

KIPLING AT TORONTO

Celebrated Author Made Effective Address

Dealing Eloquently with Imperial Topics in which Canada Has a Live Interest.

Mr. Kipling, who was received by the Toronto Canadian Club with unrestrained enthusiasm, the audience singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow," and cheering lustily, said: "Mr. President and members of the Canadian Club.—Is this quite fair? It seems to me very unjust, most wrong that the thousands of men who have fought and toiled and died for our empire have passed for the most part without human knowledge, while a man who has merely sought the popular ear by trying to describe some of their thoughts and ideas should receive such a welcome as this. Well, the reward is not to the man himself. You have done him a great, a very great, honor, one which I make bold to hope is not so much to the author whose name I bear as to the ideas that I have been fortunate enough to reflect.

IDEA OF THE EMPIRE

"Now, the idea of our empire as a community of men of allied race and identical aims, united in comradeship, comprehension and sympathy, is no new thing. It grew up in the hearts of all our people with their national growth as the people in the empire grow to the stature of distinct nations. No one can say where it was born, but we all know the one man who in our time gave present life to that grand conception. Our children will tell their sons of the statesmen who in the evening of his days, crowned with years of honor, beheld what our empire might be made, who stepped aside from the sheep tracks of little politicians, who put from him ease, comfort, friendship, and lost never health itself that he might inspire and lead a young generation to follow him along the new path. We ourselves are too near the man, and his work to understand the full significance of Joseph Chamberlain. It is the high tradition of our land that in moments of need a man shall not be wanting to do and dare, and if need be to die, for his people. It is the custom of our land to accept that sacrifice as a matter of course, always without thanks, often with ungenerous criticism.

TRADITION OF SACRIFICE.

"But the custom has not weakened the tradition, for in all walks of life in every quarter of the empire you will find today men content, more than content, eager to endure any hardship, any misunderstanding, for aims that are not even remotely theirs, for objects in which they have no specific interest except the honor and integrity and advancement of their village, their town, their state, their province or their country. Now, the history of Canada, of all our record of just that spirit, the story of just those men, the pioneers who rode out in advance of the community, and who broke the trails for their brothers' use. And we are so new even now that in every quarter of the empire today you can see those pioneers putting forth in their quests. Behind them lie little towns, collections of shacks or tin-roofed houses, where they buy their trading outfit and their trading goods, just such little towns as your superb Toronto once was. The men you know, the men who live in them, will tell you seriously that in a few years they will be second Torontos, second Johannesburgs, second Wellingtons, second Melbourne, as the case may be, and we laugh, knowing how miracles are wrought in our own behalf. We cannot conceive that they will be wrought for anyone else.

FRUITS OF THE PIONEER.

"But we do not laugh a few years later when one of those lonely pioneers rides up to us, the mayor of his city—no mean city—well on his way to be a millionaire. We laugh still less when his city writes to our dearest hated rival and wishes to know how soon he can deliver a million and a three-quarters city water mains, with pipes and sewers, as per specification appended. Then we mourn. Then we grieve. Then we say to ourselves, if we had only known, had only guessed that that dear little jumping-off place to nowhere was going to be what it is we would have paid it some attention, we would have had more faith in it, and then we would be sharing the contract. But we have only to meet another man, and we go straight

IT DOES CURE WOMANLY ILLS.

"I feel it my duty," writes Mrs. S. Mead of Fraserville, Ont., "to let you know that sometimes previous to the change of life I suffered more than I could tell. Neighbors told me Ferrozone was the only remedy and their advice was good. Ferrozone put a stop to my pain and sickness, had a direct action on my troubles and relieved from the start. I safely passed the turn, and now enjoy perfect health and rest. No womanly medicine can be better than Ferrozone for female weakness of every kind, 50c. per box at all dealers.

KILLED SIX BABIES.

Terrible Crime of a Bavaria Nurse Girl.
NEW YORK, Oct. 22.—The Nurse has received the following cable despatch from Munich, Bavaria.—"Ida Schell, a nurse girl, fourteen years old, was arrested today, charged with murdering six small children by driving hairpins through the tops of their heads.

The girl confessed, the police say, that she "could not bear to hear the children cry," and so, pitifully, ended their suffering. Then she took another situation, and if the children there cried she was equally merciful.
Her arrest was delayed by the difficulty in proving medically the cause of death of each victim. When the sequence of deaths was established her arrest was inevitable.

