Women Who Wear Well.

It is astonishing how great a change a few years of married life often make in the appearance and disposition of many women. The freshness, the charm, the brilliancy vanish like the bloom from a flower which is rudely handled. The matron is only a dim shadow, a faint echo of the charming maiden. Few young women appreciate the shock of the system through the change which comes with marriage and motherhood. Many neglect to deal with the unpleasant pelvic drains and weaknesses which too often come with marriage and motherhood, not understanding that this secret drain is robbing the cheek of its freshness and the form of its fairness.

As surely as the general health suffers when there is derangement of the health of the delicate womanly organs, so surely when these organs are established in health the face and form at once witness to the fact in renewed comeliness. More than a million women have found health and happiness in the use of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. It makes weak women strong and sick women well. Ingredients on label—contains no alcohol or harmful habit-forming drugs. It is made wholly of those native, American, medicinal roots most highly recommended by leading medical authorities of all the several schools of practice for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments.

For nursing mothers, or for those broken-down in health by too frequent bearing of children, also for the expectant mothers, to prepare the system for the coming of baby and make its advent easy and almost painless, there is no medicine quite so good as "Favorite Prescription." It can do no harm in any condition of the system. It is a most potent invigorating tonic and strengthening nerve, nicely adapted to woman's delicate system by a physician of large experience in the treatment of woman's peculiar ailments.

Bad Symptoms. The woman who has periodical headaches, backache, sees imaginary dark spots or specks floating or dancing before her eyes, has gnawing distress or heavy full feeling in stomach, faint spells, dragging-down feeling in lower abdominal or pelvic region, easily startled or excited, irregular or painful periods, with or without pelvic catarrh, is suffering from weaknesses and derangements that should have early attention. Not all of above symptoms are likely to be present in any case at one time.

Neglected or badly treated such cases often run into maladies which demand the surgeon's knife if they do not result fatally. No medicine extant has such a long and numerous record of cures in such cases as Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription. No medicine has such a strong professional indorsement of each of its several ingredients—worth more than any number of ordinary non-professional testimonials. The very best ingredients known to medical science for the cure of woman's peculiar ailments enter into its composition. No alcohol, harmful, or habit-forming drug is to be found in the list of its ingredients printed on each bottle-wrapper and attested under oath as complete and correct.

In any condition of the female system Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription can only good—never harm. Its whole effect is to strengthen, invigorate and regulate the whole female system and especially the pelvic organs. When these are deranged in function or affected by disease, the stomach and other organs of digestion become sympathetically deranged, the nerves are weakened, and a long list of bad, unpleasant symptoms follow. Too much must not be expected of the "Favorite Prescription." It will not perform miracles; it will not cure tumors—no medicine will. It will often prevent them, if taken in time, and thus the operating table and the surgeon's knife may be avoided.

Doctor's All Agree. The most eminent writers on Materia Medica, whose works are consulted as authorities by physicians of all the different schools of practice, extol, in the most positive terms, the curative virtues of each and every ingredient entering into Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. In fact it is the only medicine, put up for sale through druggists for the cure, of all diseases of the mucous surfaces, as nasal catarrh, throat, laryngeal, and bronchial affections attended by lingering, or hang-on-coughs that has any such professional endorsement—worth more than any amount of lay or non-professional testimonials.

Do not expect too much from the use of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It will not work miracles. It will not cure consumption in its advanced stages. No medicine will. Nor is the "Discovery" so good for a sudden attack of acute cough, but for the lingering, obstinate, hang-on-coughs, accompanying catarrh, throat, laryngeal and bronchial affections, it is a most efficacious remedy. In cases accompanied with wasting of flesh, night sweats, weak stomach and poor digestion with faulty assimilation, and which, if neglected or badly treated are apt to lead to consumption, the "Discovery" has proven wonderfully successful in effecting cures.

The formula is printed on every wrapper of "Golden Medical Discovery," attested as to correctness under oath, and you can't refuse to accept any substitute of unknown composition for this non-secret remedy no matter what selfish interests may prompt the dealer to urge such upon you. In fact it is an insult to your intelligence for him to do so. You know what you want and it is his place to supply that want.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets are the original "Little Liver Pills" first put up by old Dr. Pierce over 40 years ago. Much imitated, but never equalled. They cleanse, invigorate and regulate stomach, liver and bowels, curing biliousness and constipation. Little sugar-coated granules—easy to take as candy.

