METHODIST DISTRICT MEETING.

A Large Amount of Important Business Transacted at Taymouth Gathering.

The ministerial session of the Fredericton district of the Methodist church convened in the church at Taymouth being presided over by the chairman of the district Rev. J. C. Berrie of Gibson J. W. Kirby Secy. A. Lucas assistant.

At the roll call the following brethren answered to their names. Rev. J. W. McConnell, Fredericton. Rev. J. J. Colter, Fredericton. Rev. W. B. Thomas, Marysville. Rev. J. C. Berrie, Gibson. Rev. E. Ramsay, Nashwaak. Rev. J. A. Inches, Stanley. Rev. J. K. King, Boiestown. Rev. A. Lucas, Keswick. Rev. W. R. Pepper, Sheffield. Rev. A. C. Bell, Grand Lake. Rev. W. J. Kirby, Gagetown. Rev. J. J. Teasdale was excused and Rev. W. W. Brewer and Rev. G. B. Payson were excused on account of sickness.

Rev. J. J. Teasdale, Rev. G. B. Payson and Rev. J. J. Colter were recommended to be continued in the supernumerary relationship. It was on motion resolved that on account of ill health and inability to do the full work of the ministry Rev. Mr. Brewer be therefore recommended to a Supernumerary relationship for one year.

After due consideration of the questions it was on motion resolved:—That whereas Paragraph 408 Sub-section 3, arrangements are made for the appointment of a vestry committee for the circuits and mission to consider the whole arrangements and conditions of such circuits and missions, this district request the conference to appoint such committee for a thorough enquiry into the conditions of this district with the view of so arranging the work that the mission may be more effectively worked.

After considering this question it was suggested that the duties of members regarding the attendance upon the Lord's supper, and other matters be brought more emphatically before the whole church at some gathering of the membership. It was further suggested that it would be a very useful thing if certain paragraphs from the discipline touching the duties of the members were printed and circulated amongst our membership. And further that by attending the public and Sunday schools our ministers get more closely in touch with our young people.

Carried. The full district met at 2.30 p. m. There were present in addition to the clergy Asa Burpee, J. E. McNabb, Charles A. Sampson, Howard Rogers.

After devotional exercises J. W. Kirby was elected secretary. Revs. J. W. McConnell, Payson, excused, Teasdale, Colter, laymen: C. A.

At the close of the sermon an evangelistic service was conducted by Rev. Mr. Kirby and it proved to be a most enjoyable service. Outside of the clergymen, many of the residents of the village of Taymouth took part in the exercises.
