

RESTIGOUCHE SHOOTING.

Constable Gallop and Others Tell Story of the Tragedy—Conflicting Testimony.

Dalhousie, N. B., June 18.—The court house was again crowded yesterday with people from all parts of the country for the coroner's investigation into the death of Peter Fontaine. W. A. Trueman represented the crown, R. A. Lawlor, K. C., the Fontaine family and W. A. Mott attended on behalf of the two Dalhousie officials, Seely and Gallop.

THE PRISONER'S BROTHER.

Andrew Fontaine, called and sworn, said to Mr. Trueman: "I am a brother of the late Peter Fontaine. On Thursday morning last two men came to my house and pointed revolvers at me. They arrested and handcuffed me. I saw two men in a scuffle in front of Jalbert's house. Gallop dragged me to the scene. He struck Jalbert and the latter ran away to the barn. I also ran away. Peter Fontaine got clear and while running away was fired at by both officials. Peter crawled into the house.

To Mr. Mott the witness said both officials fired one shot after the other.

To Mr. Lawlor, he said that Peter was running when the shots were fired, that Seely first fired.

GALBERT'S STORY.

George Jalbert, sworn, said: "On Thursday morning last I occupied my home with my wife and Peter Fontaine, my brother-in-law, who slept upstairs. A man forced open my door and from my bed I saw him with a revolver in his hand. I called out to my wife to bring a rope to tie him. I wanted to find out what was the matter.

Gallop appeared and struck me with his baton. Peter came down and said, 'What does all this mean? Let go the revolver and I will not hurt you.' No shots were fired in the scuffle. Before we fell on the woodpile a revolver was discharged.

"This was before Peter came down. I heard a second shot after we were down. I left after Gallop struck me at the corner of the barn. I saw the officials running. Peter crawled into the house on his hands and feet."

CONSTABLE GALLOP'S STORY.

William Gallop, who is a former York County man, sworn, said: "I reside in Dalhousie. Am a constable for the County of Restigouche. Of Peter and Andrew Fontaine from James S. Harquail. I left Dalhousie at 2 p. m. last Thursday morning. George Seely and James Savoy, a driver, went with me.

"At 5 o'clock we arrived at Andrew Fontaine's house. We left the horse a little way off from the house. I knocked at the door twice. An answer from inside said: 'Hold on I will be there in a minute.' He opened the door. I had a revolver in my hand. I pointed it at him saying 'You are my prisoner; throw up your hands.' He slammed the door in my face.

"I shoved the door, at the same time singing out to George Seely to come. I grabbed Andrew Fontaine and with one hand pushed him against the wall and Seely grabbed the other hand. I had put the revolver in my pocket by that time. I took the handcuffs out of my pocket and put them on Andrew. I said, 'Where is the teamster?' He was gone, the horse also.

"I said to Seely, 'I will stay with this prisoner; go and make the other arrest yourself.' Seely hurried away and Andrew wanted to know what he was arrested for. I read the charge to him. He wanted me to wait till he got his shoes on. I told him to wait that we would fix him up all right.

"I was watching the other house. I saw Seely go to the door. He stood there for a while, then I saw him and another party coming out the door. They both landed in the dooryard, both down, Seely on top. I cannot describe his clothing except that he had something red on. I then saw another man coming out. When I saw the other man coming out I said to Andrew, 'Come on.' I had to use main strength to bring him along. The reason why I hurried him was because Seely had two men at him.

"When I arrived at Jalbert's house Jalbert and Fontaine were at Seely. I struck George Jalbert over the head with my baton. Andrew Fontaine ran away across the field. I did not know either of the men. I struck at Peter and missed him. Peter Fontaine had a red Guernsey on. When I struck Jalbert he left.

CALLS "STOP OR I'LL FIRE."

"I tried to strike Peter Fontaine, but missed him. I did not hear any revolver shots up to this time. I got up and ran around the end of the house. Seely got up and cried, 'Stop or I will fire.' He fired one shot. Peter turned and came back and went into the house. As he went into the house I grabbed for him and missed him. I then let go and went to the door. As he went in he shut the door. I jumped into the door and opened it. He started upstairs. As he went upstairs I grabbed him by the shirt. I did not stop him. I jumped upon the stairs and got half way up. I then got to the head of the stairs and he took something in his hand to strike me. I grabbed him by the shirt collar.

"The second time I pulled on him he overbalanced me and he came down head first. The step gave way that I was standing on, and we both came down. I grabbed one hand, Seely grabbed the other and we placed the handcuffs on him. We placed him on a bench. We did not know that he was hurt until we returned, when we found him in a dying condition. I then rushed to the first telephone to get the doctor."

To Foreman Powell he said that they had been told that the Fontaines were dangerous men and hard to arrest. "I cannot account for the blood seen on the wood pile. When we saw a man coming with an axe Seely fired three shots."

To Mr. Mott—"I cannot say that Seely aimed at Peter Fontaine." Anthony Fontaine, sworn, said he was notified by his sister, Mrs. Jalbert, that murderers were at their home. He rushed down with an axe. He said both Seely and Gallop fired at him. The coroner expressed himself doubtful if it was a bullet wound.

When he reached Jalbert's house, he said he saw blood on every step. There was blood on the floor upstairs.

The inquest was adjourned till Wednesday. In the meantime the jury will again visit the scene of the tragedy.

