

The Daily Herald.

VOL XII

FREDERICTON, N. B., MONDAY, JUNE 24, 1907

NO. 145

E. A. O'BRIEN & CO.

JUNE 24TH 1907

Latest New York Style Belts

Ladies' Peter Pan Purses

Ladies' Wrist Bags

"ARTGUM" Something new that will cleanses your Kid Gloves, Belts, Corsets.
15 cents a box. Ask to see it.

E. A. O'Brien & Co

Wall Paper

Our new stock of Wall Paper is now all in. Newest Patterns Border same price per roll. See ours before you buy, we can save you money.

BOSTON 5 and 10
Opposite Soldiers' Barracks.

R. G. LEE & Co.

Twenty Dollars ($20.00) in Special Prizes to be given at the Fred-erickton Exhibition by Messrs. W. Atlee Burpee & Co., and George Y.
Dibblee, sole agent in Fredericton for Burpee's Seeds that Grow.

	1st	2nd	3rd
For best pack Uncle Glendon's Quick Lunch Potatoes, $2.00	$1.00	$1.00	$1.00
Best Onions grown from sets, 2.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Best Danvers Onions grown from seed, 1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Best Chantenay Carrots, 1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Best Intermediate Carrots, 1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Best Egyptian Beets, 1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Best Extra Early Cory Corn, 1.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Finest single bunch mixed Sweet Peas, ass't colors, 2.00	1.00	1.00	1.00
Finest Nasturtiums single bunch assorted colors, 2.00	1.00	1.00	1.00

Competitors for the above Prizes must have purchased the seeds from Messrs. W. Atlee Burpee & Co., direct, or from their sole agent at Fred-erickton, George Y. Dibblee.

GEO. Y. DIBBLEE,

PEOPLE'S DRUGGIST - - - - - opp. City Hall.
SOLE AGENT FOR BURPEE'S SEEDS.

Chestnut
says

"To-day is not too soon to begin buying at this Drug Store. Every purchase that you make we guarantee to please you. Every article that you buy will give you satisfaction with a Big S."

"THE QUALITY STORE." 572 Queen Street.

The Wedding Month
Is Here.

We are ready with a fine assortment of Wedding and set Rings, and up-to-date jewelry, also a beautiful line of Silverware, Cut Glass, Clocks, etc., suitable for wedding gifts.

F. E. BLACKMER

Opp Normal School - - - - - Fredericton, N.B.

THE LIBEL SUIT.

Judge Landry Agrees to Reserve a Case for the Supreme Court--Mr. Barry Asks for Postponement of Trial.

MR. HAZEN WANTS ACCUSED DISCHARGED--DECI-SION TOMORROW.

In the Emmerson-Crocket defamatory libel case, now before the circuit court here Judge Landry this morning declined to refer the question of the demurrer raised by crown counsel to the full bench for a decision. He afterwards considered however on the application of the crown counsel to reserve a case for the higher court. Crown counsel applied for postponement of trial and defendant's counsel made application for Crocket's discharge from arrest. The judge after remarking that case was in a somewhat embarrassing position stated that he would give a decision tomorrow morning.

Defendant Crocket and all his counsel were in their seats when court opened this morning, and Mr.
Barry K. C. alone represented the prosecution, Dr. Pugsley having gone to Montreal and Hon. Mr. White to Sosses. There were only a few spectators present as it was generally known that the case would not be proceeded with. After the usual opening ceremony Judge Landry read his judgment on the demurrer as follows:

THE JUDGE'S DECISION.

His Honor read his decision on Dr. Pugsley's application to refer the question of the demurrer to the full bench as follows:

"I have considered the matter of referring the discussion of the demurrer to the court and have concluded that the more regular practice is not to do so. Did I believe that there was no appeal from my decision I would refer the question, but believing that the court at the next term can properly be asked to rescind my order and that the matter can thus be brought up, I will make no reference to the court, yet so far as I have power to grant leave to appeal that leave is granted. The practice to refer to the Court important questions arising on circuits might lead to abuse and to much unnecessary vexations delay. Each time such a practice would be invoked and called, proceedings at circuit would have to be stopped and cut off until another circuit and one can readily see how often recourse would be had to such practice when once established."

