HEREDITY IN POLITICS.

There is heredity in Canadian politics.

Men who become prominent in public affairs are often followed by their sons in the political field.

There is an instance of it in Ontario at the present time, where in West Middlesex, Duncan C. Ross, barrister, son of Hon. G. W. Ross, ex-premier of Ontario, now a senator, has been nominated by the Liberals to succeed his father in the representation of that constituency.

Young Ross is represented as being clever, and likely to achieve prominence in public life. Certainly if he is a chip off the old block he will be pretty sure to occupy a prominent position. West Middlesex is strongly Liberal, and Mr. Ross should be reasonably certain of election.

In New Brunswick many sons of their fathers who were prominent in politics have followed in the footsteps of their sires, and won distinction in the same field.

Westmorland, perhaps, furnishes as many examples as any other constituency.

The late Amand Landry was a member of the legislature, and his son, the present Judge Landry, sat in the same body and was successively Chief Commissioner of public works, provincial secretary and M. P. for Kent before ascending the Supreme court bench.

The late Hon. Daniel Hannington, who also represented Westmorland in the legislature, and was afterwards a member of the legislative council, was succeeded by his son, the present Judge Hannington, who subsequently became premier of the province. When the father was a member of the legislative council the son sat in the assembly.

Mr. J. W. Y. Smith, Moncton, and Mr. J. A. McQueen, the present Sheriff of Westmorland, are sons of former well known public men, and both have occupied seats in the legislature.

Mr. Smith's father, the late Sir Albert Smith, sat in the New Brunswick assembly for several years, became premier, afterwards was sent to parliament and was minister of marine and fisheries in the Mackenzie government at Ottawa.

Mr. Sanford Ryan, one of the present representatives of Albert in the legislature imbibed politics from his father, the late Hon. James Ryan, who sat for Albert in both the assembly and the legislative council, and for a term was president of the latter body.

The father of Hon. G. H. Flewelling, ex-M. P. and ex-M. L. of Kings Co., was a member of the legislature and surveyor general.

The grandfather of Mr. J. D. Hazen, the late Hon. John A. Beckwith, represented York for many years in the assembly, the council and the government, and for a time was provincial secretary.

Three generations of the Allen family have been prominent in the political life of York. The late Col. Allen, his son the late Sir John Allen and his sons, the late W. K. Allen and Geo. W. Allen, have all represented this constituency in the legislature, and the last named is one of the present members of that body.

Solicitor General Jones of Carleton is the son of a former M. P. for that county, the late Randolph K. Jones and the father of Hon. Geo. F. Hill preceded his son as a member of the legislature, and these instances of heredity in New Brunswick politics could be multiplied several times.

The Farris of Grand Lake, for nearly half a century have furnished politicians for Queen's Co. The late Mr. John Farris, father of the commissioner for agriculture, represented his county both in the legislature and parliament and like his son never experienced defeat, and now a son of Hon. L. P. Farris is a Liberal candidate for the British Columbia legislature in Vancouver.

In the broader field of federal politics, the Tupper's father and son were members of parliament at the same time and sat in the same government, and the Sir John A. MacDonald's son sat in the Commons and in the government for a time.

THE JUDICATURE ACT.

The New Brunswick barristers who were kicking against the judicature act and signed a petition for a special meeting of the Barristers' Society to discuss the proposal to repeal the measure, seemed to have lost their nerve and their opposition when they reached the annual gathering of the society to which consideration of the question was relegated.

The attorney general was able to show that the act at its inception had the support of the society, and nearly all the lawyers of the province, and it would be stultification to turn around and demand its repeal.

Dr. Pugsley said some amendments would be made to the act before its proclamation, and with this assurance the opposition seems to have dwindled out of sight.

It seems unnecessary at this late stage after the act has been fully discussed and passed by the legislature, approved of by nearly all the lawyers of the province and warmly commended by so able a jurist as Judge Barker to talk of repealing the measure before it has been even given a trial.

CURRENT COMMENT.

General Stroessell, the Russian commander who surrendered Port Arthur to the Japs, lost his position, and is now said to be practically a beggar, receiving alms from St. Petersburg charity.

Roland B. Molineux of New York, who escaped the electric chair after two trials for the murder of a woman, daily occupies a column or more in the big American papers, discussing the Thaw trial. His sympathies are with Thaw.

Since his retirement from the presidency of the United States, Grover Cleveland has not been much in the public view, but he now comes forward as chairman of the association of life insurance presidents, at the snug salary of $25,000.

The Toronto "Hello Girls" do not propose to submit to longer hours, and have walked out in a body, leaving the telephone system of Toronto for the moment demoralized. And they'll be harder to reason with and convince than men strikers.

A determined effort is being made in the Maine legislature to remove the seat of government from Augusta to Portland, and it is said that if the legislators were left to themselves the change would be made. One of the arguments put up against Augusta is that it has not sufficient hotel accommodation.

Mr. Foster was one of those who criticized the government on the alleged appointment of members of parliament to other positions to make way for prospective ministers in certain constituencies. Mr. Foster has evidently forgotten that he did the same thing himself when threatened with defeat in King's county. Mr. Foster cleared the way for himself in York by transplanting the late Mr. Temple to the Senate.

No public man who has ever passed away in Canada has received more favorable notice from the press of the country than the late Hon. A. G. Blair.