CHILDREN PLAYING STORE

"But I am sure, gentlemen, that if you as business men send out or investigate for yourselves, you will find in those countries that I have named the promise of markets worthy of your serious attention. Were I a business man I could show you that as regards our mutual trade we are no more than children playing store on the threshold of our real markets. I can put my hand on the map and point to certain countries that I know, and I can show you how the natural resources of such and such areas must create vast and stable industries, rearing up a power on a larger scale than the world has yet witnessed. And the plant for all that power has to be imported from somewhere. I could prove to you how the junction of certain railways and the conditions of certain portions must result in large commercial centres, clamorous for all the luxuries of the world, how the inevitable growth of population must make a sub-continent of peasant and luxurious homes in all their varied nature.

A FIELD FOR ENTERPRISE.

"I can show you the site of a chain of cities in the future fed by thousands and thousands of mills, and the plant, for the whole of that development has to be imported from somewhere. But I can show you, moreover, in those countries that I have named the same superb faith in the future, the same audacious handling of time, space and material, the same humorous, fearless outlook on problems that would make older communities turn grey with hysterics; the same joyful acceptance of the apparently impossible, the same light-hearted victory over it, and, above all, the same deep delight in life and work that Canada has revealed to the world. And now could it be otherwise? The men of these lands have worked out their salvation under skies as bright and with hearts as large as yours.

FINE POINTS OF FELLOWSHIP.

"They have developed and settled, they are developing and settling vast areas with much the same machinery, moral and physical, as you use. They face the five great problems—I prefer to call them points of fellowship—education, immigration, transportation, irrigation and administration. They face them on the same lines as you do. Who, then, in the long run, can more better or understandingly supplement these needs than they? Am I looking too far forward? I think not. A young country must take long views, the same as a young man must take long views, very long views. Our four young nations—the Big Four—have a long, uphill and a triumphant road to tread. Hail you out, gentlemen, and make sure for yourselves that our roads lie together." (Loud applause.)

Woman's Kidney Troubles

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is Especially Successful in Curing This Fatal Disease.

Of all the diseases known, with which women are afflicted, chronic kidney disease is the most fatal. In fact, unless early and correct treatment is applied, the weary patient seldom survives.

Being fully aware of this, Lydia E. Pinkham, early in her career, gave exhaustive study to the subject, and in producing her great remedy for a woman's ills—Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound—was careful to see that it contained the correct combination of herbs which was sure to control that fatal disease, woman's kidney troubles. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the only one especially prepared for women, and thousands have been cured of serious kidney derangements by it. Derangements of the feminine organs quickly affect the kidneys, and when a woman has such symptoms as pain or weight in the loins, backache, bearing-down pains, scalding or burning sensations or deposits in the urine, unusual thirst, swelling of hands and feet, swelling under the eyes or sharp pains in the back running through the groin, she may infer that her kidneys are affected and should lose no time in combating the disease with Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, the woman's remedy for woman's ills.

The following letters show how marvelously successful it is.

Mrs. Samuel Frake, of Prospect Plains, N. J., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—
"I cannot thank you enough for what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. When I first wrote to you I had suffered for years with what the doctor called kidney trouble and congestion of the female organs. My back ached dreadfully all the time, and I suffered so with that bearing-down feeling I could hardly walk across the room. I did not get any better, so decided to stop doctoring with my physician and take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound and I am thankful to say it has entirely cured me. I do all my own work, have no more backache and all bad symptoms have disappeared.

"I cannot praise your medicine enough, and would advise all women suffering with kidney trouble to try it."

Mrs. J. W. Lang, of 626 Third Avenue, New York, writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I have been a great sufferer with kidney trouble. My back ached all the time and I was discouraged. I heard that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound would cure kidney disease, and I began to take it; and it has cured me when everything else had failed. I have recommended it to lots of people and they all praise it very highly."

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation.

Women suffering from kidney trouble, or any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. The present Mrs. Pinkham is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham, her assistant before her decease, and for twenty-five years since her advice has been freely given to sick women. Out of the great volume of experience which she has to draw from, it is more than likely she has the very knowledge that will help your case. Her advice is free and always helpful.
