THE UNIVERSITY.

Terminal Exams Are Over--Encoenial Celebration Begins Tomorrow With Athletic Sports.

May 27--The final terminal examination was held in the college library this morning, and the students feel quite relieved after the long strain of hard work.

Encornia week will begin tomorrow with the college sports in the afternoon, beginning at 2 o'clock, sharp. All who are interested in good sports should attend. The men who won the intercollegiate meet will compete for places tomorrow, Bridges, Wood and Baird, the college "winning trio" will appear in good condition. We expect some of the old N. B. records to fall under this year.

Besides our regular college teams there will be a number of other classmen fighting out for places. The F.B. Band will furnish music and everything is expected to be carried out promptly.

Tomorrow evening the college play will be given, and we can depend on giving as good a performance as of other years.

The Glee Club will give a few selections between the acts. Our very competent instructor, Prof. Harrison, will be in charge.
