A MONCTON WEDDING.

Daughter of Well Known Hotel Proprietor
Married to a Gentleman from Winnipeg.

Moncton, May 14.—(Special)—The marriage of Chas. B. Burnyeat of the C. P. R., Winnipeg, to Miss Sarah Eleanor Wilson, second daughter of Mr. Wm. Wilson, proprietor of the Hotel American, was solemnized at St. George's church at 9.45 this morning.

A large number of friends witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by Rev. W. B. Sissam. The bride, who was given away by her father, was attired in a becoming travelling dress of gray cloth, with hat to match, and was attended by her sister, little Miss Ethel, as flower girl, dressed in cream serge, and carrying a handsome bouquet of roses.

The wedding was quiet, but a pretty affair. The guests included only immediate friends. After the ceremony the happy couple left on the Maritime express for Boston, afterwards visiting Montreal, Quebec and Toronto, enroute to Winnipeg, where they will reside.

Many valuable and beautiful gifts testified to the high esteem in which the bride is held. She was presented with a cabinet of silver ware by the hotel staff, and a substantial cheque by her father. The groom's present was also a cheque. Both Mr. and Mrs. Burnyeat are well known in this city and have a large circle of friends who will follow them with best wishes to their western home.

THE CHURCH OPPOSES.

Roman Catholic Prelates of Ireland Leading a Campaign Against Birrell's Irish Bill.

Dublin, May 14.—(Special)—The active hostility of the Catholic Church against Mr. Birrell's Irish Bill renders it specially difficult. J. E. Redmond's task of securing its approval at the forthcoming Nationalist convention.

Cardinal Logue, primate of all Ireland, has joined Archbishop Walsh and the bishops of Limerick and Kill-dare in denouncing the measure, the lead given by these prelates is particularly fatal, as practically every parish priest in Ireland will be a delegate to the convention. The Nationalist revolt is being assiduously stimulated by Timothy M. Healy, Wm. O'Brien and other politicians. Healy, in an open letter declared that the "introduction of the bill was the worst day's work done for Ireland in many days, and to proceed with it would be a crime against the Irish nation." Cardinal Logue goes so far as to say: "I believe any politician who will try to secure the bill's acceptance by coming to the convention is deceiving his countrymen in the interest of the ministry."

REAL "RATS" THIS TIME.

Rodents Used to Break up a Political Meeting.

London, May 14.—A new use has been found for rats. They have been drafted into politics, and have shown themselves marvellously efficient in the line of work to which they have been assigned.

Out at Wimbledon, the Hon. Bertrand Russell, woman suffrage and Liberal candidate for parliament, decided to open his campaign with a public meeting. The hall was crowded, mostly with women. The meeting had no sooner opened than a plain organized attempt was made to break it up.

"I trust we shall have order in this meeting," pleaded the chairman.

"Will you please sit down?" demanded a man with a megaphone, and then came a great uproar, which lasted five minutes. So the meeting progressed until Candidate Russell rose to speak. He had said about three words, when the man with the megaphone shouted:

"Let 'em loose." That was the signal for the rats to make their debut in British politics. An instant later forty whopping big fellows were scampering over the floor, terrorizing the audience, and especially the women. To say the meeting adjourned in great disorder is an extremely conservative statement.

Toronto, May 14.—(Special)—Staff Inspector Stephen at the Morality department yesterday viewed the performance of "A Millionaire's Revenge," a melodrama based upon the Thaw case, which is being presented at a local theatre, and at the end of the afternoon show he intimated that it would be desirable to have the music in which the young woman acts, as if drugged by wine, cut out in the evening. ## ONTARIO FARMER'S CRIME and Himself.

Kingston, Ont., May 14.—A terrible murder and suicide occurred close to Gananoque early yesterday morning.

William Waldie, a respected resident, aged thirty-eight years, killed his wife and two children with his hired man found the dead bodies. A note was left by Waldie stating that he had meant at first to kill only himself. This is a copy:

"Up stairs will be found the work of a mental and physical wreck, a maniac for the last two years, unknown to anyone but myself, I suspect. Would to God I had never been born. I have killed my wife and the two sweetest of children. I had intended, to kill only myself, but I could not at last leave them to the scorn of the world. I have been hoodwinked by those who should have been my friends and can see no future, as I am mentally unable to manage myself or to accomplish my work."

LAURIER'S GREAT SCHEME.

Transportation Proposals of Empire Wide Character
Submitted by the Canadian Premier to Imperial Conference Have Been Accepted.

Ottawa, May 14.—(Special)—A special cable announces that the Imperial Conference had accepted Sir Wilfrid Laurier's proposal for a fast Atlantic and fast Pacific steamship service between Britain and Australia and the Orient, across Canada.

