

SEASONABLE SPORTS.

A Peep Into the World of Base Ball, Racing, of Bowling and Athletic Sports Generally.

BASE BALL.

BASEBALL IN DETROIT.

Says the Detroit Journal: Judge Connolly is in a sad state of mind. "I'm in trouble," declares the portly occupant of the associate recorder's chair. "How can I hold court and read all the baseball news at the same time? I've tried getting up at 5 o'clock in the morning, but even that doesn't give me enough time. I don't know what I'll do when the team gets back home. I guess I'll have to adjourn court for the Philadelphia series."

The Judge and Mayor Thompson are the most loyal fans and the executive can almost forget the street car question in hoping to win the pennant. Saturday afternoon the two, with Assistant Corporation Counsel Hally, were closeted in the private office of the Mayor. The scribes around the building saw them with their heads together and immediately scented a big street car story. Finally the Mayor came out. He was surrounded at once. Then he gave the typewriter pounders the boot. "We were just talking about the baseball team," he announced, "and the Judge suggests that I send a telegram of congratulations to Hughie Jennings." Then he called Stenographer Hodgeman and dictated his best wishes to the red-haired leader of the Tiger crew.

TENNIS

MATTERS AT NEWPORT.

Premier Honors of the Year Now Being Contested For.

Newport, R.I., Aug. 19.—This week marks the height of the tennis season and the scramble for the premier honors of the year. One hundred and fifteen racket wielders, stars of the different sections of the country, have sent in their entries, with $3, to enable them to make a bid in the all-comers tourney of the United States Lawn Tennis Association. Last year there were 117 entries, which was a record for the Newport tourney.

No tournament except those which have had foreign entries have been so promising of rare sport as this year's. The great uncertainty as to the final outcome of the struggle has aroused interest, not alone in tennis circles, but in the base Newport gatherings. With the exception of Harold H. Hackett and Frederick B. Alexander of the Crescent Athletic Club, who on Saturday won the doubles championship, every prominent player of note in the country is entered. It is to be regretted that Alexander is among the missing, for there are some who think that the Crescent man is the fastest player in the country today. He is a victim of hard luck, however, almost invariably, and he has recently announced that he will compete in no more tourneys except to possibly defend in the doubles title next year. He may be persuaded to change his mind, but he will not be at Newport this week.

From the Brooklyn standpoint, the event could not be improved upon, for there are six strong entrants from the City of Churches. The Crescent Athletic Club has three and the Kings County Tennis Club three, and both trios are well worthy of consideration.

THE TURF.

SONOMA GIRL SOLD.

Trotting Sensation of the Year Brings $30,000.

Readville, Mass., Aug. 19.—The announcement made today of the sale of Sonoma Girl, the sensation of the year in trotting circles, by J. A. Springer to Lotta and J. A. Crabtree of this city, enhanced the interest in the Grand Circuit races, which began today at the Readville track. The price paid for the star trotter was about $30,000.

The meeting at Readville this week is expected to be one of the best since the Grand Circuit was extended to include the Readville track, the entries generally being of the best caliber, although fewer in number than in former years for that reason.

Today's card includes a race for 3-year-old racers, for a purse of $2,000; the Blue Hill contest for trotters eligible to the 2.10 class, for a purse of $4,000, in which Sonoma Girl is entered; a paced race in the 2.10 class, for a $1,200 purse; and the Neponset, for a purse of $3,000, for pacers eligible to the 2.06 class. TROTTERS BURNED TO DEATH.

Massillon, O., Aug. 19.—William Bantz's livery and boarding stables and two residences were destroyed by fire early today. Lawrence Lyne, a hostler, was burned to death and sixty-two horses, including two race horses, were destroyed. The aggregate loss will be about $100,000, partly insured.

The racing horses burned were Effie K. and Atwood, with records of 2.12. They were owned by F. W. Arnold of Massillon. Among the property destroyed were funeral cars, coaches, etc. Thirty-two horses were rescued from the burning building before they were reached by the flames.

ONCE A RESIDENT IN INDIANA;
NOW A BELTED KNIGHT IN ENGLAND

OXFORD, ENG., Aug. 21.—Sir Robert Buckell, one of the new knights in the King's birthday honors list, and for thirty years or more the leader of the liberal party in Oxfordshire, has received his honor or much related because for several years he was a resident of America. The Conservatives have always tried to prove he was an American citizen.

As a young fellow he went out to Indiana and settled in Terre Haute, where he learned many practical things in American politics, imbibed a tremendous amount of American energy and initiative, made a fortune and made fair to eclipse the Hon. Daniel W. Voorhees in oratorical power and political leadership.

Family affairs made necessary his permanent return to Oxford in the height of his Indiana success. He had declined an Indiana nomination for Congress.

HE WAKED OXFORD UP.

Oxford soon learned that there was a new power in its midst, a slender fellow with mild blue eyes and charming manner, who could pack the halls throughout the country every night in the week and sway his audiences completely from laughter to tears; who could win votes by the thousands and work twenty hours a day if necessary. The Conservatives scoffed, the old leaders among the Liberals were haughty, but young Buckell kept on speaking by night, and working by day and telling the funny stories for which he has always been famous.

In a few years the old politicians were only too glad to follow his leadership and acknowledge the worth of his American ideas. He was elected successively to all the offices of the city and offered the nomination to parliament several times. This last he has always declined, as his life work has been the civic improvement of Oxford.

He has been Mayor four times and during each term has given the city an unusually brilliant social regime. It is said spent $50,000 during his term when the new municipal buildings at Oxford were opened, which he had secured for the city after many years of hard fighting.

