THE TELEGRAPH DEAL.

There seems no doubt that Millionaire McKane of the North Shore has bought the St. John Telegraph and Times for the Tory party, and while these papers are assuming an independent attitude to hold the Liberal patronage, they are intended to form part of the Tory machine, and will become full fledged Tory organs.

The Telegraph announces as part of its new policy "no deals" but one can hardly imagine a "deal" of such startling suddenness and undisguised motives as that which in a day has turned a newspaper from the Liberal to the Tory party.

The disguise of independence is entirely too thin to wash.

Mr. McKane, who a few years ago was a poorly paid bank manager of Newcastle, sought and found fortune in the western states, and has returned to New Brunswick in search of political preferment. He tried to find it in British Columbia and was defeated, but with millions at his command, he has an idea that by controlling a newspaper and otherwise freely putting up his money, for Tory purposes, he will become an important force in the politics of this province.

The Tories who pretend to be laboring for purity in the political arena, who affect to despise money considerations in winning elections, have been most industrious in cultivating Mr. McKane since he returned with his millions. He is their Mecca, their hope, the object of their worship and devotion, their dictator and what Mr. McKane desires, he can have of the Tory party so long as he has the cash.

But the people of New Brunswick are not for sale, even to Mr. McKane. The independent thought of the country will not be blinded by the lustre of Mr. McKane's gold, nor will Liberals be seduced from their allegiance by the glitter of the millionaire's fortune.

The Telegraph is to be commiserated on being made a plaything by the newly made rich.

It was founded to advocate Liberal principles and under the late Dr. Elmer and some of his successors it rendered splendid service to its party and the country, but its prestige and influence waned when it passed into the hands of that other speculator who has sold it to Mr. McKane.

Mr. Russell of Montreal thought to make a fortune in the elections and in that ambition, he was defeated.

"Dare to do right" by Brother Pincher.

A travelling troupe with such great ability, sandwiching their songs in with the leader's "boiled sawdust" speeches would create a great sensation throughout the country.

ALARMING.

According to Organizer Hubbard, there is scarcely a Grit left in Northumberland since he completed his tour of the constituency. Those who did not surrender to the charming personality of the Organizer fell under the spell of Donald Morrison's ponderous eloquence, and so the Grit party in the county has been entirely obliterated. That is according to Mr. Hubbard, who represents in Mr. Hazen's organ that the Grits fell before the combined attack of Hubbard and Morrison, like a buckwheat field assailed by fall frosts. Evidently the Organizer is looking for a raise of salary.

Northumberland, where he has been operating, has the distinguished honor of claiming Mr. John McKane as one of its citizens, and what would be easier than the millionaire Tory dictator adding a good sized cheque of the Organizer's emoluments from the party purse, if Mr. McKane can be convinced that the constituency has gone clean back on the Grits.

CURRENT COMMENT.

The Herald has at last made an impression on the civic authorities, and that bursted water pipe on George street is being repaired.

The city loses an excellent teacher in the removal of Mr. H. G. Perry to the charge of the Hampton Consolidated school. As principal of the Charlotte street school for some years he made a splendid record, and hosts of friends will wish him all possible success and prosperity in his new home.

Montreal Witness: "If the government's following from New Brunswick is of the same mind as it was last session, the vacant portfolio will undoubtedly go to Mr. Carvell, who, by his work in the house, and by his record among his own people, is a man of excellent character, of much industry and of sound business sagacity."

The jury in the case of Haywood, secretary-treasurer of the Western Federation of Miners, who has been on trial at Boise, Idaho, for some weeks for the murder of Governor Steunenburg, have rendered a verdict of acquittal, and Haywood walks forth a free man. The trial has been one of the most sensational in the annals of the criminal courts and has attracted world-wide interest.

The Charlottetown lawyer, who has been committed for trial on the charge of robbing his clients, and against whom extensive forgeries are charged, seems to have been a victim of the stock market, where so many men fail. He had been at the bar only two years, and evidently made haste to qualify early for another career. Lawyers have been known before to monkey with their clients' money, but they took the precaution to hold the strong arm of the law.

OROMOCTO.

OROMOCTO, July 29.—The farmers are to begin haying this week, and prospects are good for a fine crop.

Miss Mary Moore, of Fredericton, has been engaged to teach at this village next term.

Although the tourist travel has not begun to boom, the hotels of Mrs. Stocker and James M. Kelly are doing a good business.

Mr. James M. Kelly has purchased the handsome four-year-old colt owned by the late Frank McElroy. The animal is a beauty, and is even now counted among the fast ones. The price paid for the colt was between $150 and $200.

The accident to the steamer Victoria caused considerable excitement here on Friday, and crowds were on the wharf all day. The passengers on the ill-fated steamer all spoke in the highest terms of Captain Perley and crew for the courteous treatment received during the day.

Hughes Brothers have had a busy season painting different buildings in this vicinity. The addition of a little paint makes quite an improvement in the village buildings.

Mr. Jack Knight, the popular commercial man, with his family, are at the Riverside for a few weeks.

Rev. Father Carleton was here on Sunday.
