

Events of a Day

POLICE COURT.

A resident of Tay Creek, charged with violating the Scott Act, withdrew his plea of not guilty at the police court yesterday afternoon, and was fined $50 and costs.

ENGAGEMENT.

The engagement is announced of Miss Mary Willett, daughter of Mr. George B. Willett of Moncton, to C. Lionel Hannington, barrister of Dorchester, son of Judge Hannington.

IS NOW QUALIFIED.

Mr. Charles Whittaker of Mr. C. Fred Cueston's drug store, was in St. John yesterday and successfully passed his examination as a pharmacist, and was granted the usual certificate.

BUSINESS DULL.

The amount collected for fines at the police court during the month of January was $150, all for offences against the Canada Temperance Act. Not a single arrest for drunkenness was made in the city during the month.

THE BARKER HOUSE.

Mr. T. V. Monahan, the new proprietor of the Barker House, arrived in the city last evening, with Mrs. Monahan and children, and will take over control of the property tomorrow morning. Those who enjoy Mr. Monahan's acquaintance, predict that he will conduct a first class hotel and make it a paying proposition as well.

GOVERNMENT MEETING.

The local government will meet in regular monthly session here on Tuesday and Wednesday of next week. It is understood that a decision will then be given in the sewerage case. The city authorities are confident that the decision will be in their favor, and the Sunbury people are just as confident that they will win out.

TO BE SOLD.

The administrators of the estate of the late Mr. B. A. Everett have decided to dispose of the Long's hotel property, and already have received several offers for it. Mr. P. D. McKenzie has a lease of the property for one year from the first of May next.

THE LAST SAD RITES.

Many Prominent Citizens Attend Obsequies of Late John Macpherson.

In the presence of many sorrowing relatives and friends the remains of the late Mr. John Macpherson were laid to rest in the family lot, in the rural cemetery this afternoon. The funeral took place from the residence of his son-in-law, Mr. Willard Kitchen, and the very large attendance of prominent citizens attested the esteem in which the deceased gentleman was held in the community.

An impressive funeral service was conducted at the house by Rev. Willard MacDonald, after which the body, which was enclosed in a beautiful casket, was taken to the cemetery and interred. The funeral cortege was a lengthy one and included the members of the Fredericton Society of St. Andrew, with which organization the deceased was connected, and also members of the city council.

The pall bearers were Messrs. John Palmer, J. C. Flemming, Dr. Atherton, Coles Kitchen and Angus Campbell.

Following is a list of the chief mourners:
Willard Kitchen J. S. Neill
J. F. McMurray A. Neill
William McKay W. R. Logan
John Reid, Jr. Arthur Sewell
Edward Morgans J. Stewart Neill
John Neill Dr. McMurray
George Kitchen A. B. Kitchen
Wesley Kitchen Samuel Kitchen
J. Kelly Cook Kitchen

The list of floral tributes included the following:
Wreath—Mr. and Mrs. H. G. Kitchen.
Basket of Flowers—Mr. and Mrs. Coles Kitchen.
Pillow—Mr. and Mrs. Willard Kitchen.

Wreath—Grandchildren of the deceased.
Roses—R. G. Lee.
Bouquet—Mr. and Mrs. J. F. McMurray.
Wreath and Roses—Mr. and Mrs. J. S. Neill.

Cross—St. Andrew's Society.
Wreath—Mrs. John Harvey.
The funeral arrangements were in charge of Undertaker John G. Adams.

PROVINCIAL BOARD OF HEALTH

The annual meeting of the provincial board of health was held at the residence of Mr. William F. Fowler, Regent street, last evening. Mr. J. H. Barry, K. C. presided in the absence of the chairman, Hon. James Holly, the others present being the secretary Dr. Fisher of Marysville, Dr. Steeves of Moncton, Dr. Curran of Fairville, and Dr. Sprague of Woodstock. There was some discussion on matters pertaining to the public health but the only business transacted was of a routine nature. At the conclusion of the business the members were entertained to luncheon by Secretary Fisher.

THE CITY ACCOUNT.

The finance committee of the city council is meeting this afternoon to consider the advisability of inviting the banks of the city to tender for the city account. The present rate of discount paid the People's Bank on overdrafts is five per cent, and members of the committee have the impression that this can be improved upon. As the People's Bank is shortly to be taken over by the Bank of Montreal, the committee feels that it would be no more than right to give the other banks of the city a chance to tender for the city's business.

DIED AT BOSTON.

The death occurred very suddenly at Boston on Monday of Miss Ellen Roche. The deceased lady had been out spending the evening and on returning home was seized with a weak spell and expired in a few minutes. Miss Roche was formerly a Fredericton lady, but had resided in Boston for the past number of years. She is survived by one sister Mrs. Welsh of Brockton, Mass., and two brothers Michael of Woodstock and William of this city.

SUPREME COURT.

The case of Ingraham vs. Brown was argued before the Supreme court yesterday, and judgment reserved. The case of Millmore vs. the Town of Woodstock is now being argued. J. C. Hartley is moving for a new trial or reduction of damages.

Dr. Curran of Fairville, is among the guests at the Queen.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements of People in whom our Readers are Interested.

Hon. C. N. Skinner and Dr. L. A. Curry, K. C.'s, returned to St. John by this morning's train.

Mr. Dan. Mullin, K. C., of St. John, is among the guests at the Queen.

Dr. Sprague of Woodstock, was registered at the Queen yesterday.

Mr. E. K. Connell, barrister of Woodstock, is among the guests at the Barker.

Lieut.-Col. Chinic, who has been confined to his residence for several days by a severe cold, is improving.

Dr. E. O. Steeves, ex-Mayor of Moncton, registered at the Queen last evening.

Mrs. John Russell of Newcastle arrived today on a visit to her brother Mr. R. W. McLellan.

Mr. C. A. Sampson, secretary of the school board, is confined to his home by a severe cold.

THE COLLINS CASE.

Supreme Court Will Hear Argument for New Trial Feb. 12th.

Hon. H. A. McKeown, counsel for Thomas Collins, now under sentence of death for the murder of Mary Ann McAuley, of New Ireland, Albert Co., has been granted leave to appeal to the supreme court for a new trial. Judge Gregory, the trial judge, announced from the bench this morning that he had decided to reserve a case on the points raised by Mr. McKeown, and the court decided to hear the argument on Tuesday, February 12th at ten o'clock, a. m. The principal ground on which Mr. McKeown will base his application for a new trial is that there was misdirection in the judge's charge to the jury. Hon. C. N. Skinner will argue the case for the crown.
