Bird Seed.
Bird seed is sure to attract mice. A deep ruffle tied tightly under the cage and held over the feed cups by an elastic will help appreciably. When a new box of seed is opened it should be emptied into a clean tin box and the seed poured into the cup through a large funnel. In this way none is wasted, and there is no invitation to four footed partakers.

IT IMPARTS STRENGTH.

Just think of the enormous strengthening power Ferrozone possesses—consider what it did for H. V. Potter, well known in Kingston. "I was subject to spells of dizziness. For eight months I had intense pain in my right side between the shoulders. I was almost incurable with weakness and lack of vigor. Often I scarcely ate any breakfast and felt miserable all day. Nervous, easily excited, troubled with heart weakness I was in bad shape. Ferrozone restored and nourished me back to health in short order." Whatever your weakness may be Ferrozone will cure. Price 50c. per box at all dealers.

A Wondrous Fish Story.

Not many persons have the luck of a fisherman on the Arrow Lakes, British Columbia, last summer. At the same time he captured a 200-pound deer and a ten-pound trout.

The fisherman was trolling for trout, when several deer swam past his boat. The man managed to catch hold of an old buck as he was going by, and, having no gun, attempted to kill the animal with a clasp knife.

Struggling violently, the deer got away, and as it swam off it carried the fisherman's line upon its horns.

Picking up his oars, the man started in pursuit, but was unable to bring the deer to bay and kill it until after about two hours of pursuit and fighting.

Most amazing, however, was the fact that then developed. The fishline was still fastened about the deer's horns, and hanging on the hook was a fine ten-pound trout, that had seized the bait as the deer dragged it through the water. The fisherman bore home in triumph both fish and animal.

TIMES APOLOGIZES.

For Its Correspondent who Made a Mean Reflection on
Mr. Emmerson—Transcript's Comment on the Incident.

Moncton Times.—A Fredericton despatch in Thursday's Times, referring to Mr. Emmerson's appearance in court, said he received a despatch which appeared to depress him deeply and mentioned a rumor that it was from Sir Wilfrid Laurier. It appears that the message was one informing him of the death of a relative and the Times very much regrets under the circumstances, the reference of its correspondent, which was made, of course, in ignorance of the facts.

SCATTERING COMMENT.

Moncton Transcript.—The Times in apologizing to the Hon. Mr. Emmerson for its correspondent's contemptible references to Mr. Emmerson as having in court, nervously torn up a piece of paper and using the incident to insinuate reflections against him, says that of course its correspondent did not know that the piece of paper was the envelope of a telegram to Mr. Emmerson announcing the death of a favorite uncle, to whom he was deeply attached. But despite our contemporary's lame apology for a contemptible insult its explanation does not accord with the original statement of its correspondent. It says that Mr. Emmerson received a telegram—

"which seemed to depress him deeply. He read it over and over again and his hands trembled to such an extent as to cause general comment in the court room."

"It seemed to depress him deeply."

Possibly if the correspondent had asked Mr. Emmerson, he would have told him what his private telegram was about. Why should he not be depressed at the news of the death of a near and dear relative? Why should the man's natural grief be made a subject of a contemptible and dirty attack in a vile and unscrupulous newspaper like our contemporary?

The correspondent used this telegram to convey the insinuation and went further to say that the telegram was supposed to be from Sir Wilfrid Laurier. The reports published in The Times despatches have not been fair. There have been contained therein vile and contemptible comments or insinuations seeking to throw dirt at Mr. Emmerson. Even today it publishes comments at the end of its despatches which are evidently concocted comments. The statement which is being tried at Fredericton is whether or not the Hon. Mr. Emmerson was "expelled from the St. Lawrence Hall," in Montreal in company with "two women of ill repute."

The names of the two ladies are now known publicly to our contemporary and one of the ladies is closely related to intimate social and political friends of the writer in The Times.

AN OPEN LETTER.

To the People of Fredericton from George Y. Dibblee, our Well-known Druggist.

To Whom it May Concern:

Of late there has been a good deal of discussion in Fredericton in regard to advertised medicines and their value—the papers are full of them.