Dr. Pierce may be consulted by letter free of charge. Address Dr. R. V. Pierce, Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Medical Adviser (1000 pages) is sent free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps for paper-covered, or 50 stamps for cloth-bound copy. Address Dr. Pierce as above.

SHEEP DOGS AS POLICE.

New York Importing Half-dozen from Belgium.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—Six Belgian sheep dogs, for which the city of New York paid $20 each, are on their way from Ghent to do police duty in outlying territory in this city.

Deputy Commissioner Arthur Woods and the other officials who are interested in settling imported dogs to work as auxiliaries of domestic and imported policemen contend that the sheep dogs will do high class work after sunset.

In these European cities in which they are of most service they are liberated in the residential districts at night. From earliest youth they have been taught to regard a police uniform as a symbol of innocence. Not one of them will interfere with a policeman. But they have also been led to believe that any person who is not in uniform will bear scrutiny. The dogs noses in and out of doorways, basements, vacant lots and other spots which supply a hiding place for wayfarers of the night. As soon as they find an ununiformed person they bark. They keep on barking till a policeman appears. If their quarry tries to run away they run with him. They are the practitioners of a neat little trick of getting between the flying feet of the fugitive and tripping him neatly, so that he falls upon his face.

WHEN WOMEN SUFFER.

Look out for weakness or disease. See if there is not a headache, headache, restlessness and the "blues." These symptoms indicate that you need the gentle assistance of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. They are women's greatest relief, prevent functional derangements, renew the life of the blood, purify and clean the system throughout. No tonic so potent, no results, so marked as follow the use of Dr. Hamilton's Pills. Price 25c. per box at all dealers.

THE PLATE RACK.

It May Be a Decorative Bit or a Dis-cordant Note.

Plate racks tell many a tale of taste, or, rather, of the lack of it. One's collection, made by a series of contributions, may consist of many and varied ideas on the subject, but the plates displayed around a wall should be simple and dignified in style—anything that is garish carefully preserved in the darkest, deepest corner of a closet or intrusted to the hands of a servant who has made herself famous for her "outbreaks in china."

Seriously, though, that plate rack is either a bit of attractive decoration or an inharmonious something which spoils the whole room, no matter how carefully every other part of the furnishings has been chosen.

So called handsome pieces are to be avoided. They are usually conspicuous in every sense of the word—a confusion of color and design without a single really attractive feature about them. They are usually expensive, these monstrosities in the shape of gift plates, for surely nobody ever went so far as to buy one to live with! Less expensive plates are passed over purposely in spite of the fact that their dignity of style and an exquisite simplicity of coloring make for the prettiest sort of decoration.

Avoid those plates which are gay with a profusion of highly colored roses, perhaps made still more striking (by a broad band of green—the strong, insistent shades of the fields and trees in midsummer—touched off (save the mark!) with irresponsible splashes of gilt. They cost probably $1.50 and make, as one woman said, with unconscious irony, "such a showing for your money."

There is a rule that is worth adhering to in choosing such plates, and that is to choose only simple designs and colorings, unless you do, as one woman did, make a hobby of collecting plates of a certain country or kind. She went in for Chinese plates and used only the pretty variations of medallion and its kindred wares, with the result that her plate rack was interesting in its orientalisms.

Another woman, whose dining room—the whole house, in fact—was a copy of quaint old English styles, used only old plates of English make on her rack, picking them up one at a time.

SLEEVE HOLDER.

Ingenious Contrivance For Preventing Crushing of the Sleeve.

