Most people know that if they have been sick they need *Scott's Emul-

But the strongest point about Scott's Emulsion is that you don't have to be sick to get results from it.

It keeps up the athlete's strength, puts fat

HOUSE BACK TO WORK.

Premier Pugsley Announced Personnel of His Govern- ment--Mr. Osman Elected Speaker.

St. John Member Scored by Dr. Pugsley for Recent Speech--Fav- orable Report From N. B. Coal and Railway Company.

The House met on Wednesday at three o'clock.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley—I promised yesterday afternoon that today I would inform the house as to who were the members of the new government. The list is as follows—Myself as premier and Attorney General, Hon. C. H.
LaBillois, Chief Commissioner of Public Works, Hon. L. P. Farris
Commissioner for Agriculture, Hon.
W. P. Jones, Solicitor General, Hon.
F. J. Sweeney, Surveyor General and Hon. Clifford W. Robinson member of the government without office. I may further take the house so far into my confidence as to tell them that Mr.
Robinson has been offered the position of provincial secretary and I accepted it but it has not been deemed desirable that he should be appointed to that office immediately as the acceptance of it would vacate his seat and the house would lose his services. A bye-election at this time would cause delay and interruption of business.

SPEAKER RESIGNED.

Mr. Speaker Robinson—I rise for the purpose of resigning my position as Speaker of this house and while doing so I wish to state that the six years during which I have occupied the chair have been very pleasant ones to me because members on both sides of the house have always treated me with the greatest courtesy. I feel very grateful for the support which I have received from them and I retire from the position with the utmost good feeling for one and all.

Mr. Robinson left the chair and was escorted by the premier to the seat formerly occupied by the Hon.
Mr. Tweedie.

A NEW SPEAKER.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley addressing the clerk said—The lieutenant governor having been informed of the resignation of Mr. Speaker Robinson and having given permission that the house should elect a new speaker, it becomes my duty to suggest the name of a gentleman to fill that high position. Considering the example of order and dignity that has been set by the late speaker and his predecessor in office the house must feel that it is desirable that the new speaker should be one possessing a competent knowledge of parliamentary procedure and of the business of the house. He should be a gentleman in every way distinguished by his courtesy of the highest impartiality and disposed to give the greatest measure of a fair play to both sides of the house. I feel that the gentleman whose name I am about to propose is one who in every essential fulfils these requisites. I have much pleasure of presenting the name of Mr. C. J. Otman, a gentleman who has sat in this house for eleven sessions has been a member of important committees and has on all occasions brought to the discharge of his duties knowledge and experience, excellent judgment and all the qualities that make up a gentleman. I have been in many legislatures and I have never seen any one that was superior to our own in the demeanor and courtesy of its members. For dignity, courtesy, and debate and gentlemanly conduct this legislature stands the peer of any and I feel that its best traditions will be well sustained by the election of Mr. Otman to the speaker's chair.

Hon. Mr. LaBillois—I desire to second the nomination of Mr. Otman and in doing so I can only say that my experience with the hon. gentleman has been a most pleasant one, but I am sure that no one could be chosen who would be more agreeable to the members on both sides of the house. Most of our speakers have been lawyers so that the election of a layman will be considered a great compliment. No place in this province will be better pleased with Mr.
Otman's election than the city of Fredericton where he has been a social favorite for many years.

Mr. Otman briefly thanked the members for the honor they had done him in electing him and was escorted to the chair by the Hon. Messrs. Pugsley and LaBillois. He then addressed the House and said:

"In assuming the position of Speaker I desire to express my grateful acknowledgments for the high honor conferred on me by this House. I should decline this office if I did not feel that hon. members on both sides of the Speaker's chair are able and willing to render me their assistance in properly carrying out the duties of my office."

Hon. Mr. Pugsley after congratulating the new Speaker stated that the governor would come at four o'clock to meet the House.

The House then took recess.

GOVERNOR'S VISIT.

At four o'clock the Lieutenant Governor arrived and took his seat on the throne and signified his acquiescence in the choice of a Speaker by the House. After the Lieutenant Governor had retired the business of the House was continued.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley in reply to Mr.
Hazen stated that the total amount collected for retail liquor licenses extension of licenses and fines, in Mad-awaska county last year was $2,415, which amount was deposited in the Bank of Montreal at Edmundston. He was not aware of any complaint against the License commissioners.

Hon. Mr. LaBillois in reply to Mr.
Hazen said: Mr. Joseph A. Richards is now the superintendent of highways in the parish of Greenwich, King's county. The former superintendent was Mr. A. P. Peatman, who resigned at the close of last year.

The government is not aware that the superintendent has not attended to the duty of breaking roads in the Oak Point section of the parish, during the present winter, or that in and hardship have been experienced by residents in that locality. My information from both Mr. Peatman, the former superintendent, and Mr.
Richards, the present superintendent, is that the road masters were carefully instructed in their duties, and that the breaking of the roads has been attended to. Instructions were issued to the superintendent for said parish to see that the breaking of the roads during the present winter was properly attended to.

