GREAT TOURIST SEASON

Wednesday's Influx of Visitors Broke the Season's Record

The Fredericton Tourist Association has worked hard during the past ten years to make the wonderful attractions of the St. John river and Fredericton known to the people of the United States, and the good results being achieved must be very gratifying to the members of that organization. Those in a position to know, declare unhesitatingly that tourist travel to Fredericton this season is the greatest in the history of the city. August has been the banner month, and it is believed that the season has not yet reached its zenith.

The steamer Victoria Wednesday brought no less than one hundred and fifty American ladies and gentlemen to the city, which is easily a record for the season. It was not an organized party, therefore the hotels had made no special arrangements for their accommodation but proved equal to the occasion. About half the number returned to St. John by the evening train and some went by boat and train this Heart Relief in Half an Hour.—A lady in New York State, writing of her cure by Dr. Agnew's Cure for the Heart says: "I feel like one brought back from the dead, so great was my suffering from heart trouble and go almost miraculous my recovery through the agency of this powerful treatment. I owe my life to it."—Sold at the Central Pharmacy, A. J. Ryan.—19.
