

Events of a Day

WON TEN DOLLARS.

The holder of the lucky gate ticket at the K. of P. bazaar was Miss Helen Smith, of Gibson. The number of the ticket was 1,646, and the prize was ten dollars in gold.

PROSPECTIVE WEDDING.

The marriage of a young lady stenographer, employed in a local industrial establishment and a young man belonging to Westmorland County, is said to be booked to take place the latter part of this month.

HORSE PURCHASED.

A syndicate of representative farmers from Keswick and Bright are now the owners of the handsome black Petcheron stallion shown at the recent exhibition here by Hawthorn and Hamilton of Ontario. The animal will be kept at Mr. Abraham Merriwell's stables at Keswick for the winter and will stand for service next season. Mr. Leonard Yerxa is president of the syndicate and Mr. A. E. Kilburn secretary-treasurer.

SEVERE STORM.

The big rain storm of today seems to be general throughout the province, and has seriously interrupted the C. P. R. telegraph service. The wires are down or crossed between this city and St. John, and very few messages have been put through today. The storm is regarded as one of the worst of the season.

SUCCESSFUL MEETING.

Rev. Mr. Thomas of Toronto, who is travelling in the interests of the Brotherhood of St. Andrew, addressed a good sized meeting in the church hall last evening. He dealt ably with the object and aims of the brotherhood and was listened to with marked attention.

GONE TO FORT FAIRFIELD.

Miss Tresea Roberts, of Tobique, who has been employed for several months past as stenographer at the John Palmer Company, has accepted a position at Fort Fairfield and has gone to that town to re-join in her new position.

A GREAT RACER.

Marguerite, the Champion Green Trotter of the Season.

(Halifax Recorder.)

No horse has appeared on the Maritime Province turf this season which has attracted greater attention than the city mare Marguerite, owned by the Gallagher Bros., of Woodstock. She was foaled in 1896, bred by the produce of Arclig, and was sired by Sir Charles, owned by Dr. Roddick, of Sussex. She was afterwards owned by Mr. Fowler, and was used for road purposes, and who sold her to Gallagher Bros. She was raced for the first time this season, and proved herself only the fastest green trotter of the year, but winning none of the ten races in which she started, losing only three heats, and winning about $1400 in premiums.

Her first race was at Fort Fairfield, Me., July 4, when she won in 2:29. She started in the 2:35 class at Grand Falls, N. B., July 12, winning in straight heats in 2:26, 2:28, 2:31. She went on the circuit at St. John, winning the 2:20 in 2:28, 2:28, 2:27. At Fredericton she lost a third heat to Axwell in 2:26, but won in 2:28, 2:26, 2:23. At St. John she won the 2:26 trot and pace in 2:27, 2:29, 2:26, and at Fredericton she won in 2:28, 2:23, 2:26. She won three victories at Halifax, losing but a heat in the 3:00 class to Orphan Girl in 2:23. She won that race in 2:24, 2:26, 2:25, the 2:40 stake in 2:25, 2:25, 2:25, losing the third heat to Dr. Ferron in 2:26, and the 2:25 class in 2:23, 2:25, 2:25.

Her victories in Halifax were very popular, as she was greatly admired by the crowds, while her driver and part owner, James Gallagher, received much praise from the gathering for the judgment he displayed in his driving and the manly sportsmanlike way he drove in the various races.

WAS WIDELY KNOWN.

John McKenzie, the Well Known Painter, Passes Away at Woodstock.

WOODSTOCK, Oct. 8.—(Special.)—Mr. John McKenzie died this morning at his residence, aged 54 years. The cause of death was heart failure but his health had been in a precarious condition for a year or more. He has been confined to the house for a few months with a broken ankle. His widow, formerly Miss Gould, of Woodstock, and one daughter by a previous marriage, survives him. A sister resides in St. John.

The funeral will take place on Thursday afternoon in Woodstock. In his removal by death the community has lost an ever-ready and obliging neighbor and an honest and upright citizen.

He was born in St. John, and learned the painting trade with Messrs. Price & Shaw. He removed to Chicago for a time and thence to Yarmouth, N. S., where he married, was a member of the Masonic fraternity and became a past master of the lodge here. He came to Woodstock nearly thirty years ago, established a business and his first wife having died, he married Miss Gould.

He has been affiliated with the local lodge of Masons ever since, is a past master in the lodge and past high priest in the chapter.

He has always taken an interest in civic, local and federal politics, and when he died was president of the Liberal-Conservative organization of Woodstock.

The first attack of the malady that caused his death came upon him a year ago last month while on a visit to St. John, when he collapsed on Prince William street, and was removed by some Woodstock friends to the new Victoria Hotel, but he quickly rallied and came home next day.

CHORAL SOCIETY FORMED

Organization Launched Under Favorable Auspices.

A public meeting held last evening in Mr. Harrison's music rooms, 104 Queen street, Mr. T. B. Kidner, president, decided to form a choral society to be known as the Fredericton Choral Society. The officers consisting of president, vice-president, treasurer, secretary and executive committee were appointed and Mr. Harrison and Mr. Isnerwood Plummer were invited to become conductors.

Two delegates from each religious denomination were elected to the executive. There was a large and representative attendance and the manner in which the various propositions were received showed that those present were keenly interested.

Monday evenings at eight o'clock will be the time fixed for rehearsal and the place and date of first rehearsal will be announced subsequently.

The conductors will be glad to receive the names of ladies and gentlemen wishing to join the choros and they or Mr. J. M. Lemont, the secretary, will be pleased to furnish any further information.

Mr. A. H. F. Randolph was selected as president. The clergymen in active work in the different city churches and the mayor of the city are the vice-presidents. Mr. J. M. Lemont was elected secretary and Mr. O. H. Sharp, treasurer. Some of the gentlemen selected as officers were not present at the meeting but it is understood they will accept the offices to which they were elected.

AT THE OPERA HOUSE.

The Stoddart Stock Company initial performance at the Opera House last evening was largely attended and the bill The Country Girl, which was presented was much appreciated by those present. Hanson's Orchestra was present and played several selections. The Company will remain the entire week with a change of program each evening.