Of criticism there has been some, but Mr. Blair during his long public career was aggressive, always ready to meet the enemy, and no such man passes free from misinterpretation of his motives and acts. The singular unanimity of praise for his great ability, the large part he had in moulding public affairs, and his clean, personal character, will be treasured by those who mourn his death all over Canada.

BITS OF NEWS.

Dr. S. F. Wilson, a native of Kings county is dead in Montreal. Dr. Wilson practiced in St. John for some years, and about twelve years ago left for Montreal, where he enjoyed a lucrative practice. His wife was formerly Miss Keith of Havelock.

A movement is on foot to endow another chair at the Dalhousie Law School, Halifax. The sum which is sought to be raised for this purpose is $30,000. A committee will be appointed to devise a means of acquiring this amount.

A cut and dried arrangement has been made in the case of Charles McGill, late manager of the Ontario Bank, whereby he will plead guilty to a charge of making false returns to the government and get a light sentence. The charge of theft will be traversed to the next assizes and either dropped or dealt with by a nominal sentence.

Twenty-two arrests were made Thursday night at the Orpheum Theatre, in Brooklyn, as the result of a riot which broke out during the performance by the Russell Brothers of a play called the Irish Servant Girl. A number of Irishmen who resented the alleged anti-Irish tone of the play,

TUMORS CONQUERED

SERIOUS OPERATIONS AVOIDED
Unqualified Success of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the Case of Mrs. Fannie D. Fox.

One of the greatest triumphs of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is the conquering of woman's dread enemy, Tumor.

The growth of a tumor is so sly that frequently its presence is not suspected until it is far advanced.

Mrs. Fannie D. Fox

So-called "wandering pains" may come from its early stages, and the presence of danger may be made manifest by profuse monthly periods, accompanied by unusual pain, from the abdomen through the groin and thighs.

If you have mysterious pains, if there are indications of inflammation or displacement, secure Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound right away and begin its use.

Mrs. Pinkham, of Lynn, Mass., will give you her advice if you will write her about yourself. She is the daughter-in-law of Lydia E. Pinkham and for twenty-five years has been advising sick women free of charge.

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—

"I take the liberty to congratulate you on the success I have had with your wonderful medicine. Eighteen months ago my periods stopped. Shortly after I felt so badly that I submitted to a thorough examination by a physician and was told that I had a tumor and would have to undergo an operation. Soon after I read one of your advertisements and decided to give Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound a trial. After trying five bottles as directed the tumor is entirely gone. I have been examined by a physician and he says I have no signs of a tumor now. It has also brought my periods around once more, and I am entirely well."—Fannie D. Fox, 7 Chestnut Street Bradford, Pa.

began to pelt the performers with eggs, but were with some difficulty, hustled out of the theatre by the police. No one was seriously injured in the disturbance.

AMONG THE CURLERS.

All-comers Defeated Merchants in Annual Match—Marysville Rinks Here Tonight.

The annual match, Merchants vs. All-comers, which commenced Tuesday evening, and concluded last night, resulted in a win for the All-comers by 29 points.

At the close of Tuesday evening's play the Merchants led by 10 points, but this was wiped out Wednesday evening, and the All-comers had a lead of 3 points when last night's play commenced. This they increased to 29 points. A. R. Wetmore's rink was tipped by S. D. Simmons.

The skips and scores are as follows:

Three Marysville rinks will play the home club in the rink here this evening. The Fredericton rinks, with some slight changes, are the same as played at Marysville last week.

LADY CURLERS.

Moncton Transcript:—The ladies curled on Monday afternoon for a handsome brooch, presented by the president of the club, Mrs. C. D. Thompson. The skips in the first round were Mrs. F. C. Jones and Mrs. J. McD. Cooke. Mrs. Jones won and then defeated a rink skipped by Miss Nugent. In the play-off among the members of the winning rink, Mrs. C. W. Robinson won the brooch. Tea was afterwards served in the banquet hall and a large number of ladies were in attendance.

SOCIALISTS SLAY HIM.

Would-be Bank Robber Sacked and Shot in Warsaw.

Warsaw, Russian Poland, Feb. 1.—Socialists today undertook and carried out the execution of a bandit who made an unsuccessful attempt to secure $500 from the Commercial Bank of Warsaw.

The man entered the bank this afternoon and asked the director to give him $500. His request was refused, whereupon the man sat down in the waiting room and announced his intention of remaining there until he received the money. The bank officials feared to ask the police for help and therefore allowed him to stay. A Socialist member of the bank's staff, however, called up Socialist headquarters on the telephone and explained the situation.

Two men from headquarters at once came over to the bank. They approached the man in the waiting room, quickly threw a sack over his head and then blew out his brains with a revolver. The police have not interfered with the men who did the killing.

A ST. JOHN WINNER.

Fred Logan Skated Away from Everybody at Saranac Lake, N. Y.

Saranac Lake, N. Y., Feb. 1.—In the final heats of the amateur skating races here yesterday afternoon Fred Logan of St. John, racing under the colors of the Verona Lake club, defeated the crack Brooklyn skater, Morris Wood, amateur champion of the United States, in three out of four events.

Logan won the 220 yards, the 880 yards and the mile. In the three mile, a slow race, was won by Wood, with Logan in third place. Logan's time for the 220 and the 880 was fast, the former being 2-5 of a second behind Leroy Sees' national record.

In the 880 Logan was three seconds behind Johnny Neilson's world record. Wood and Logan, accompanied by seven of the other skaters, left on the night train for Montreal.
