where they live as their grandparents and parents are. Mr. Betts is 73 and will no doubt feel his lonely condition, but he has the sympathy of many friends, who manifested this by the large attendance at his partner's funeral. About three hundred people were assembled in the Baptist Church while an appropriate sermon was preached by the pastor Rev. C. P. Wilson.

DIED ABROAD.

Former St. Andrew's Man, Brother of Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer Passed Away in London.

St. Andrews, N. B., May 8.—A cable message from London today states that the body of Frank Gove, who died there on Sunday last on his way from Shanghai to St. Andrews, will be brought here for burial. The deceased was 47 years old. He was the only son of the late Chas. M. Gove, collector of customs at St. Andrews. Besides his wife and two children, who were accompanying him on his transatlantic trip, he is survived by his widowed mother and four sisters—Mrs. W. C. H. Grimmer, of St. Stephen; Mrs. E. W. Wood, of Winnipeg; Mrs. Brehm, of St. John's (Nfld.); and Mrs. F. Howard Grimmer, of St. Andrews. Deceased went to China about the year 1877. Of late years he has been manager of the firm of Wheelock & Co., of Shanghai, of which he was a partner.

MIDDLEMORE CHILDREN.

Fredericton, May 9th, 1907
To the Editor of the Fredericton Herald:

Sir: On Tuesday last I received a letter from Mr. Jackson, manager of the Middlemore Home for children, Birmingham, England, saying, "We leave for Canada on 11th of May and hope to reach Fredericton with a party of boys and girls on Friday, 24th in the evening."

He also wrote that he would bring with him six young men, ages ranging from fifteen to seventeen years, who were anxious to come to Canada and make a way for themselves. These young men are well educated and will come provided with a good kit and will not expect very heavy wages for the first year. They do not come from the Home, but merely come under the care and guidance of Mr. Jackson.

He is not bringing out any girls outside of the children from the Home. You were in error in so stating in yesterday's issue.

Any one wishing to procure one of the young men will please communicate with me.

Yours faithfully,
HENRY B. RAINSFORD.

POLICE COURT.

Dr. J. W. Bridges was the principal witness at the police court yesterday afternoon in the case of Magee and McConaghy, charged with carnally knowing a girl under twelve years of age. He was called to attend the girl after her experience with the prisoners, and told of the condition in which he found her. Three boys were called and told of a conversation had with McConaghy, one of the prisoners relating to the Allen girl. This evidence was practically a corroboration of the girl's testimony. The case is being continued this afternoon.

JUDGE WILSON SPEAKS.

Concurs in Recommendations of Coroner's Jury in Hickey Case--

Rev. J. J. Colter Wins His Suit.

At an adjourned sitting of the York County Court this morning Judge Wilson delivered judgement for the plaintiff in the suit of Rev. J. J. Colter vs. George McDonagh, in the sum of $189.30, being the full amount of his claim. The action was brought to recover on two promissory notes given in exchange for shares in a schooner transferred by Mrs. Colter. J. D. Phinney, K. C. was counsel for the plaintiff; Slipp & Hanson for the defendant.

THE HICKEY CASE.

Judge Wilson before the court adjourned said he thought it would not be out of place for him who was entrusted with the administrations in the court to refer to the recent death of the young man Hickey in this city under such sad and terrible circumstances.

This young man leaves his father, mother and sisters in Amherst seeks employment in Hartland gets into some difficulty, finds his way to our Celestial City, gets under the influence of liquor, falls into the hands of our policemen, is thrown into a dark damp cell without heat or food, with a narrow deal for a bed and a wooden stool for a seat.

No attention is paid to him until the next morning at eleven when he is to be taken before the Police Magistrate. He does not answer to the call and one of the policemen endeavours to arouse him with the tender mercies of a kick. This did not awake him for he is dead.

It is a sad and terrible occurrence and might very well lead the people outside of our city of churches and educational institutions to suppose that nothing but the most brutal and inhuman treatment is extended to those who are so unfortunate as to fall into the hands of our policemen.

It's many a good man's case to get under the influence of liquor, but that is no reason why he should be treated like a brute.

I thoroughly concur in the recommendations made by the Coroner's Jury which investigated the case, that better accommodations be provided for the unfortunate breakers of the law, that they may feel that they are in the hands of those who will extend to them humane treatment.

The whole tendency of public opinion and of those who are interested in the administration of justice in criminal cases now is toward lenient punishment of criminals with a view to their restoration to the confidence of their family and friends and to the position of respectable citizens and not to destroy all hope of their being reclaimed.

It is to be hoped that our Police Committee, Police Magistrate and officers of the law will recognize this trend of public opinion.
