Bowel Troubles

Liver pills, cathartics, mineral waters, often make Constipation worse. They merely irritate the bowels and force them to move—stop taking purgatives and the bowels become "tight" again.

"Fruit-a-tives" are the one certain cure for Constipation because their action is upon the liver, "Fruit-a-tives" are a liver tonic. They stimulate the secretions of bile by the liver, this bile causes the bowels to move in the natural, regular way and completely cures Constipation.

"Fruit-a-tives are fruit juices with tonics and antiseptics added. In "Fruit-a-tives" one atom of bitter replaces one atom of sweet in the fruit juices, forming a new compound which is many times more active, medicinally, than the fruit juices could possibly be. 50c. a box—$2.50 for 6 boxes. HOLYROOD'S HOLY CHAPEL.

LOGDON, Sept. 10.—The celebrated chapel royal of Holyrood Palace, which has had very great interest for visitors in Scotland, is likely to be the subject of a curious action in the Edinburgh law courts.

The late Earl of Leven, who was Lord High Commissioner of Scotland and, in that capacity, resided in Holyrood Palace, long cherished a scheme of restoring the chapel royal, and on his death it was found that he had bequeathed £40,000 to be applied to that purpose. Royal permission was requisite before the work could be undertaken, and Lord Leven directed his trustees to apply for such permission on condition that Thomas Ross, a well-known authority on mediaeval architecture, should be employed as architect to superintend the work. Queen Victoria refused her assent to anything being done in the way of repairing or restoring the chapel, but it later came to be understood that King Edward might give the necessary warrant.

The St. Andrew Society, a body which seeks to preserve Scottish monuments, has begun to move in the matter, and is taking steps to induce the trustees to carry out the provisions of Lord Leven's will. A memorial has been forwarded to Lord Balcarras and Sir John Stirling Maxwell enjoining them to approach the King on the subject, and the movement is backed up by the opinion of the leading architects and builders of Edinburgh, who regard the project as quite feasible.

ONE KILLED AND 20 HURT IN MIMIC WAR

Sham Fight Becomes a Real Battle—Fatal Results of Wild Cavalry Onslaught.

A dramatic and exciting cavalry charge, unfortunately attended by fatal results, took place during manoeuvres on the Berkshire Downs, England on Saturday, August 30.

Private Lewis of the 21st Lancers has succumbed to injuries received during the charge and twenty non-commissioned officers and men have been sent to Aldershot for hospital treatment. Several of the men were seriously hurt. A corporal-major of the Life Guards has a thigh broken, several have injured backs, and all are badly bruised. Several horses were also cut and bruised.

The disaster occurred in a curious manner. Two brigades of cavalry, under command of Gen. Byng, (Lancers Brigade) and Col. Fenwick, (Household Cavalry Brigade), had been searching for one another for three days over a range of three counties. Suddenly and simultaneously they discovered one another on Saturday morning.

Both forces, which were about 1,000 strong, were at that moment, unknown to each other, ascending Weathercock Hill from opposite sides.

The scouts of both forces met on the very crest, and galloped back in wild dismay, shouting a warning. It was too late, however, and before the brigades realized what had happened they were facing each other at a distance of a few hundred yards.

The brigades rode at each other, cheering wildly. Squadrons became separated and charged anything an everybody, until the whole plateau became alive with a melee of 2,000 battle-mad horsemen.

It was a thrilling and realistic battle scene—as like "the real thing" as has ever been seen at manoeuvres. When the rally sounded and the troops re-formed, twenty or more disabled soldiers lay on the ground.

General French and his staff had a narrow escape. They were caught between the two lines of charging horsemen and had to spur hard to gain a place of safety. As it was several of the staff officers were hustled by the galloping troopers.

The regiments which took part in the charge were the 5th, 16th and 21st Lancers, the 1st and 2nd Life Guards, and the Royal Horse Guards.