In answer to a question by Mr.
Barry the Judge stated that he refused to reserve a case on the de-murrer to the Supreme Court but would grant leave to the prosecution to appeal.

Mr. Barry then made formal application to the court to reserve a case under the provisions of section 1014 of the criminal code, and requested that his application go on the record.

Judge Landry said that it was the first time counsel for the prosecution had asked him to reserve a case. Dr. Pugsley had intimated that he believed that the court had not the power to reserve a case for the full bench on the application of the crown.

Mr. Barry said that he was now asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had previously been made on behalf of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the demurrer the case would likely be dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court refused to allow the demurrer it would be impossible to take an appeal. Now Mr. Barry was asking to have a case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and pointed out that crown counsel had already stated that the trial would not be proceeded with at the present time. He claimed that it was too late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court re-
fused to allow the demurrer it would
be impossible to take an appeal. Now
Mr. Barry was asking to have a
case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was
impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and
pointed out that crown counsel had
already stated that the trial would
not be proceeded with at the present
time. He claimed that it was too
late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court re-
fused to allow the demurrer it would
be impossible to take an appeal. Now
Mr. Barry was asking to have a
case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was
impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and
pointed out that crown counsel had
already stated that the trial would
not be proceeded with at the present
time. He claimed that it was too
late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court re-
fused to allow the demurrer it would
be impossible to take an appeal. Now
Mr. Barry was asking to have a
case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was
impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and
pointed out that crown counsel had
already stated that the trial would
not be proceeded with at the present
time. He claimed that it was too
late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court re-
fused to allow the demurrer it would
be impossible to take an appeal. Now
Mr. Barry was asking to have a
case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was
impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and
pointed out that crown counsel had
already stated that the trial would
not be proceeded with at the present
time. He claimed that it was too
late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court re-
fused to allow the demurrer it would
be impossible to take an appeal. Now
Mr. Barry was asking to have a
case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was
impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and
pointed out that crown counsel had
already stated that the trial would
not be proceeded with at the present
time. He claimed that it was too
late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

Mr. Hazen said he understood Dr.
Pugsley to say that if the court re-
fused to allow the demurrer it would
be impossible to take an appeal. Now
Mr. Barry was asking to have a
case reserved for the Supreme Court.
He (Hazen) contended that it was
impossible to have a case reserved
without going on with the trial, and
pointed out that crown counsel had
already stated that the trial would
not be proceeded with at the present
time. He claimed that it was too
late to make application for a reserve case.

Mr. Barry said that he was now
asking the court to reserve a case.
He admitted that no application had
previously been made on behalf
of the crown. The question at issue
he regarded as most important, and it
was right that the full court should
be given a chance to decide it.
Should the court decide against the
demurrer the case would likely be
dismissed.

ROUSING RECEPTION.

Prince Fushimi Given Most Cordial Greetings
at Vancouver and Victoria, B. C.

Mr. D. Pottinger of the I. C. R. Among Those Decorated by His Imperial Highness.

Victoria, B. C., June 21.—(Special!) His Imperial Highness Prince Fushimi has been received cordially throughout Canada, but it remained to the city of Vancouver to supply a most fitting climax to one of the most successful tours of royalty through Canada via the C.P.R., this being the third during six years.

It may truthfully be said that the city of Vancouver was en fete from the hour of arrival until the departure of the prince and party. The Japanese citizens of Vancouver displayed the same artistic method of decoration as was noticeable at various points throughout British Columbia, but on a much more elaborate scale, the electric and lantern effects both in the city and harbor being very beautiful.

The very hearty reception to his Imperial Highness and party by the mayor and citizens developed during Friday afternoon and evening into a positive demonstration. The scene in the vicinity of the Vancouver Hotel during the evening was not only picturesque but impressive. Thousands thronged the streets and grounds of the hotel, carrying Japanese lanterns.

Saturday morning, under ideal weather conditions the party embarked on the C.P.R. Imperial steamer Princess

Victoria for the capital, Victoria.
Luncheon was served on board and the sail was very enjoyable.

At Victoria the landing dock was beautifully decorated. The prince and party were welcomed by Governor Dunsmuir and members of the local council board.