We want to say to every man, woman and child in Fredericton that we believe the most valuable preparation of cod liver oil—the best tonic, reconstructer, health restorer and strength creator—we have ever sold in our store is Vinol.

Vinol is not a patent medicine, it contains no injurious drugs, and it actually does contain all of the medicinal curative elements taken from fresh cod's livers, but without a drop of oil to upset the stomach and retard its work, and moreover, it is delicious to the taste.

Vinol acts first upon the stomach, tones up the digestive organs, creates an appetite, purifies and enriches the blood and strengthens every organ in the body to do its work as nature intended.

Vinol is recognized throughout the world as the greatest strength creator for old people, weak, sickly women and children, and nursing mothers and after a severe sickness.

Vinol cures hacking coughs, chronic colds, bronchitis and all throat and lung troubles. Unequaled to create an appetite and to make those who are too thin fat, rosy and healthy.

Vinol is sold everywhere on a positive guarantee that, if it does not give satisfaction, the entire purchase money will be refunded, George Y. Dibblee, druggist.

LYNX JUMPED INTO BOAT.

Gatineau Point Man Captures Fine Specimen Alive.

Ottawa, May 31.—Joseph Osborne of Gatineau Point just across the river from Ottawa, captured a large grey lynx near his home last night under peculiar circumstances. Osborne was gathering some waste wood in the river and was rowing near the shore when he was startled to see a lynx leap from the bushes along the river bank into his boat. Osborne rowed along with the lynx on board to a point farther up the bank, where the lynx leaped into a pile of wood, and was caught with the assistance of two or three men. It is said to be the only lynx ever captured alive in this district, and is a splendid full-grown specimen.

Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder has proved a blessing to many a "man before the public" in cases of hoarseness, bad throat, tonsillitis and catarrh. Some of the most recent evidence of its efficacy comes from a well known actor, whose home is in New York City. He says: "I have never found anything to equal this remedy for quick relief."—50 cents. MACHINISTS' PAY.

Compromise Has Been Reached with I. C. R. Men.

Moncton, June 1.—A basis of agreement has been reached between I. C. R. machinists and General Manager Pottinger and Mechanical Superintendent Joughins.

The management made a further offer of compromise in the matter of increase asked for by the machinists and the same has been accepted subject to the ratification of Deputy Minister Butler. The increases agreed upon are as follows:

Machinists now receiving fifteen cents are increased to twenty per hour.

Men receiving twenty are advanced to twenty-four cents.

Twenty-four cent men are advanced to twenty-seven, and those receiving twenty-seven now increased to twenty-nine.

The increase takes place from the first of last April.

EVEN HER BLOOD TURNED TO WATER.

When Dying of Pernicious Anaemia Her Life Was Saved by FERROZONE.

Probably very few cases are on record in which an absolute cure has been made of pernicious anaemia.

But Ferrozone cured Miss Elaine Stanhope—cured her absolutely, and her mother, Mrs. G. Stanhope of Rothesay, Ont., says the following:

"My daughter complained of feeling tired. She was very pale and listless, and kept losing strength till too weak to attend school. The doctors prescribed different bottles of medicine but Elaine kept getting worse instead of better. She had Anaemia and we were afraid for a while that she might never rally. We read of a similar case, that of Miss Descent of Stirling, Ont., being cured by Ferrozone, and this induced us to get it for Elaine. It took three boxes of Ferrozone to make any decided improvement, but when six boxes were used my daughter was beginning to be her old self again. It didn't take much longer to make a complete cure, and I am convinced that there is no better bloodmaker than Ferrozone. It has made a new girl of Elaine. She has gained ten pounds in weight and looks the picture of health. She is stronger and enjoys the best of spirits. The credit of her recovery is entirely due to Ferrozone."

Every grown girl and young woman can make herself strong and healthy with Ferrozone.

It makes blood, nerve and tissue—makes it fast—makes it to stay.

Complexion soon becomes perfect, nerves get new strength, tiredness vanishes—perfect health is the reward for using Ferrozone, which is sold by all druggists—price 50c. per box; don't fail to try it.

EVERY MAN HIS OWN DOCTOR.