A PRETTY PLAY FROCK

The time has fortunately gone by when the utility garment was invariably as unlovely as it was useful. In children's wear, especially, fashion has made many advances, and the pretty and the practical are now combined in a way that our grandmothers never dreamed of. An example of this is the little play frock here pictured, the novel shaping of which will commend it to the tasteful mother, while its easy adjustment is another point in its favor. The skirt is attached to the sides and back of the dress under a belt, while it is joined to the straight front under the tucked plaits. It is here modelled in blue and white striped gingham, but can be developed in any pretty wash material. For the medium size 3 yards of 27-inch goods will be needed. Sizes, 2 to 7 years. The price of this pattern is 10c.

of pattern wanted. When the pattern is bust measure you need only mark 32, 34, or whatever it may be. When in waist measure, 22, 23, 26, or whatever it may be. If a skirt, give waist and length measure. When miss' or child's pattern write only the figure representing the age. It is not necessary to write "inches" or "years." Patterns cannot reach you in less than three or four days from the date of order. The price of each pattern is 10 cents in cash or postal order or stamps.

ATTACK OF DIARRHOEA CURED BY ONE DOSE OF CHAMBERLAIN'S COLIC, CHOLERA AND DIARRHOEA REMEDY.

I was so weak from an attack of diarrhoea that I could scarcely attend to my duties, when I took a dose of Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy. It cured me entirely and I had been taking other medicine for nine days without relief. I heartily recommend this remedy as being the best to my knowledge for bowel complaints.—H. G. A BUSY BISHOP

His Lordship of London had Strenuous Day at Montreal

MONTREAL, Que., Sept. 10.—The Bishop of London is putting in a busy day here. His programme began at eight o'clock this morning, with the celebration of holy communion at the church of St. James the Apostle.

At nine, the rector and wardens and clergy entertained the bishop and clergy of Montreal at breakfast. During the morning he had a drive about the city, visiting the Board of Trade and other public buildings and at ten o'clock he was the guest of the lay committee at the Mt. Royal Club. This evening he will preach at St. George's church.

GANS WON IN FIVE ROUNDS

Britt Broke His Forearm in the Fourth Round.

SAN FRANCISCO, Cal., Sept. 10.—A left swing to the body, cleverly blocked by Joe Gans, cost Jimmy Britt any chance he might have had to win the light weight championship of the world yesterday and brought to a close five rounds of fast fighting before 14,000 persons at the Recreation Park.

The deciding blow was caught by Gans on the elbow in the middle of the fourth round. It broke Britt's wrist, and then Britt went on again in the fifth round, he was helpless in both offense and defence. It was not until this round that he informed his seconds of the mishap.

"What's the use of my going on? I can't fight. I am helpless," Britt said to Tiv. Krel-ling. Captain of Police Gleason was informed at the ringside and he stopped the fight. Referee Welch gave the decision to Gans.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY ONE OF THE BEST ON THE MARKET.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by all dealers.

ENOCH ARDEN.

"Dead" Man Returns and Finds Wife Re-married.

A strange scene in a dramatic drama, recalling Tennyson's "Enoch Arden," has just been enacted at Southampton, England.

Some eight or nine years ago a ship's steward, in the service of one of the leading Atlantic lines, was married under what appeared to be the happiest auspices. But unfortunately his domestic felicity was short-lived, and the couple parted in amity.

The husband left the port with his vessel as usual, but when his ship returned to port his wife, who had had time to forgive the man of her choice went to meet him. To her surprise he was not on board, nor could any news of him be gathered.

His wife inserted an advertisement in the New York newspapers, telling her husband that she had forgiven him, and appealing to him to return home at once to his broken-hearted wife. There was no response.

Six years passed, and the disconsolate "widow," who had one child, married a widower with three children. In due course two additions were made to the family, and life had pursued its customary tenor until the other day, when the long lost man unexpectedly appeared on the scene.

When the two husbands came face to face explanations were demanded and hot words were passed. The second husband lost his temper in the heat of passion, and it is stated that he administered a sound thrashing to his rival, and then went his way.

The irate wanderer who had come to claim his wife also disappeared after this exciting adventure and the woman who had had two husbands has now been left alone once more disconsolate.