HINTS ON CLEANLINESS.

Fredericton, N. B., May, '07.
To the Editor of The Herald:
Sir: Being interested in the appearance of the city, I send you a few lines, in rhyme bearing on the improvement of the same.
Little beds of flowers,
Little coats of paint,
Make a pleasant cottage
Out of one that aint.

Little heaps of tin cans,
Rags and bones galore,
Left to mar the landscape
Just a few months more.
Gather them up Slowgo.

Dump them behind the City Hall,
You'll please all the citizens
And satisfy your soul.

Little piles of rubbish,
Little mounds of leaves,
Dougan has a bonfire
Which makes the aldermen sneeze.

Leaves the old stuff smoking;
Just as His Worship goes past.
It is most provoking,
But it cannot last.

Yours truly,

STUDENT,

The bride and groom were unattended. Frederick T. McKean, brother of the bride gave her away. The young couple left on their wedding trip to Nova Scotia.

AN EXCELLENT OFFICE APRON.

Aprons have been designed for every sort of use except office work and why not this when do many need some sensible protection while performing such tasks? Here is sketched an apron for this work which will be found satisfactory because it anticipates all needs. The upper portion covers the front of the blouse and the sleeves—the two parts which are most quickly soiled, yet is not bulky anywhere and is of becoming shape. The skirt is short and a bit full at the belt. The back edges meet so that the constant rubbing on the chair will not harm one's dress. The usual white materials are suitable for use here, 3/4 yards 36 inches wide being needed for the medium size. 6899—sizes, small medium and large. The price of this pattern is 10c.

SUFFERING WOMEN.

Need Just the Rich Red Blood Dr. Williams' Pink Pills Actually Make.

From girlhood to middle life the health and happiness of every woman depends upon her blood. If her blood is poor and watery she becomes weak, languid, pale and nervous. If her blood supply is irregular she suffers from headaches and back aches, and other unspeakable distress which only women know. A every stage of woman's life Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the best friend, because they actually made the rich, red blood which gives strength and tone to every organ of the body. They help a woman just when nature makes the greatest demand upon her blood supply. Mrs. H. Gagnon, who for twenty years has been one of the best known residents of St. Roch, Que., says: "Dr. Williams' Pink Pills have been a blessing to me. I was weak, worn out and scarcely able to drag myself about and I suffered from headaches and dizziness, my appetite was poor, and to attempt housework left me utterly worn out. I slept badly at night, and what sleep I got did me no good. For nearly three years I was in this condition, and was constantly taking medicine but found no benefit from it. One of my neighbors, who had used Dr. Williams' Pink Pills with much benefit, advised me to try them. I did so, and the whole story is told in the words 'I am well again.' There are times yet when I take the pills for they seem to be a guarantee against the troubles from which so many women suffer."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills don't act on the bowels. They contain just the elements that actually make new blood and strengthen the nerves. That's why they cure anemia, indigestion, lumbago, rheumatism, headaches, backaches and heart palpitation, and skin diseases like pimples and eczema. That is why they are the greatest help in the world for growing girls who need new blood and for women who are troubled with irregular health. Sold by all medicine dealers or by mail from The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont., at 50 cents per box or six boxes for $2.50.

Coffee and Matrimony.

A cafe proprietor who recently opened new premises at Berlin adopted an excellent way of booming his business. He put in the papers very enticing matrimonial advertisements. In reply to the many answers received from these a meeting was arranged at the cafe. As fortune hunting is a recognized profession in Berlin, the cafe was crowded day after day with people, chiefly men with an eye to the main chance, and the business received an excellent start.

Of Interest To Women.

To such women as are not seriously out of health but who have exacting duties to perform, either in the way of household cares or in social duties and functions which seriously tax their strength, as well as to nursing mothers, Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription has proved a most valuable supporting tonic and invigorating nerve. By its timely use, much serious sickness and suffering may be avoided. The operating table and the surgeon's knife, would, it is believed, seldom have to be employed if this most valuable woman's remedy were resorted to in good time. The "Favorite Prescription" has proven a great boon to expectant mothers by preparing the system for the coming of baby, thereby rendering childbirth safe, easy, and almost painless.

Bear in mind, please that Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription is not a secret or patent medicine, against which the most intelligent people are quite naturally averse, because of the uncertainty as to their composition and harmless character, but is a genuine and known compound, a full list of all its ingredients being printed, in plain English, on every bottle wrapper. An examination of this list of ingredients will disclose the fact that it is non-alcoholic in its composition, chemically pure, triple-refined glycerine taking the place of the commonly used alcohol in its make-up. In this connection it may not be out of place to state that the "Favorite Prescription" of Dr. Pierce is the only medicine put up for the cure of woman's peculiar weaknesses and ailments, and sold through druggists, all the ingredients of which have the unanimous endorsement of all the leading medical writers and teachers of all the several schools of practice, and that too as remedies for the ailments for which "Favorite Prescription" is recommended. A little book of these endorsements will be sent to any address, post-paid, and absolutely free if you request same by postal card, or letter, of Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets cure constipation. Constipation is the cause of many diseases. Cure the cause and you cure the disease. Easy to take as candy.

Queer Cholera Remedy.

At the beginning of the nineteenth century a most peculiar cholera remedy was in use in Persia. It consisted in wadding up a leaf from the Koran and forcing it down the patient's throat.