If it were permissible, many a young lady would be tempted to use a cuss word every time she puts on her coat. We have all watched her struggle in the attempt to tuck the big balloon sleeves of her waist into the armholes of the coat. Naturally it must be uncomfortable to have the inner sleeve bunched at the shoulder. An ingenious Englishwoman has invented a simple contrivance which does away with all these trying perplexities, and she thinks so highly of the device that she has had it patented in the United States. As shown in the illustration, it comprises a narrow elastic band, having on each end a ring, one being larger than the other. Attached to the band is a double cord. In using this device the band is formed into a lasso (by slipping the smaller ring through the larger one), which is slipped over the end of the sleeve of the waist. The fine end of the band is then secured to the thumb by the ring. The cord is attached to the little finger. After slipping the arm into the sleeve of the coat the ring on the thumb is released and the band pulled out of the armhole by means of the cord.

SLEEVE HOLDER.

To Broil a Steak.

Few housewives understand the art of broiling, and consequently chops and steaks are often robbed of their delicate flavor by frying in a pan.

A steak or chop properly broiled should have a thin, well browned crust. Beyond this crust the meat should be red and juicy, hardly a shade less done in the middle than near the surface.

If the broiling is to be done on a range, have the fire very bright and clear. Open every draft, that smoke and flames may be drawn up the chimney. Place the piece of meat in the double broiler and hold it as near the coals as possible until the surface is brown, turning frequently. It will take three or four minutes for this. Now raise the broiler several inches above the bed of coals and continue the cooking until the meat is done.

The broiler must be turned often. A good rule is to count ten slowly, then turn the broiler. A steak or chop cut a little more than an inch thick will cook nicely in ten minutes. If liked well done, it should be cooked for twelve minutes.

A SMART BOX-PLEATED SHIRT-WAIST.

The tailored silk waist is to have a decided vogue this season, replacing in a great measure the lingerie waist which has been popular so long. The accompanying illustration shows one of the best designs lately produced for this class of waist. It is here made of chiffon tulle in a pretty shade of mignonette, though it might also be developed appropriately in fine flannel, or in butcher linen if a tub fabric is desired. The box-pleats in front and back dispose of the fullness very attractively, the effect being not only novel but becoming, since it adds apparent length to the figure, and so heightens the impression of slenderness. The sleeves are made long, after the latest fashion. Any preferred style of collar may be worn with this waist, a linen collar, ruffled or plain, being suggested as the best style. To make the waist in the medium size 34 yards of 27-inch material are necessary. 6980—6 sizes, 32 to 42 inches bust measure.

The price of this pattern is 10c.

WEDDING WAS A FAKE.

Clever New Swindle Worked on Pennsylvania Farmer.

NEW YORK, Oct. 21.—The Herald has received the following despatch from Pittsburgh: W. B. Templeton, who owns a fine farm near Adrian, wants to recover $300 or cause the arrest of a swindler dressed like a minister. The latter asked for a night's lodging, which was cheerfully granted, and the next morning a man and woman drove up to the farm house, said they had heard a minister was there and wanted to get married in a hurry.

The stranger consented and the ceremony took place, Mr. Templeton and his wife acting as witnesses. Both of them signed what they thought was a marriage certificate. Later they learned from the First National Bank in East Brady that it was a promissory note for $300. Several other farmers have suffered similarly.

Catarrh for Twenty Years and Cured in a Few Days.—Hon. George James of Scranton, Pa., says: "I have been a martyr to Catarrh for twenty years, constant hawking, dropping in the throat and pain in the head, very offensive breath. I tried Dr. Agnew's Catarrhal Powder. The first application gave instant relief. After using a few bottles I was cured." Sold at the Central Pharmacy, A. J. Ryan.—1.

TO STOP LIQUOR SALE AT MESSES

Minister of Militia Promises to End

Toronto, Oct. 21.—Numerous letters have been received by Rev. Dr. Chown referring to the deplorable results from the sale of liquor at sergeants' messes. He says that Warden Gilmour picked up two officers on Strachan Avenue on a recent holiday who were unable to take care of themselves, and being unable that day to obtain liquor at the hotels, must have got it at the barracks. Dr. Chown has placed the matter before the Minister of Militia, Sir Frederick Borden, and he has promised to put a stop to the practice of dispensing liquor at such posts.

THE ORIGINAL CORN CURE.

That doesn't cure the corn. Just apply the old standby, Putnam's Corn Extractor. It acts like magic. Kills the pain, cures the corn, does it without burn or scar. Get the best—it's "Putnam's."