NEVER AN AMERICAN CITIZEN.

King Edward, then the Prince of Wales, was his guest at this time, and when Lord Salisbury, then Prime Minister, refused to give Mr. Buckell a knighthood the King sent a personal message to Lord Salisbury expressing his disapproval. The Conservatives had several times sent a man out to Indiana to prove that Buckell was an American citizen, so determined were they to kill him politically. They could prove that he had taken out papers but could never prove that he had returned there. That was an oversight on his part at that time, so he says, as he fully expected to remain in America, but it was certainly a lucky one.

The old University of Oxford gave Mr. Buckell an honorary degree for civic honors, the first degree of the kind ever granted by the ancient institution. It was a slap in the face to Lord Salisbury, as he was then Chancellor of the University. But Oxford was determined to give Buckell his just dues, and now that the Liberal party has finally been able to give him his knighthood the whole town is rejoicing.

A FRIEND OF BRIGHT AND GLADSTONE.

Sir Robert was a protégé of John Bright, and during the American Civil War he was one of the few staunch friends of the North in England, touring the whole country with Mr. Bright to speak in behalf of the North. He was an intimate friend of Mr. Gladstone and of Sir William Harcourt, and as probably the best authority in England today on civic affairs he has a strong influence among the younger leaders of his party.

He spent several months in America some years ago studying civic reform, going from New York to San Francisco.

He has been for years the Oxford member of the Thames Conservancy Board in London, and is interested in many practical charities in London and Oxford. He has a charming place on Heddington Hill, just out of Oxford, and is much sought after in society.

MCNALLY FREE

No Evidence to Sustain Charge Against Hartland's Alleged Firebug

HARTLAND, N. B., Aug. 21.—The preliminary inquiry into the case of Lorne McNally was completed yesterday afternoon before Justices Barnett and Everett. H. L. Hayward appeared for the prosecution, and T. C. L. Ketchum for the defense.

Frank Aiton testified that on the Sunday night before the fire he saw McNally on the bridge at a much later hour than that stated in McNally's evidence. John Thomas deposed to a conversation between him and McNally, in which McNally said that the man who set the fire was out of the country, and that his (McNally's) story would be a great surprise.

After addresses by counsel, the justices announced that in their opinion there was not sufficient evidence to put the accused upon his trial, and after some fatherly advice by Justice Everett, he was sent forth into the world a free man.

When a horse picks up a nail in his foot what does the driver do? Does he whip the limping, lagging animal and force him along? Not unless he wants to ruin the horse. At the first sign of lameness he jumps down, examines the foot and carefully removes the cause of the lameness. What is called "weak stomach" is like the lameness of the horse, only to be cured by removing the cause of the trouble. If you stimulate the stomach with "whisker medicines" you keep it going, but every day the condition is growing worse. A few doses sometimes of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery will put the disordered stomach and its allied organs of digestion and nutrition in perfect condition. Ninety-eight times in every hundred "Golden Medical Discovery" will cure the worst ailments originating in diseases of the stomach.

Always helps. It almost always cures. To cure constipation use Dr. Pierce's Pleasant Pellets. They're sure.

A minister, having given out his "notices," was about to read his hymn, when he was reminded of one he had forgotten. Stopping he made this announcement, apologizing for his forgetfulness. Then, much to the amusement of his audience, he began to read out the hymn as follows: "Lord, what a thoughtless wretch am I!"

A Bold Step.

To overcome the well-grounded and reasonable objections of the more intelligent to the use of secret, medicinal compounds, Dr. R. V. Pierce, of Buffalo, N. Y., some time ago, decided to make a bold departure from the usual course pursued by the makers of put-up medicines for domestic use, and so has published broadcast and openly to the whole world, a full and complete list of all the ingredients entering into the composition of his widely celebrated medicines. Thus he has taken his numerous patrons and patients into his full confidence. Thus too he has removed his medicines from among secret nostrums of doubtful merits, and made them Remedies of Known Composition.

By this bold step Dr. Pierce has shown that his formulas are of such excellence that he is not afraid to subject them to the strictest scrutiny. Not only does the wrapper of every bottle of Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery, the famous medicine for weak stomach, torpid liver or biliousness and all catarrhal diseases wherever located, have printed upon it in English, a full and complete list of all the ingredients composing it, but a small book has been compiled from numerous standard medical works, of all the different schools of practice, containing very numerous extracts from the writings of leading practitioners of medicine, endorsing in the strongest possible terms, each and every ingredient contained in Dr. Pierce's medicines. One of these little books will be mailed free to any one sending address on postal card or by letter, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y., and requesting the same. From this little book it will be learned that Dr. Pierce's medicines contain no alcohol, narcotics, mineral agents or other poisonous or injurious acids, and that they are made from native medicinal roots of great value; also that some of the most valuable ingredients contained in Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription for weak, nervous, over-worked, "run-down," nervous and debilitated women, were employed long years ago, by the Indians for similar ailments affecting their squaws. In fact, one of the most valuable medicinal plants entering into the composition of Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription was known to the Indians as "Square-Weed." Our knowledge of the use of not a few of our most valuable native medicinal plants was gained from the Indians. As made up by improved and exact processes, the "Favorite Prescription" is a most efficient remedy for regulating the woman's functions, correcting displacements, as prolapsus, anteversion and retroversion, overcoming painful periods, toning up the nerves and bringing about a perfect state of health. Sold by all dealers in medicines.
