THE HERALD OFFICE

To Visit England.

Among the visitors from India this season will be Prabhashankar D. Patani, the most prominent statesman of the day in that part of India which is known as the principality of Kathiawar. He holds the responsible post of Prime Minister in the State of Bhavnagar, which has often been classed with Mysore as "the model States" of India.

Among his principal achievements in office have been successful measures of relief in coping with two famines, the launching of the first external loan by any Indian State for other purposes than railway construction, and the opening of the only port along the western coast of India, between Bombay and Kurrachee. In some countries work like this would have brought the deer a crop of decorations, but Mr. Patani has only the satisfaction of having gained the confidence of his Prime and the esteem and gratitude of the people who have benefited by his administration.

Mr. Patani is a profound thinker on Indian problems, and writes and speaks English with fluency and distinction. In his picturesque costume he will be a striking figure at official and social entertainments this year.

Officers to Manchuria.

The Chronicle says: Manchuria has taken the place of France—that is to say, instead of visiting the battlefields of 1870, our staff officers are now going to make a study of the still more terrible battlefields of 1904-5; at least, as far as the Indian Government is concerned. In his introduction to the English version of the German history of the Franco-German war, General Maurice complains that this had become too much of a fetish with our military students, and that we had consequently suffered from the idolatry in Southern Africa.

Lord Kitchener seems to be of the same opinion, as he has decided to despatch twenty staff officers to study the Manchuria campaign on the spot. It is not, perhaps, generally realized that we owe the invaluable "Soldier's Scrap Book" of Sir Ian Hamilton, which we reviewed the other day, to the fact that he was the military agent of the Indian Government in Manchuria.

Going Him One Better.

An American was telling a Frenchman of the wonders of the forty-eight story skyscrapers in New York.

"You should see our new hotel in the Rue de Republique," said the Frenchman.

"Why, what is there peculiar about it?"

"The two top stories are on hinges, so that they can be lowered to let the moon go by."—Pele Mela.

RIVAL BRITAIN ON SEA.

Germany Jubilant Over Increase in Mercantile Marine.

German shipping and commercial circles are in a fever of delight at the extraordinary progress which their overseas shipping has been recently making. A few years more of such progress, they say, and the maritime supremacy of Britain will begin to be called in question.

Undoubtedly the figures which are being published, if not alarming, afford at any rate, food for serious reflection. Take, for example, the Suez Canal. In 1882 British shipping through the canal was over 4,000,000 tons; in 1906 it had risen to 3,500,000, or a trifle over 100 per cent. increase. In 1882 German shipping was 127,000 tons; in 1906, 2,225,000, an increase of about 1,700 per cent. In 1882 England owned 81 per cent. of all shipping passing through the canal; in 1906 the percentage had sunk to 63. In 1882 Germany owned only 2 1/2 per cent., but in 1906 this had risen to over 16 per cent.

Equal jubilation has been caused by figures recently published by the Norddeutscher Lloyd and the Hamburg-American Lines with regard to the enormous increase of their tonnage, which is now far in excess of that of any British rival and is rapidly increasing. Both lines are rapidly developing their trade with the Far East and in seas which until a few years ago were British preserves. Their lines to India, China, the Straits Settlements and Japan are some of their most flourishing ventures, and it now has been decided to put on steamers to trade with ports in the Persian Gulf. German captains not being above calling at any port no matter how insignificant.

Equally surprising are the figures with regard to shipbuilding. German yards have been fully employed, and during the last ten years the number of men employed in shipbuilding has increased fivefold.

Bilious Paleness,

Now Easily Cured.

If you are frequently bilious or have feelings of nausea, there is a reason.

When the liver action is normal the bile is secreted in the proportions necessary to ensure the digestion of fats.

When liver action is irregular it is an evidence of impairment of nerve force.

When these derangements occur, an undue amount of work is thrown upon the liver and kidneys, they rebel—the whole system suffers, and ill-health follows.

