

House Cleaning

Painting is part of it—just as much as soaping and scrubbing. There are spots that water cannot remove, and discolorations that scouring will not take away. Use the paint brush in such cases.

THE SHERWIN-WILLIAMS FAMILY PAINT

In small cans, is made to meet the thousand and one demands for a little paint about the house. It is ready to use. Dries quickly with a good gloss. Can be washed.

Other paints for special purposes that will come in handy during house cleaning time. Tell us what you want to paint. We'll tell you the paint to use.

Why We Get Indigestion.

Recently a medical man gave it as his opinion that the oven was responsible for more dyspepsia than any other household contrivance. The modern cook finds it much easier to bake than to roast. The spit dog has almost gone out of existence, and there is seldom any one in the kitchen to take its place. It follows very reasonably that any food cooked within a confined space will not be so digestible as that done before an open fire, where all gases have freedom to escape.—Country Life.

A Jolt.

"Did you tell your teacher that I helped you with your French exercise, Sidney?"
"Yes, father."
"And what did he say?"
"He said he wouldn't keep me in today, 'cos it didn't seem fair that I should suffer for your ignorance."

"Weeping Willows." "If there were more tears, there would be more marriages," said a matchmaker. "Whatever men may say, they like a woman who has not lost the ability to weep in true feminine fashion. In spite of their alleged strength, men always want some one in whom they can confide. What sympathy can they expect from a woman who knows not how to weep and regards tears as undignified? No man really likes to see a woman cry, but all men prefer a woman who can and does cry—a tender hearted creature who, although brave enough, does not try to incase herself in a kind of additional outer skin or suit of mail that renders her proof against sentiment. It is very questionable if this stoicism is good for women in any way. It is a relief to shed tears, and many a man would be glad if it were not regarded as cowardice for him to weep. It is one of nature's methods of assuaging grief."

HOUSEHOLD HINTS.

Some Interesting Information for Busy Housewives.

SOUPS.

Molligatawey Soup.—Cut up a chicken and put into a soup kettle with a small sliced onion, celery parsnip and three or four cloves. Cover it with four pints of water. Add any pieces of veal with the bones, a fennel of veal would be the best. When the pieces of chicken are nearly done take them out and trim them neatly to serve with the soup. Let the veal continue to simmer for three hours. Fry an onion, a small carrot and a stick of celery sliced in a little butter. When they are a light brown throw in a tablespoonful of flour. Stir it on the fire two or three minutes. Then add a good teaspoonful of curry powder and the chicken and veal broth. Place this on the fire to simmer the usual way for one hour. Half an hour before dinner strain the soup, skim off the fat, return it to the fire with the pieces of chicken and two or three tablespoonfuls of boiled rice. This will give time enough to cook the chicken thoroughly.

Bouillon.—Four pounds from the middle of the round, one tablespoonful salt, two pounds bone, four pepper cones, two quarts cold water, four cloves, one tablespoonful mixed herbs. Wipe and cut the meat and bones in small pieces. Add the water, heat slowly, add the seasoning and simmer five hours. Boil down to three pints and strain. Remove the fat and season, if needed. A little carrot, turnip and onion may be boiled with the meat.

Tomato Soup.—Boil together one quart of stewed tomatoes (or canned) one quart of water, one onion chopped fine, one bay leaf, two whole cloves, two whole allspice and one coffee cup of baked beans. When the mixture is boiled to a pulp strain through a fine sieve. Add to this one teaspoonful of pepper, one teaspoonful of salt, two tablespoonfuls of flour (made into a paste with cold water, about half a cup) and two teaspoonfuls of sugar. Serve with croutons. This is a nourishing and easily assimilated soup.

SALADS.

Walnut Salad.—Cut good mellow apples into bits and break walnut meats into small pieces; mix together and put a spoonful of the mixture on each individual plate, previously arranging with a garnish of lettuce; just before serving pour over each salad a small amount of French or mayonnaise dressing.

Salad Dressing Without Oil.—Three egg yolks, beaten with silver fork, one tablespoon mustard, one tablespoon sugar, one-half cup vinegar, one-half cup milk, one tablespoon butter, well mixed, and put in double boiler over hot water; add beaten egg whites and stir until it thickens, being careful not to allow it to curdle, avoid boiling of water in outer kettle by turning fire low, as it is more likely to curdle than lump. This will keep in a glass jar in refrigerator or cool place until used.

Tomato Jelly Salad.—Eight good-sized tomatoes, one sliced onion, one-half box gelatine, one-half cup of boiling water; remove skins from tomatoes, stew with the onion for ten minutes, season with pepper, and salt, put through a sieve, set upon the stove and stir in gelatine dissolved in hot water; pour into individual moulds; set on ice until wanted. Serve on lettuce with Mayonnaise dressing.

Neufchatel Salad.—Crisp white lettuce leaves are filled with minced stuffed olives, broken nut kernels and crumbs of neufchatel cheese. Serve with French dressing.

Beet Salad.—Boil six beets of uniform size until tender, remove the skin and hollow out centres to form cups. Soak these cups in vinegar for a few hours. When ready to serve place on a bed of lettuce and fill with celery, cucumber picklet and a bit of onion, cut up together. Put a spoonful of salad dressing on top of each. Delicious.

LIGHTING A ROOM.

When the drawing room, reception room or living room does not appear cozy and attractive when lighted up at night, the fault often lies with the chandelier. A room that is lighted only from a centre chandelier is apt to have a glaring, cold appearance, particularly when the room is long and narrow. Side lights are the only remedy for this, unless there are plenty of softly shaded lamps around the apartment. A high central light is rarely cozy, nor in the case of a long room does it brighten it evenly. Candle brackets on the side walls are better if there are no gas fixtures there.

It must be remembered that a room does not have to be glaringly lighted up at any time. A well distributed, soft light is better upon all occasions. Soft lights do not necessarily mean low lights, as a poorly lighted room is equally bad taste. It remains for the clever woman to arrange her lighting so that it seems to neither extreme.

My Remedy Cures All Sick Women.

Many of the woes of womanhood, says Dr. Hamilton, are due to kidney weakness.

At first the back aches. Then pains gather round the hips, and lodge right in the small of the back.

To stoop or bend seems impossible. Headaches are constant. Dizzy spells and bearing down pains seem ever present. Urinary troubles steadily increase.

Unhappy existence. No pleasure in life when the body is overloaded with poisons that the sick kidneys can't filter out.

Bright's disease is the next stage, but it can be prevented by using Dr. Hamilton's Pills of Maudsley and Butternut. They cure sick kidneys and cure them permanently.

When the kidneys work properly, pure blood is formed. This means nourishment and strength for the whole body.

Back-aches and dragging pains are forgotten. Irregularities disappear, vital energy is restored, and happy, robust health is once more established.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills for woman's ills is the slogan of thousands today.

Enormous benefits in many ways follow their use, and no woman or girl can use medicine that will do their general health more good.

For the sake of your kidneys, for the sake of your liver, for the advancement of your general well being, you can't improve on Dr. Hamilton's Pills, 25c. per box, or five for $1.00 at all dealers, in yellow boxes.
