

CARLISLE--SHOWALTER.

Former Douglas Man Found a Bride in Lewiston, Idaho.

A Lewiston, Idaho, newspaper tells of the wedding in that city of Mr. George G. Carlisle, a respected resident of Douglas, York Co., and brother of Mrs. A. E. Hanson of this city.

"A beautiful wedding took place at the home of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Showalter on Wednesday evening, when Mr. Showalter's sister, Miss Lulu Showalter and Mr. George G. Carlisle were married. The bride, although she has been teaching in Moscow for the past four years, is well known in Lewiston, having frequently visited her brother here. The groom is from Coeur d'Alene, where he is connected with a large lumber company. The wedding was a Christmas one, the chief decorations being of holly. Masses of the bright berries and dark green leaves were used everywhere in decorating the parlors, and holly strands extended from the tops of the chandeliers to the corners of the rooms, forming a gay canopy. The Baumgaertel orchestra, consisting of violin, cornet and piano, played a program of wedding airs, while the guests assembled and at the ceremony changed to Mendelssohn's wedding march. The bride and party started down the stairway. The bridegroom, with the minister, the Rev. D. J. Somerville, of the Episcopal church, waited in the archway between the hall and the front drawing room for the coming of the bride.

The wedding party included first, Master Arol Showalter, who carried the ring on a silver tray, and little Miss Frieda Showalter, nephew and niece of the bride, who advanced and stood one on each side of the archway. They were followed by the bride with her brother, Mr. J. A. Showalter.

The ceremony was performed beneath a bough of mistletoe, hung above the arch. During the impressive Episcopal ceremony the orchestra played softly, Halvey's "Call Me Thine Own."

The bride's gown was of white silk, fashioned with embroidered net, and she wore for an ornament a beautiful gold pendant set with a solitaire. She carried an armful of lovely pink and white carnations. The little bridesmaid, who held the bridal bouquet during the placing of the ring, was prettily gowned in white silk.

After the ceremony an elaborate five course wedding supper was served, the guests all being seated at two long tables. For a centerpiece of each table was a tall vase filled with a mass of large pink and white carnations and smilax, encircled by a wreath of holly, and at each place was a souvenir box of wedding cake, tied with white ribbon and decorated with a spray of holly. During the entire evening the orchestra played lively dance music.

The bride was the recipient of numerous beautiful gifts, among which was a handsome gold locket set with a solitaire, from her sister, Mrs. Dora Sloop, and Mr. A. J. Showalter. Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle left Thursday morning for their home in Coeur d'Alene, where they will be at home after February 1. Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. N. D. Showalter, Mr. Royce Showalter and Miss Vera Showalter, of Colfax; Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Bundy, of Culeda; Miss Morris, of Moscow; Mrs. Mills of Moscow; Mrs. Sloop of Moscow; Mr. Ooster of Portland; Mr. J. M. Carlisle of Coeur d'Alene; Mr. Harry Preston, Mr. Choplin, Mrs. William Dose and Mr. and Mrs. Young.

WHEN CHILDREN ARE SICK.

They eat something that disagrees, catch cold, have cramps or colic. If there is pain just apply Neroline,—it's good to rub on, and for the inside it's most comforting. Effective and pleasant, you can't find a household panacea to equal Polson's Neroline. Used with satisfaction for half a century and in better demand every day because it does stop pain, ease suffering and cure the thousand and one ills that constantly arise in the family. HE'S A WONDER.

Maine Has a Jumping Frog Said to Weigh 15 Pounds.

(Bangor News.)

Now Chester sets the world agog with Bully, the wonderful jumping frog. Roy Atkinson of Lincoln hands to us this story of the agile cuss:

Probably the largest bull frog ever seen in captivity is now in the possession of an aged man of Chester, who wishes his name withheld for various reasons. It is understood that the monster frog will be part and parcel of the Ringling Bros.' big show next summer and it is for this purpose that its present owner is training "Bully" as he playfully calls his pet.

The frog was captured in the river last fall while the farmer-fisherman was catching mackerel. He noted that it was of enormous size even then, scarcely out of polywogdom, and he determined to keep the frog and see what culture and careful training would do. The frog was taken home and from that moment commenced on a course of training that would put many an athlete to the blush. It was noticed that froggie was particularly fond of potato bugs, and as the crop was good in this section last fall he was fed his fill of bugs every day. Later it was discovered that Bully was a great jumper and it was found by the owner that a big and long bug held at a distance always resulted in a prodigious jump. Thus the jumping powers of Bully were developed to the highest degree of the art. Before two months had elapsed the frog could clear a space of 25 and three quarters feet at a hop.