Another dangerous result of derangement of the biliary function is constipation. Deadly disease results from this condition.

This is a hateful condition because it ensures two results—heavy dark rings under the eyes, and a sallow ness that is absolutely abhorrent.

These derangements if allowed to continue excite the inflammation of gallstones, cause jaundice, catarrhal inflammation of the bowels, and indigestion.

If you wish to get better, the very root of the trouble must be reached.

This can be accomplished only by Ferrozone—a remedy that strengthens the system, the blood, the liver and kidneys.

Ferrozone is a food for the nervous system.

It fortifies and strengthens it.

The nervous system controls all the functions of the body.

Improve its tone, you improve the tone of the whole body, and this is what Ferrozone accomplishes.

Its first action is to fortify digestion—this means nourishment and more building material.

Ferrozone makes rich, red blood—lots of it, and this means the proper action of all the large and vital organs of the body.

Quickly there comes strength, vigor, endurance—that glow of feeling which we call health.

You are sure of robust health sure of strong nerves, good appetite, sure to look and feel your best if you use Ferrozone; try this great tonic, sold everywhere in 50 cent boxes.

A TASTY SALAD.

Grape Fruit Mixed With Celery, Apple and Banana.

A delicious and unusual salad is made of celery and grape fruit.

Cut the inner and crispest stalks of celery into half inch lengths. Skin a banana and cut it into neat cubes. Do the same with a tender tart apple. (A "snow apple" would be good for this purpose.) Have ready a couple of halved grape fruit, from which you have removed all the pulp so carefully that you have not torn the skin of either half.

Cut the pulp taken from one of the halves into small pieces in size corresponding to the apple and banana dice. Put all these into a chilled bowl and set on the ice or in a very cold place for half an hour. You do not need to be reminded that the mayonnaise should be made first of all and left out in the cold while you are preparing the rest of the ingredients.

The emptied halves of the grape fruit should lie in ice (crushed) until you are ready to make ready for serving.

Then empty, wipe and fill them with the fruit mixture as soon as you have poured the mayonnaise into the bowl and tossed the contents up lightly with a silver fork to insure thorough incorporation of fruit and dressing.

Put a half teaspoonful of the mayonnaise on the top of each portion of fruit and serve the filled skins upon small plates.

PRINCE FUSHIMI DELIGHTED WITH I. C. TRAIN SERVICE.

Expresses His Gratitude to the Management for the Splendid Arrangements for His Journey.

Before leaving Canada for Japan, His Imperial Highness Prince Fushimi of Japan, instructed his Secretary to send the following telegram to the officials of the Intercolonial Railway:

To D. Pattinson, Moncton, N. B. His Imperial Highness, Prince Fushimi desires to express to you his warm thanks for the services of all the officials of the Intercolonial Railway on the train from Quebec to Toronto. Everything went off with the greatest smoothness, and His Imperial Highness much appreciated all the arrangements made to insure him comfort.

He is grateful to you for all your services on this occasion.

(Signed) NAGASKI.

In discussing the rural train which the Intercolonial Railway placed at the disposal of His Highness on his arrival at Quebec, the Toronto World says:

The royal train which created so much attention was composed of several cars, occupied by a party of about forty. It was the first government owned train which ever arrived in Canada, and it was remarked by railway officials: "Five of the cars were the Intercolonial Railway, which were now Toronto before, returned the train to the blue and red regions to resume their usual guise as a portion of the greater Canadian Railway, to which it may be said they are a distinct credit. They are the cars that are in ordinary use on the 'Ocean Limited' and their general appearance is pleasing. The other two cars were these known as the Governor-General's. They are the 'Cornwall' and 'York' and were occupied by Prince Fushimi and his suite who were greatly pleased with the attention to their comfort and expressed themselves accordingly.

The Prince, through his interpreters, liked the railway service. The observation and dining room of the Cornwall was very handsomely decorated with evergreens and flowers as was also the dining car of the Intercolonial Railway.

