JURY DISAGREED.

And Collins, the Alleged Murderer of Miss McAulay, will be Given a Third Trial in September.

SEVEN JURYMEN WERE FOR ACQUITTING THE PRISONER.

Hopewell Cape N. B. July 4; (Special)—The circuit court was opened promptly at ten o'clock this morning. The prisoner Collins was brought in and the jury filed into the jury box, one minute after ten.

The clerk of the court asked "Gentlemen of the jury, have you agreed upon your verdict?" Wm. J. McGorman answered for the jury, "No, the jury cannot agree." "Is there any hope of the jury agreeing?"

"There is no hope of agreement. We stand the same as we did yesterday," was the word sent to the Chief Justice.

The jury had been out since yesterday noon.

The clerk adjourned the court, to the 17th day of September next at 11 o'clock in the morning.

The names of the jurymen voting for conviction are: Davis Baxter, of Harvey, Arthur W. Tingley, Wilfred Nelson, of Hopewell, Chas. Pitts of Coverdale, Stinton H. Draper, of Elgin.

Those who stand out for acquittal are: Blair Chapman, Harvey Gaskin, Chas. Goodall, of Coverdale, Lemuel Beck, Clifford Steeves and Jacob Steeves, Elgin and William J. McGorman of Hopewell.

It is freely stated that the question of innocence or guilt of the prisoner was not the question of much of the argument.

There will be a new trial and sweeping charges will probably be made on certain conditions of the administration of justice in this county.

FIENDISH OUTRAGE.

Quebec Girl Murderously Assaulted by English Farm Hand—Great Indignation Among the Populace.

Richmond, Quebec, July 4.—A crime of fiendishness of which has probably never been equalled in this neighborhood, was committed yesterday near the residence of John Lynn, one of the best known farmers and dairymen in the county, who lives within a mile of the outskirts of the village of Melbourne, as a result of which his beautiful daughter, Lillian, 16 years of age, lies at death's door.

In the morning Lillian went to a berry field about a quarter of a mile away. Alfred Greenhill, an Englishman, who had done work about the place for about two years, being at the same time sent to do work on the public road.

While superintending the shipment of milk to Montreal, Mr. and Mrs. Lynn heard a younger child call "Did you hear Lillian scream?" The cry came again and Mr. Lynn, hurrying in its direction, came upon the scene.

less bleeding form of his daughter in a spot showing unmistakable signs of a fierce struggle, while the figure of Alfred Greenhill was seen making off for the woods.

Aside from minor injuries, four or five enormous gashes appeared on the back of the girl's head, having been inflicted with a stone.

Richmond, Que., July 4.—Parties of men armed with shot guns and other weapons are scouring the woods about here for the assailant of 16 year old Lillian Lynn, who still lies in an unconscious condition.

Search has gone on steadily since last night. Some traces of the fugitive have been found, but he is still at large.

The people of the vicinity are much aroused, and there is some fear of extreme measures if Greenhill is captured, especially if his victim's injuries prove fatal.

One of the scientific bureaus at Washington was not long ago in need of some temporary employees, and the Civil Service Commission not being able to supply them a sort of examination was held by the head of the bureau himself.

"Where is the zenith in the horizon?" one applicant was asked.

"The spot, directly over one's head," was the reply.

"Yes. And can two persons have the same zenith at the same instant?" "It would be possible."

"Indeed! And how do you figure that?" the examiner asked, as, without waiting for the answer, he put down "0."

"If one stood on the other's head" the applicant suggested softly.