Then it occurred to the owner that his Bully was a wonder, and he at once corresponded with the Ringling people with the above result. At the present time Bully weighs the mere trifle of 15 pounds and can leap a distance of 34 feet on an empty stomach. The educated seals of the New York Hippodrome were wonders in their day. Barnum's white elephant was considered at one time one of the wonders of the world, but the Chester bull frog Bully, bids fair to outdistance them all.

(The frog which is the hero of the above yarn is a mere tadpole in comparison with the Killarney Monster, about which so much was heard in the palmy days of the late Mr. P. B. Coleman of this city. Tradition tells us that the Coleman frog, was twenty-one inches high and weighed seventy pounds. This frog was stilled for years and years on blood and corn meal.

MIDDLE HAINESVILLE.

Feb. 14.—The weather for the last few days has been very cold and stormy, today is somewhat milder. The lumbermen are all out in full force hauling their lumber, none expecting completion as yet.

A number of the residents of this community have been suffering from a malady resembling la grippe, none have been serious as yet.

The infant son of Mr. and Mrs. E. Whitehead, has been very ill, but is slowly recovering now.

Mrs. I. Brewer is spending a few days with her niece here, Mrs. S. Brewer.

Miss Alma J. Jones, who spent several months in Woodstock, has returned to her home, her many friends are all pleased to see her looking so well.

Miss Alice McLaughlin started on Tuesday last for Bangor to visit her brother, her mother accompanied her as far as Woodstock.

Mr. Howard McLaughlin had the misfortune to lay one of his horses up.

Mrs. George Brawn was suddenly called to the bedside of her daughter Mrs. Sandy Brewer, who was very ill.

Mr. and Mrs. William Jones are receiving congratulations over the arrival of a bouncing boy.

Not Quite a Tempest.

A young gentleman with an unmusical voice, busied upon singing at a social gathering.

"What does he call that?" inquired a disgusted guest.

"The Tempest," I think," answered another.

"Don't be alarmed," said an old sea captain present. "That's no tempest. It is only a squall and will soon be over."

A DAINY APRON AND COLLAR MADE FROM HANDKERCHIEFS.

At some time every woman asks herself what she can make for her friends which will be inexpensive and yet useful and attractive. A suggestion is offered here in the form of a handkerchief apron and collar of pretty design and easily made. The large handkerchief, 18 x 18 are used, four of them being needed for these two articles. They are cut with bias edges so that they may hang with graceful fullness. Dainty little bows may be used as ornaments for the apron, while a bit of embroidery or feather stitching would work wonders for its substitute.

A WONDERFUL RECORD.

As made up by improved and exact processes Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is the most efficient remedy for regulating all the womanly functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. It cures the backache, periodical headaches, the dragging down distress in the pelvic region, the pain and tenderness over lower abdominal region, dries up the pelvic catarrhal drain, so disagreeable and weakening, and overcomes every form of weakness incident to the organs distinctly feminine.

"Favorite Prescription" is the only medicine for women, the makers of which print their formula on the bottle wrapper, thus taking their patrons into their full confidence. It is the only medicine for women, every ingredient of which has the strongest possible endorsement of the most eminent medical practitioners and writers of our day, recommending it for the disease for which "Favorite Prescription" is advised.

The Criminal Season.

Taking all crimes, more are committed in the autumn than during any other of the four seasons of the year.

The Leafless Acacia.

There are forests of leafless trees in some parts of Australia. They respire, so to say, through a little stem, apparently answering the purpose of a leaf. The trees are known as "the leafless acacias."

To Get Fat.

Some individuals are constitutionally thin, but it is an exceptional case that will not respond to proper "get fat" treatment, which consists in moderate exercise, good things to eat and plenty of refreshing sleep. Now eggs are fattening. Drink plenty of water. Blue pencil the fretting habit. Get out of doors every day and sleep at least eight or nine hours every night.

Wonderful Monastery.

At Solovetsk, in the Russian government of Archangel, is the most remarkable monastery in the world. The monastery of Solovetsk is enclosed on every side by a wall of granite boulders which measures nearly a mile in circumference. The monastery itself is a very strongly fortified, being supported by round and square towers about thirty feet in height, with walls twenty feet in thickness. The monastery consists in reality of six churches, which are completely filled with statues of all kinds and precious stones. Upon the walls and the towers surrounding these churches are mounted huge guns, which in the time of the Crimean war were directed against the British White sea squadron.

A Cat With Wings.

The boatswain of the Casplan, an English schooner, brought with him from India on a recent trip a strange animal-bird, which he always referred to as his "Tabby." It certainly looked more like a cat than anything else, but it was probably some freak of the animal world. It had two pairs of wings, but could fly only with difficulty, like a tame duck.

THEY ALL FAILED.

Many have tried to devise a corn cure equal to Putnam's, but after fifty years nothing has come upon the market that so painlessly cures corns and warts. Don't experiment large 25c. bottles.