The average man cannot afford to employ a physician for every slight ailment or injury that may occur in his family, nor can he afford to neglect them, as so slight an injury as the scratch of a pin has been known to cause the loss of a limb. Hence every man must from necessity be his own doctor for this class of ailments. Success often depends upon prompt treatment, which can only be had when suitable medicines are kept at hand. Chamberlain's Remedies have been in the market for many years and enjoy a good reputation. Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy for bowel complaints.

Chamberlain's Cough Remedy for coughs, colds, croup and whooping cough.

Chamberlain's Pain Balm (an antiseptic liniment) for cuts, bruises, burns, sprains, swellings, lame back and rheumatic pains.

Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets for constipation, biliousness and stomach troubles.

Chamberlain's Salve for diseases of the skin.

One bottle of each of these five preparations costs but $1.25. For sale by all Dealers.

A PLOT THAT FAILED.

The Scheme to Blow Up Napoleon III. With Gunpowder.

An interesting story is that of a frustrated plot against Napoleon III, which has never got into the history book, but which is one of the favorite stories of M. Victorien Sardou.

In 1900, when the frontage of the Theatre Francaise was rebuilt after the disastrous fire in which one of the most charming actresses of the Maison de Moliere lost her life, several shops disappeared, among them being that of the famous Restaurant Chevet. It was not properly speaking a restaurant. Chevet used to sell liqueurs, groceries, smoked meats, etc., and in a couple of low ceilinged rooms on the first floor he would serve a meal or two to connoisseurs. One day in 1885 or 1886 two young men of fashion, Russians both of them, came in and called for dinner in one of the little rooms which were above the shop. They asked for caviare, but when they got it they protested loudly that the caviare was of inferior quality and called for the owner of the shop. He came, apologized and was met with the remark, tendered laughingly by one of the diners, that next time they came they would bring their own caviare. They came again and brought it in a little white wooden barrel, and when they left they had it put on one side for them. From time to time the two young Russians came and dined chez Chevet, dined invariably in the same room and always began their dinner with their own caviare. One day they finished the barrel, and a few days later, in the afternoon, one of them brought another one. "Put it in the little cupboard in the room we always dine in," he said to the waiter, "and do not let anybody touch it until we come to dine." The waiter took it, but on his way upstairs something peculiar struck him.

"Look at this barrel," he said to the restaurant keeper. "There is something queer about it."

"That is no business of ours," said the master of the establishment, "and I am not going to look at it, anyhow. What will our customers say if they find we have opened it?"

"Oh," said the waiter, "we can open it and close it again, and they will never know. It is certainly different from the last barrel. It is heavier, to begin with."

His insistence prevailed, and the barrel was opened. The restaurant keeper and the waiter started back in fright. There was no caviare, but gunpowder in that little barrel, which was an infernal machine. The little dining room was exactly underneath the imperial box, and there is little doubt that the emperor's next visit to the Comedie Francaise would have been his last had the carefully laid plot not been discovered. The plotters never were caught, although the secret of the plot was carefully guarded and traps were laid for them in Chevet's restaurant for several days.—St. James' Gazette.

Turkish Political Prisoners.

When a Turkish political prisoner is sentenced to be deported to Tripoli or to the Euphrates, his friends bid him farewell. They know that they will never see him again alive and in all probability never hear of him again unless enormous sums are forthcoming to bribe scores of different officials. In fact, the only difference between a death sentence in Turkey and one of transportation is that the former is more rapid and more merciful. The government prefers the latter because it is less public. Now and then, however, news leaks through. Of poor Midhab Pasha, for instance, it is known that near Bagdad his brutal guards beat out his brains with the butt end of their rifles.—London Answers.

At Around the Clock.

"Grandpa says his stay in the mountains last summer did him no good. His room was right off the piazza, and people made love under his window until all hours."

"But couldn't he sleep after the lovers went to bed?"

"No; as soon as the lovers went to bed the children got up."

'Twas Ever Thus.

"I suppose you have found," said the plain citizen, "that every man has his price."

"Yes," replied the lobbyist, "except the man who is worth buying."—Philadelphia Press.