As a mark of appreciation of the attention His Imperial Highness, Prince Fushimi, of Japan, has been received during his visit to Canada, the Emperor has conferred the following decorations:

Upon Sir Thomas Shaughnessy, president of the Canadian Pacific Railway, the order of the Sacred Treasure of the second class.

Upon Mr. Chas. M. Hayes, second vice-president G.T.R., the Order of the Rising Sun of the third class.

Upon Mr. W. R. Baker, assistant to the president of the C.P.R. the order of the Sacred Treasure, of the third class.

Upon Mr. David Pottinger, general manager of the I.C.R., the order of the Rising Sun of the fifth class.

Upon Mr. H. R. Charlton, of the G.T.R., the order of the Sacred Treasure of the sixth class.

Prince Fushimi personally invested Mr. Baker with the order of the Sacred Treasure at Government House Saturday night.

Hee to him to have this indictment hanging over his head for another six months. The crown, he declared should present some tangible excuse to the court for not being ready to go on with the case. It looked to him as if the crown never had any bona fide intention of going on with the case from the first, and this must be apparent to all who had followed the proceedings in court. He repeated that no substantial reason had been put forward for postponing the case.

Judge Landry remarked that he thought that the case was in a rather embarrassing position at the present time, and he did not know what would have been the result had he refused to reserve a case. He regretted that Dr. Pugsley was not present.

Mr. Hazen remarked that Dr. Pugsley should be present.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for reasons of his own, and had asked him to act for the crown. He was not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a postponement it would make it still more embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the defendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Mr. Barry said that Dr. Pugsley
was unable to remain in the city for
reasons of his own, and had asked
him to act for the crown. He was
not in a position to say what course
the crown would have pursued had
the court refused to reserve a case.

Judge Landry repeated that the
case was in an embarrassing position
and if he refused to grant a post-
ponement it would make it still more
embarrassing. He did not feel like
deciding the matter off hand but
would consider the matter and give a
decision tomorrow morning.

When the case comes up tomorrow
Mr. Hazen will likely press his application for the discharge of the de-
fendant, and the crown counsel will
oppose it.

Chatham; three sons, Stafford, in the lumber business in Campbellton; John J. of the Bank of Montreal staff, Picton, Ont., and W.
Stuart, manager of the Bank of Nova Scotia, Fredericton.

FUNERAL YESTERDAY.

The funeral of the late Mr. John Boyle took place at 2.30 o'clock on Sunday afternoon from his late home on King street and was one of the largest seen in this city for several months being nearly three blocks in length. All classes in the community turned out to pay their last tribute of respect. Interment was made at the Hermitage.

The floral tributes which were very beautiful and were sent by following friends:

Mr. J. J. McCaffrey, Mr. J. H.
Fleming, Mr. D. E. Hanlon, Mr. and Mrs. James Minihan, Mr. and Mrs.
William Walker and Miss Ada Schleyer.

Eight workmen were killed and 35 injured when a passenger train on the Highland division of the New York, New Haven and Hartford railroad crashed into the rear end of a work train that was backing into Hartford from New Britain Sunday night at Sigourney street crossing. Of the injured two are not expected to recover.

A. W. Hay's saw mill at Woodstock, formerly Fred Moore's was burned early Sunday morning.
The property was insured.

Eating Grasshoppers.

"No wonder I am brown," said a globe trotter. "I am just back from the Sahara. I spent two months wandering with a caravan of camels over that white expanse of sun warmed sand. The Sahara is like the beach at Atlantic City, a flat immensity of the whitest, cleanest sand, and the strangest thing I did in my wanderings was to eat desert grasshoppers. The Arabs regard these grasshoppers as a luxury, and I was tempted to try them, just as in Paris I have been tempted to try snails. The grasshoppers were good.
You plucked off the wings, the legs and the head, and then you ate the dried body. This morsel tasted precisely like an English walnut. I ate grasshoppers several times, and when I return to the Sahara I am going to eat them again."

Spelling by Ear.

The young French stenographer, whose progress in English had not kept pace with her proficiency in shorthand, was puzzling over some notes she had taken of a recitation at a public entertainment.

As she transcribed them the recitation began like this:

La fanth wurlaf ewidheu, Qui panju out peloue.

"That's easy," said the expert to whom she submitted the notes. "It is part of a poem that begins:

"Laugh, and the world laughs with you, Weep, and you weep alone."