TORY SLANDER NAILED.

The Tory newspapers and politicians through utter lack of decent campaign material with which to attack their opponents, continue to resort to the lowest forms of slander and abuse with the hope that some of the mud they throw will stick.

The latest case in point is the Woodstock Press assault on Deputy Sheriff Foster of Carleton a friend of the local government, and supporter of Mr. Carvell M. P. The Press charged Mr. Foster with attempting to influence a jurymen during the progress of the recent criminal trial of Mr. B. F. Smith M. P. P. but the truth of the statement is absolutely denied by the jurymen, Mr. Frank D. Burpee who supports his denial with an affidavit, and the Deputy Sheriff declares that no such attempt was made and that the whole story is a base fabrication.

Mr. Burpee is a Conservative and would naturally be willing to do anything in reason and honor to assist Mr. Smith, and his party, but he does not propose to be misrepresented and hence his sworn statement that the Press charge is a pure fiction.

Mr. Foster is too honorable a man to be guilty of the conduct charged against him; he has too full a conception of his duty and the limitations thereof to make such a break, and the public will readily accept his statement, supported as it is by the affidavit of the jurymen he is alleged to have canvassed, in preference to the ravings of an irresponsible newspaper which receives its inspiration from reckless politicians ready to stop at nothing to injure an opponent.

The Press charge is taken up and reiterated by the Tory slander factory in this city, and no doubt the Hazen organ here will continue to repeat the slander in the face of the explicit denials of Mr. Foster and Mr. Burpee. That is its business.

A LOSS TO JOURNALISM.

The many Fredericton friends of Mr. M. McDade, the veteran journalist, who of late has been managing editor of the New Freeman, and brought that newspaper to a prominent and influential position, sincerely regret to learn that on account of the indifferent condition of his health, he has been compelled to withdraw from active newspaper work. Mr. McDade has been a journalist ever since his boyhood, when he accepted a position on the St. John Daily News staff, on which he labored with great credit to himself for many years. Afterwards he worked in his profession in this city, and made a large circle of friends, who have followed his career with a sympathetic and admiring interest. Later Mr. McDade acted for several years as official reporter of the legislature, and rendered splendid service in that capacity. His active connection with the New Freeman dates back some years, and that journal will seriously miss the services of his facile pen.

The Herald trusts, however, that Mr. McDade's health will soon be restored, and that he will be able to resume his work in journalism, of which he has been such a conspicuous exponent. The New Freeman will be much less readable and interesting appearing without "Onlooker's" pungent contributions.

GOVERNMENT HOUSE.

The suggestion is made that Government House should be reestablished in Fredericton by the purchase of a modern residence for the occupation of the Lieut. Governor.

A great many people would like to see old government house reestablished and occupied by His Honor and his successors, but the expense of fitting it up and running it is alleged as a bar.

The government, however, might dispose of the building and grounds for a sufficient sum to purchase a modern residence that would meet all the requirements and entail practically no additional cost. The residence of Mr. J. S. Neill has been suggested as a desirable one for the governor, and if it could be secured for an amount within the sum that the old government house property would fetch in the market, the transaction would probably meet public approbation. The scheme is worth considering, at least.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Will Mr. Fowler, "Dear Lefurgy" and Mr. Foster form part of Mr. Borden's stumping crew in the west?

The provincial finances seemed to be all right when the managing director of Mr. Hazen's organ was permitted to levy on them for printing bills.

Mr. Loggie, M. P. for Northumberland, is making an effort to get a train service on the Fredericton branch line, so that trains would leave Fredericton and Chatham each morning and make the round trip during the day.

The death of Dr. Dow Coburn will be heard with deep regret by a very large circle of friends, especially at Canterbury, where for some years he conducted a large practice. He was a prominent member of his profession and was well liked and highly respected by all who had the pleasure of his acquaintance.

The victory at a Fredericton horse at the local race track was hailed with great enthusiasm. The races were well contested and exciting but the great amount of gambling apparent must have shocked the steady going portion of the audience. It is such accompaniments that help to bring legitimate sports into disrepute and it seems that the time has arrived for the active interference of the authorities.

Ottawa Citizen, (Conservative): "Sir Wilfrid Laurier's party friends have good reasons to admire the brilliant Liberal leader, and should there be an exuberance in their welcome that may perchance be missing in the case of the Conservatives, the latter will none the less sincerely rejoice in the safe return to the city of a man whose courtly presence on its streets fixes attention, whose sunny smile almost persuades his political opponents, and whose homely virtues and personal worth are at once worthy of emulation by and the glory of his fellow-citizens."

Sir Wilfrid Laurier is receiving much disinterested advice as to the reconstruction of his cabinet, but it remained for the Toronto News to quote scripture to him in that connection. The News introduces the advice Jethro, a Midianite priest, gave his son-in-law, Moses, after the latter had led the children of Israel out of Egypt. "Hearken now unto my voice, I will give thee counsel. . . Thou shalt provide out of all the people, able men, such as fear God, men of truth, hating unjust gain, and place such over them to be rulers of thousands, rulers of hundreds, rulers of fifties and rulers of tens."