HARVEY STATION.

June 28.—The residence of Mrs. Margaret A. Coburn at Manners Sutton was, on Wednesday afternoon, the scene of a very pretty wedding, when her daughter, Mary Helena, was united in marriage to Henry C. Swain of Manners Sutton. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McLean, in the presence of about 200 guests, who afterwards sat down to a spinach supper, which was served in a booth erected in front of the house. The bride received many presents, some of which were of considerable value.

On Tuesday afternoon Miss Susan G. Briggs, daughter of Mr. Alexander Briggs of Frog Lake, was married at her father's residence to Mr. J. Lorne Coffey of Upper Kingsclear. The ceremony was performed by Rev. J. A. McLean in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends.

Miss Mary Nesbit of Tweedside, who has not been enjoying good health for some weeks, was on Tuesday taken to the Victoria hospital at Fredericton, where she underwent a severe surgical operation for an internal trouble.

The closing exercises of the Superior school took place yesterday afternoon, about forty visitors being present. Much interest was taken in the exercises, which showed that the pupils in both departments had been efficiently taught and reflected much credit on themselves as well as the teachers. The work of the teachers, Miss Chase and Miss Williams during the term has been very satisfactory.

Mrs. G. Campbell of Toronto, with her two children, are spending their holidays here at the residence of Mrs. Campbell's aunt, Mrs. Annie Grieve.

QUEENSBURY NOTES.

July 2.—Although the weather has been somewhat backward the crops are looking fine.

The pupils in the school at this place, with the assistance of their teacher, Miss Sarah Haines, held an ice cream social at the school building on Friday, the 21st ult. A large number was present and the affair was most successful in every particular.

Dr. Robertson presided and an interesting program, consisting of readings, recitations and gramophone selections was carried out.

At the conclusion of the concert ice cream and refreshments were served, and Dr. Robertson, who acted as auctioneer, disposed of a number of pies, which were bid in at a good figure. The sum of fifty dollars was realized, and this will be used for school purposes.

Miss Haines and her pupils are to be congratulated on the success of the affair.

Miss Mrs. Cliff is visiting friends at Fredericton and vicinity.

HONEYMOON IN PRISON.

English Bride of a Foreigner Subjected to Many Indignities.

The peril to which the English girl who marries a foreigner exposes herself is illustrated by the pathetic case of Signora Andalo, formerly Miss Nellie Penberion, an assistant in a cigar shop in the West End of London. Her husband was arrested in Brussels on March 3 on a charge of theft of jewelry and on suspicion of being the assailant of Miss Low, the English nurse, who in January last was the victim of a brutal assault in a train in the Mont Cenis tunnel.

Andalo and his wife were on their honeymoon when the arrest was made, and both were imprisoned and kept apart. She was kept for nearly 12 hours without food on the first day of her imprisonment, and underwent all the degrading processes of measurement, photography, etc., to which criminals are subjected. She was only discharged after two dreary weeks of solitary confinement in a cell. Unable to speak French, she could not even exchange a word with her warder.

When she was released she was allowed to visit her husband in jail, and informed him, to his great surprise, of the charges against him. Andalo was suddenly released only to be hurried over the Dutch frontier, whether his wife is following him, their money is exhausted, and she has not at present the 500 francs necessary to secure admission as an alien to her native country, where, however, she intends to return.

During the examination which preceded her release the magistrate asked her whether she knew anything of her husband's career. It appears that in his youth he was the associate of Italian anarchists, this being the reason why he has been deported from Belgium. She replied that she knew nothing of Andalo's history. The magistrate observed: "That is how English girls get into trouble. They marry foreigners without knowing anything of their past history."

The Ship's Log.

The "log," the instrument by which the speed of ships is ascertained, was invented in the sixteenth century. It was adopted by English vessels about 1577.

WHEN WOMEN SUFFER.
