

Events of a Day

CARPET IMPORTATIONS.

The first of several shipments of carpets lately purchased by Messrs. Colwell and Jennings for the season's trade arrived yesterday. This shipment contains about two thousand dollars worth of carpets in all the latest designs.

LENTEN SERVICES.

At St. Anthony's church, St. Mary's services during Lent will be held on Wednesday and Friday evenings at 7.30 o'clock, commencing this evening. On Wednesday evenings Lenten sermons will be delivered by Rev. Father McLaughlin, acting pastor of the church.

PAY YOUR TAXES.

Ratepayers who want to enjoy the privilege of voting at the approaching civic elections are reminded that their taxes must be paid on or before February 20th. If all who are in arrears should take a motion to pay up the city treasurer will need some extra help next week. Even members of the newly organized citizens' league should not overlook this important matter.

PRIZES FOR SHORTHORNS.

Ald. W. S. Hooper, secretary of Agricultural Society No. 31, is in receipt of a communication from Mr. Archibald of Truro, N. S., notifying him that the Dominion Shorthorn Breeders' Association has made a grant of $100 to the Fredericton exhibition. The money is being given with the understanding that it will be distributed in special prizes for Shorthorn cattle. It is the only grant the association will make to a New Brunswick exhibition this year.

A COUNTY WEDDING.

The wedding took place yesterday of Mr. Glasier Currie of Lower Line Queensbury to Miss Melva Love, daughter of Mr. George Love of the same place. Rev. W. M. Fields, pastor of the Baptist church performed the ceremony. The happy couple will spend their honeymoon in Boston returning to Queensbury about March 1.

DELICATE OPERATION.

Mrs. T. C. Allen underwent a delicate operation at the Victoria hospital this morning for an internal trouble, and her many friends will be glad to learn that she is getting along nicely.

AMONG THE CURLERS.

St. Andrews Defeated Fredericton by Three Points in One of the Hottest Games Ever Seen Here.

The St. Andrew's curlers of St. John, snatched victory from Fredericton last night by the narrow margin of 3 points.

It was a hot game from start to finish and was anybody's until the last stone was played.

In the afternoon's play St. Andrew's had a lead of 1 point, and all the evening, the margin hovered near that figure, first one side ahead then the other, but oftener St. Andrew's.

There was intense excitement at the finish shortly after midnight, and victors and vanquished sent up hearty cheers for each other.

The rinks and scores were as follows:

MUNICIPAL UNION.

New Brunswick Organization Formed at St. John—The Officers Elected.

Mayors, wardens and councillors representing nearly all New Brunswick's cities, towns and municipalities met in St. John Tuesday afternoon and organized the New Brunswick Municipal Union.

Mayor Sears of St. John presided and delivered an address of welcome.

Fredericton was represented by Mayor McNally and City Clerk McCready, and the York county council by Warden McFarlane. After the adoption of a constitution the following officers were elected:

Mayor Sears, St. John—president, Mayor McNally, Fredericton—vice president, J. D. Magee, city clerk, Moncton, secretary treasurer.

Executive committee—Mayor Teed, St. Stephen; Mayor Munro, Woodstock; Mayor White, Moncton; Warden Elliott, Northumberland; Warden McFarlane, York, and Warden Gaudet, Westmorland.

The members of the Union were banquetted last night at the Union Club and the mayor and city clerk of Fredericton were among those who responded to the toasts.

THE HOUSE OPENING.

New Brunswick Legislature to Meet Tomorrow for Despatch of Business.

The New Brunswick legislature will be formally opened by His Honor the Lieutenant Governor at 2.30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon, with the usual pomp and ceremony. A guard of honor from the 71st Regiment, under command of Capt. W. H. Grey, will parade at the drill hall at two o'clock, and march to parliament square, headed by the regimental band. The Lieutenant Governor, who will be driven from the Queen hotel in a barouche sleigh, on reaching the entrance to the parliament building will be received with a royal salute. His Honor will be accompanied by Col. George Rolt, White, D. O. C., Private Secretary Barker and Major Bridges, acting A. D. C.

A detachment from the Newcastle Field Battery, in command of Major Lawlor and Lieut. Whalen, arrived in the city today by the I. C. R. They have with them two twelve-pound guns which will be used in firing the customary salute. The non-commissioned officers and gunners of the detachment are quartered at the soldiers' barracks, and the officers are staying at the Queen. The guns will be mounted on the river bank just opposite Parliament Place.

The Lieutenant Governor will give the usual state dinner at the Queen Hotel tomorrow evening.

Mr. William Currie the new member for Restigouche will move the address in reply to the speech from the throne, and it will be seconded by Mr. J. B. Goggin, M. P. P. of Kent.

Quite a number of the M. P. P.'s, have already arrived in the city, and others will arrive by trains this evening and tomorrow morning.

All the members of the government are here and are meeting this afternoon to outline the sessional program.

Lieut. Governor Snowball received from Chatham at noon today and has taken rooms at the Queen for the session.

The legislative chamber has been put in shape for the opening, and the corridors have been given a covering of matting. The speaker's chair, which had become somewhat the worse of wear, has been re-upholstered.

The One—And you say this horse hasn't any faults.

The Other—Not a single fault.

The One—But he appears to be blind in his right eye.

The Other—Well, that's not his fault, it's his misfortune.