QUESTION OF PRIVILEGE.

Hon. Mr. Pugsley—I rise to a question of privilege. I saw with regret in the Sun of the second inst., a report of the speech made in St. John at a public meeting by a member of this House. The gentleman thus reported, Mr. Maxwell, according to the Sun, spoke as follows: "On a journey which he had recently taken to Chatham for the purpose of attending he late Lieut. Governor Snowball's funeral, he had observed the many citties of liquor taken from grips on the train and the great amount of HAWKSHAW--POKIOK BRIDGE.

A Correspondent Corrects Misrepresentations of the Tory Organ.

Lower Southampton, March 5,

To the Editor of the Herald:

Sir,—In a recent issue of the Gleaner I noticed an article criticising the government in their action in building a bridge across the St. John river in this vicinity.

The article referred to was wholly false and misleading from beginning to end.

In the first place it says that the people were led to believe that the bridge was to be built at Hawkshaw, that is near where the ferry is situated.

Now Sir, I think that statement is absurd, and rather reflects on the intelligence of the residents of this place. Why the people should think that the bridge was to be built at Hawkshaw when the surveys were made at a point half a mile above seems rather odd, doesn't it?

Another statement that the bridge is being built two miles or more above Hawkshaw and close to Pokio-k sounds strange to those who know the place.

The facts are that Pokio and Hawkshaw are situated exactly a mile apart and that the bridge is being placed about half way between the two villages.

How any person with sense enough to write the article should make such a silly statement is past comprehension.

The writer goes on to say that the roads leading from the back settlements converge at Hawkshaw. Now there are no roads leading from any settlement two miles at least on the eastern side of the river and more than three on the western side.
The road on the eastern side is a little more than two miles below the bridge and the road on the western side is about the same distance above. As regards the statement that the bridge is being built on the present site for the benefit of Mr.
Burden, I would like to ask what more benefit will the bridge be to Mr. Burden where it is being constructed and though it had been built at Hawkshaw. There isn't any.

The reason the bridge is being built where it is, is because of the great difference in the cost of building between this and any other site further down. The government would not be justified in building a bridge at Hawkshaw at a large cost when one can be built much cheaper only half a mile above, and will accommodate the public just as well.

WARM CIVIC ELECTION.

Issue in Sydney, N. S., Turned on Sectarian School Question.

Sydney, N. S., March 6.—The mayorality election yesterday resulted in the election of F. C. Kim-ber over Finley McDonald, by a majority of 168, McDonald, 1,098.
Kimber secured the entire Catholic vote as well as substantial support from the Protestants. This election depended upon the extent of the latter vote, the ratio of Protestants to Catholics in the city being 60 to 40.

The issue upon which the campaign was fought was whether the grants now enjoyed by the convent institutions should be withdrawn or not.

Kimber advocated the complete withdrawal of this concession on the ground that it was illegal. McDonald urged some conciliatory means until the city would be in such financial condition as would warrant it in providing ample school accommodations for all.

The Protestant clergy express themselves as highly pleased with the result of the election and think a great deal of it was due to their active participation in the campaign.
The Catholic clergy are not at all disturbed by the voting, and feel that the interests of their denomination in all respects will be amply safeguarded.

THAT HOCKEY DISPUTE.

Mr. Robertson Addresses Some Observations to Editor Black.

Marysville, March 6.

To the Editor of the Herald: Sir,—In Mr. Black's explanation of the Biblical quotation "Forgive them they know not what they do," he says he meant that the representatives of the Crescents did not know what effect the formation of the N. B.
A. H. L. would have on hockey.
We do not pretend to be able to look into the future but I suppose Mr.
Black knew all about it. Mr. Black says it so very little attention is paid to what he says, it is surprising that I should get so excited.

Now Douglas make no mistake I am generally pretty cool headed and carry my nerve with me and when I make a statement I am prepared to back it up. But there comes a time when Patience ceases to be a virtue and you have written so much about the Crescents and Marysville Rooters just drawing from your imagination that it becomes chestnuts. I am no reporter but I think I am about as intelligent as you are. You made a statement in last night's Gleaner that before and since the St. John meeting that I denounced the very course taken by the N. B. A. H. Now that is a falsehood and I want you to cut it right out of your business writing things in the paper about me that I never said.

Does it look reasonable to anyone with even half sense that I as a representative from the "Crescents" would be in favor of resigning from the old league and forming the N. B.
A. H. L. and then turn around and denounce the very course we had taken. I am not twisted around as as easily as that. I, talking about what the majority of the Marysville people say don't cut any ice. We were not representing the people we were representing the hockey team. As far as my abuse of you is concerned I don't think there is much difference between us. You said we did not know anything and I said you did not have much brains. So you just polished it over a little. I always call a hoe a hoe. But when I go in for polishing Douglas you would not recognize it as the same article when I get through. Thanking you for your valuable space in your paper I remain,

Yours truly,
Geo. W. Robertson.

Wisdom is the fruit of experience.
