OLD TIMES REGALLED.

A Glance Into the Local News of Fredericton Twenty-six Years Ago.

(From Farmer Files, July 21, 1881.)

PERSONAL.

Mr. A. Slason Thompson is home on a visit from Chicago. The coadjutor bishop, Dr. Kingdon, preached last Sunday for the first time in the cathedral. Mr. George Giles, and Mrs. Giles, of Toronto, are in the city on a short visit to their friends. They are the guests of Mr. L. W. Johnston, and Mr. A. G. Edgecombe.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Patrick Hussey, well known as an intelligent, goodnatured and respectable citizen, died yesterday, after a brief illness.

W. S. Estey, sr., father of Mr. Har- tis Estey, principal assessor, of this city, died at his residence yesterday, after quite a lengthy illness, at the advanced age of 85 years. Mr. Estey was a useful man in his day, and his long connection with the Baptist church in this city and other institutions, made his name familiar to almost everybody.

(Deceased was the grandfather of Mrs. J. W. Spurdin.)

CASES DISMISSED.

Col. Marsh, police magistrate, has dismissed the charges against Messrs. J. Henry Phair and Edgar Hanson, for illegal fishing. Judge Steadman's case, for violation of the fishery regulations before justice Ingraham, last Thursday, was dismissed.

TEMPERANCE MEETING.

Prof. Foster addressed a public temperance meeting in the city hall Tuesday evening. Previous to the opening the Reform Club band played some choice music for half an hour.

EDUCATIONAL ADDRESS.

Prof. Walter Smith, State Director of Art Education in Massachusetts, whose addresses before the Educational Institute, held in St. John last week, were reported in the daily press, has since been visiting Fredericton. On Monday last, at the invitation of Principal Crockett, he addressed the students of the Normal School upon the subjects of Industrial Drawing and Art Education, occupying nearly two hours in the forenoon, and as long in the afternoon. A number of ladies and gentlemen were present including His Honor the Lieut. Governor, Hon. Attorney General, Hon. D. Wark, Dr. Rand, Dr. Jack, Judge Steadman, His Worship the Mayor, Revs. G. G. Roberts, A. J. Mowatt, and F. D. Crawley, G. E. Fenety, Dr. Black, Dr. Dow, Dr. Patterson, A. G. Beckwith, and others.

DISTINGUISHED VISITORS.

Sir Chas. Tupper and Sir Leonard Tilley are to arrive here at noon next Tuesday, and that evening they will address a public meeting probably in the City Hall. They will be met at the railway station by a committee of Liberal Conservatives, and Sir Charles will be presented

OTTAWA HOUSE, CUSHING'S ISLAND.

The popular and delightful spot known as the Ottawa House at Cushing's Island in Portland Harbor, Maine, was refurbished and reconstructed in all departments last year. The management this year are catering to the many Canadians who annually go to the seaside for their summer trip, and a more delightful spot than Cushing's Island could not be chosen. Sea bathing, golf, deep sea fishing, pure air and cool and pleasant evenings are some of the attractions.

Through Pullman cars, Chicago, Toronto and Montreal to Portland, and further particulars with handsome illustrated literature may be secured on application to J. Quinlan, Bonaventure Station, Montreal.

with an Address previous to his speaking in the City Hall. The following gentlemen of the Liberal Conservative party have been appointed a reception committee: E. L. Wetmore, His Worship the Mayor, G. R. Parkin, A. G. Beckwith, Ald. Simmons, Wm. Lemont, H. G. C. Kelchum, J. S. Beck, H. B. Rainsford, John Black, C. H. B. Fisher, S. D. Macpherson, Geo. Hatt, Jr., J. C. Risteen, James Farrell.

MR. BLAKE'S VISIT.

Hon. Mr. Blake and Mr. Huntington spoke at a large political meeting at Gagetown on Monday, Mr. L. P. Farris presiding. Mr. John Palmer presented an address to Mr. Blake.

Mr. G. G. King, M. P. for Queens, made a brief introductory speech, and Hon. Messrs. Blake and Huntington followed, the former speaking for an hour and a half. Both gentlemen were well received. The same evening Hon. Messrs. Blake and Huntington arrived here with Mr. Pickard and the party who accompanied by the Reform Club band went down to Gagetown in the morning. The 71st batt. band and a large assemblage of citizens were on the wharf to meet the boat, which arrived shortly after 9 p. m. A reception committee met Mr. Blake and his friends and the former left at once for Marysville, where he and Mrs. Blake were the guests of Mr. Gibson, Mr. and Mrs. Huntington going to Government House. On Tuesday, Mr. Blake was shown some of the interesting features of the city, including the University, Normal School and Post Office. During the afternoon, from three o'clock till six, Mr. Blake held a reception at the Queen hotel and was introduced to a large number of gentlemen.

Messrs. Blake and Huntington spoke to a large open air meeting on Officers' Square yesterday afternoon, Mr. James Tibbitts presiding and last night they were entertained at dinner at the Queen Hotel. About 120 guests sat down and a dozen more were turned away for want of room. The visiting gentlemen left for Woodstock this morning, via the N. B. Railway.
