OUR NEW CIVIL COURT.

Full Text of Bill Introduced by Attorney General Pugsley.

The following is the full text of the Fredericton civil court bill introduced in the legislature on Thursday by Attorney General Pugsley:

Be it enacted by the lieutenant governor and legislative assembly as follows:—

1.—Sections five, six and seven of chapter fifty-five of the consolidated statutes are hereby repealed and the following substituted in the place thereof:—

"5.—The fees to be taxed and taken by the said police magistrate or sitting magistrate, and any constable, witness or juror in such civil actions, shall be according to the scale of fees in Part VI of the Consolidated Statutes, 1903, and the provisions of said Part VI shall govern the taxation of costs in said court, and the same right of review shall be had and allowed in all civil suits tried in said court, as is provided in and by Chapter 122 of said Consolidated Statutes, 1903."

2.—All fees payable under the last section to the police magistrate shall be paid to the treasurer of the city of Fredericton, for the uses of the said city; and the said police magistrate is hereby authorized to collect the same due on any judgments heretofore obtained in the said "The small debt court of Fredericton," and remaining unsatisfied.

3.—The city council may appoint a clerk of the said court whose duty it shall be to assist the police magistrate in taking the evidence and other clerical work of the said court who shall be paid a salary by the said city to be fixed by the city council, but not to be less than four hundred dollars per annum.

4.—The small debt court of Fredericton is hereby abolished and chapter 56 of the Consolidated Statutes is hereby repealed, but the police magistrate or sitting magistrate of the "city of Fredericton civil court" is hereby authorized to issue execution and collect the monies due on any judgments heretofore obtained in the said "The small debt court of Fredericton," and remaining unsatisfied.

5.—No stipendiary or police magistrate, parish court commissioner, or justice of the peace, other than those who at the time of the passing of this act have a right to hold court in the said city, shall hold any civil court or try any civil cause within the said city of Fredericton in any matter over which the "City of Fredericton Civil Court" has jurisdiction.

6.—The evidence in any cause tried, or hearing had, in the said court may be taken in shorthand by the said clerk, and transcribed for the use of the court and suitors when required; and the said clerk before taking such evidence in shorthand shall take an oath to the effect of the oath taken by stenographers of the supreme court under section 7 of Chapter 117 of the Consolidated Statutes, 1903, and the police magistrate of said court is hereby authorized to administer said oath; and the transcript of the evidence so taken by the said clerk, shall in all matters heard or tried before the said police magistrate or sitting magistrate, be for all purposes of the same effect and sufficiency as if taken down in handwriting.

RECEIVED SAD NEWS.

J. B. Cudlip's Brother Died Suddenly in the Yukon.

St. John, March 16.—(Special)—A despatch was received by John B. Cudlip, manager of the Cornwall and York Cotton Mills, announcing the sudden death of his brother, Sergeant Albert J. Cudlip, of the Northwest Mounted Police, which occurred this morning at Forty Mile, Yukon Territory. No particulars as to the cause of death have been received.

Mr. Cudlip was born in this city forty-three years ago. He attended the local schools and later took a course at Mt. Allison after which, in 1885, he left St. John and joined the Mounted Police.

BOOTH AT MONTREAL.

Montreal, March 16.—(Special)—General Booth, head of the Salvation Army, arrived in this city today from Toronto.

He is booked to address three large meetings tomorrow morning, the most important of which will be held in His Majesty's theatre.

On Monday he will address members of the Board of Trade on social subjects.

VERDICT FOR $1965.

Thomas Crockett Wins Suit Against
St. John River Lumber Co.

Judge McLeod presided at the Madawaska circuit court, which opened at Edmundston on Tuesday. The most important case on the docket was that of Thomas Crockett, vs. the St. John River Lumber Company. The plaintiff resides at River du Loup, Quebec, and carries on extensive lumbering operations on Little Black River. The St. John River Lumber Company operates on the same stream and last season owing to the breaking of a boom, their logs became mixed with Crockett's. An agreement was made to divide the logs equally, but Crockett claims that he did not get his share, hence the suit. The jury after hearing the evidence, returned a verdict for the plaintiff for $1965, the full amount of his claim. John M. Stevens, K. C., for the plaintiff H. A. Powell, K. C., for defendant.

DOWIE'S CURSES.

Sermon---a Remarkable Document.

Chicago, March 15—Six weeks before he died John Alexander Dowie, founder of Zion City, and first apostle of the Christian Catholic church, prepared his own funeral sermon. Yesterday he was buried at Mount Hope cemetery, Zion City, but his last message was not read to his followers. Leaders of the religious community founded by Dowie decided that the sermon would still further strange the factions into which the believers in Dowieism are divided. The watchword of the faith is "Festive be with thee" and Dowie's message from the grave was not of a character to make this salutation general. In place of the posthumous sermon, Judge Barnes, a life-long friend of Dowie and an over-er of the church, preached a simple sermon in which he extolled the dead man.

Although the sermon prepared by Dowie was not used in the funeral rites, it was given out for publication. The document makes it plain that Dowie did not forgive his enemies who ousted him from control, as he before he died, as he lashes those "dogs of hell," saying: "I shall return, and with ruthless hand shall I exterminate the vipers and the dogs of hell that now hold the high places in the city of Zion. They dreamed and in the grossness of their dreams they thought they had prevailed over the first apostle. And now, priests and elders of Zion, shall return to strike ye down. I shall return in another form, brighter and more beautiful and ten thousand times more terrible, to cut ye off in the midst of your sins, and to win back Zion for the truth and for them that held to the word and did no evil."

There was a small stir in the city during the funeral ceremonies because of the announcement that another of Dowie's followers was dying. In the past week three of his lieutenants, who held similar positions under Dowie, have died suddenly and when it was said that a fourth was likely to die before morning, several of the mourners ran from the tabernacle, shouting that Zion was accursed by God. This excited the rest of the 3,000 mourners, and before the order headed leaders could get among the people to counsel quietness, fully 500 had left the building.