London, May 13.—Sir Wilfrid Laurier will today lay before the Imperial conference, with every prospect of its acceptance in principle before the present week is out, a scheme of Empire transport which has been authoritatively called the biggest proposal submitted to any British government for a hundred years. Sir Wilfrid himself refuses to discuss the question at the present stage, but I am able to give the following outlines.

The proposal is for the intermediate creation of an Empire mail service of the highest speed and efficiency to Canada and Australia on one hand, and Australia on the other, the Canadian service to consist of three 25 knot steamers capable of passage of four days between British and Canadian ports. The Canadian government is prepared to share with the British government whatever subsidy is necessary, or if the principle of subsidy is unacceptable to English free traders Canada will share whatever the government guarantee of interest is necessary on the principal guarantee under which the Cunard line is plugging two 25 knot steamers on the New York route. The promoters of the Halifax-Blacksea scheme, which this new scheme would probably supersede, estimated $25,000,000 capital necessary to establish their service. This figure may give some measure of the cost of the new proposal.

A newer and faster service will be placed on the Vancouver routes to the far east and Australasia. In the latter case the service is to be jointly subsidized or guaranteed by the British, Canadian, Australian and New Zealand governments.

Premiers Deakin and Ward, now here are entirely co-operative in the expectation that Australasia will be thus brought within 20 days of England instead of 30 as now.

Lord Strathcona is so largely responsible for the initiation of the project that it is not improbable that he may become president of the new steamship association which is likely to follow the representative lines of the Pacific cable board. Hon. Clifford Sifton is also intimately associated with the scheme. The new lines will be independent of all railway concerns, making equal terms with all.

It is understood Lloyd George will, at today's conference, promise the careful and most sympathetic consideration of His Majesty's government. He and Winston Churchill are most co-operatively inclined, so are other members of the ministry, including Sir Edward Grey, Haldane, Birrell and Buxton; while Asquith, who as ex-chancellor of the exchequer, must provide the money, is not expected to oppose. It is anticipated that the conference will leave no impression even among his friends, that he is not anxious to court another rebuff. The group of radicals in the Commons here threaten to oppose the scheme, but the ministry seem prepared to face them, especially seeing the certainty of support from a part at least of the opposition and the anxiety of the great body of the Liberal party to show the colonies that "Cordill is really their friend, not Short." The scheme in fact, looks more like speedy realization than any of its modest predecessors.

J. C. R. PROVIDENT FUND.

Official List of Those Nominated for Election to the Board.

Moncton Transcript.—The Provident Fund for the Intercolonial and Prince Edward Island Railways is now coming into operation, despite all insinuations to the contrary. There are two members of the Board of Management to be elected by the employees, each employee has two votes and about seven thousand are called upon to vote.

The election takes place on Monday, May 20, and the extent of the interest in the contest is shown by the fact that when the nominations closed on Saturday night, the following sixteen were found to be officially nominated:

- 2.—B. A. Bourgeois, chief clerk.
- 3.—E. L. Desjardins, chief train despatcher.

- 13.—John Stewart, engineman.

The above names are in the official order and with the official numbers, as they will be on the ballot paper.

AN INSANE SOLDIER.

Civic Authorities will be Asked to Take Care of Pte. Sarsfield.

The chances are that a soldier named Sarsfield, who was declared insane some months ago by a medical board, and who has since been confined in a cell at the barracks guard room, will soon be handed over to the civic authorities. He has been stationed in the city for one year and the military authorities claim that under the law he is now a resident and the city must look after him.

An effort was made some time ago to unload him on the city but a strong kick was made against this being done, with the result that orders came from Ottawa to detain the unfortunate man at the barracks guard room and allow him to draw rations.

Sarsfield is a native of Ireland and joined the R.C.R. at St. John's, Quebec. His insanity appears to be of a harmless sort, although he is not considered a fit person to be at large. He has never been a taxpayer of the city, and it has been urged, and with good reason too, that the city should not be called upon to support him. It has been suggested that an arrangement might be made with the Dominion Government to pay for his support at the Provincial Hospital.

The man has been well cared for at the guard room by his comrades, but they recognize that it is not a fit place to keep one in his condition.

CONCERT.

Albion Lodge, I. O. G. T., will hold a concert in the new hall on Westmorland street, next Thursday evening. A choice program of music and literary selections will be rendered. Admission 15 cts.—d.

Capt. and Mrs. R. C. Baron of Moncton, are here the guests of Mr. J. Howe Dickson.

Mr. Creelman, a few years ago endured the globe on a bicycle, meeting with many adventures and returning after two years to Truro, whence he and joined the R.C.R. at St. John's, Quebec. His insanity appears to be
