

Events of a Day

TRIBUTE OF RESPECT.

The flag on the Parliament Building is flying at half mast today out of respect to the memory of Lady Grenfell, daughter of the governor general, whose death took place at Ottawa on Sunday last.

OFFERED THEIR SERVICES.

The 71st Regiment Band have offered their services free to the Daughters of the Empire for the concert to be held by that organization at the close of the present month in aid of the Victoria Monument Fund.

ESTATE PROBATED.

The will of the late Mrs. Peter Thompson has been admitted to probate. The estate is valued at $800. Miss Annie Cunliff is administrator. A. J. Gregory, K. C., is proctor for the estate.

ST. MARY'S RECTORSHIP.

It has been announced that the appointment to the rectorship of the Anglican church at St. Mary's, made vacant by the resignation of Rev. Dr. Duffy, some months ago will be filled in a few weeks. The time having elapsed some time ago for the parishioners to make the appointment and no person having been agreed upon the matter now lies in the hands of the bishop.

STEAMBOAT COMPANY MEETING.

The annual meeting of the stockholders of the Fredericton and Woodstock Steamboat Company was held at the office of Mr. J. H. Barry, K. C., this afternoon. The directors chosen for the ensuing year were Messrs. J. S. Neill, J. Johnson, Robert Scott, David Munroe, and M. B. McNally. Mr. Neill was elected president and Mr. Barry secretary treasurer. No other business was transacted. The indications are that their will be no steamboat on the Fredericton-Woodstock route next season, the Aberdeen having lately changed hands.

Hon. A. S. White and Mr. S. H. White of Sussex, came here last night and are at the Queen Hotel.

Mr. F. A. Hackett, manager of the N. B. Telephone Company, St. John, is registered at the Queen Hotel.

Mr. P. J. Venoit, collector of customs, and Mr. John P. Legere, both of Bathurst, are guests at the Queen.

A NEW PRESIDENT.

Dr. Stockton, M. P., is now Head of N. B. Telephone Company.

An important meeting of the directors of the New Brunswick Telephone Company called to fill vacancies on the board was held at the head office here this morning.

Dr. A. A. Stockton, M. P. of St. John, who has long been a director, was elected president in succession to the late Hon. A. G. Blair. Mr. W. T. Whitehead, M. P. P. of this city, was elected vice president in room of Mr. J. L. Black, resigned. The vacancy on the board of directors, caused by the death of Hon. A. G. Blair, was filled by the appointment of Mr. J. D. Hazen, M. P. P., and Mr. Charles Fawcett, jr., of Sackville, was chosen a director to succeed his father, Mr. Charles Fawcett, sr., resigned.

The board of directors as completed, is as follows: Dr. A. A. Stockton, Senator Thompson, W. T. Whitehead, M. P. P.; F. B. Black, C. F. Sise, J. D. Hazen, M. P. P.; and Charles Fawcett, jr. President Estabrooks and several directors of the Central Telephone Company, are in the city and negotiations for the completion of the merger will immediately be resumed.

ORANGEMEN MEET.

York County Lodge Elects Officers for the Ensuing Year.

The annual meeting of the York County Orange Lodge was held in this city last evening and was well attended. County Master John H. Beattie occupied the chair.

Messrs. Guthrie, Langille and Allen were appointed a finance committee, and, after examining the treasurer's books, reported the accounts as correct and satisfactory.

Reports were also submitted by the suspension and credential committees.

It was unanimously resolved that the York county Orangemen celebrate the 12th of July by having a grand excursion to Covered Bridge where the Nashwaak lodges are to arrange a picnic for that day.

The chair was then taken by Grandmaster Harry F. McLeod who installed the following officers assisted by Past County Master John Oldham.

W. C. Master—John H. Beattie, re-elected.

D. C. M.—Alfred E. Brewer.

Chaplain—Angus McLaggan.

Secretary—Percy A. Guthrie.

Fin. Sec.—Nathaniel Jones.

Treasurer—John McNabb.

D. of C.—H. G. Veness.

Lecturer—N. J. Smith.

Deputy Lecturers—A. Lindsay and Percy Beattie.

C. Tyler—Howard Segee.

I. Tyler—Charles Blakney.

It was resolved that the next quarterly meeting be held at Durham Bridge with Pitts Lodge No. 71.

SOCIAL AND HIGH TEA.

Pleasant Function at Church Hall, St. Mary's.

The parish tea and social held at the church of England last evening, last evening was a grand success. Despite the inclement weather a goodly number turned out and spent a pleasant evening.

Supper was served during the evening by members of the Women's Auxiliary of the church.

After the tables had been cleared away an interesting program of music was carried out. This program included solos by Miss Edna Belyea, and by Messrs. T. B. Kidner and Sydney Smith. Violin solo by Miss Barker, and Miss Julia Pugh; also part songs by the choir.

In addition to the above program an interesting Parisian peep show proved very alluring to those present. Misses Sherman and Covehill were in charge of this feature of the evening's entertainment.

Mrs. Wm. Jeffreys had charge of the candy and ice cream booth which was a success in every particular.

His Lordship Bishop Richardson, who was present during the evening was warmly welcomed and his presence gave an additional interest to the proceedings. He delivered a happy address which won the hearts of all.

LOWER DURHAM.

Feb. 2.—We are having very fine weather and roads here now. Mr. E. H. Clarkson was in this place one day last week taking orders for picture framing.

Mr. Fred McGowan, crown land surveyor, was here on business on February 1st.

Messrs. H. and L. Elford are busy cutting lath wood for Mr. Emery Sewell.

Mr. Norman Hanson passed through this place hiring men on the 29th.

Mrs. George Chase and daughter, Naomi Ann, were visiting her daughter, Mrs. Miles Saunders of Pennic, on the 30th and 31st of January.

Our genial storekeeper is now able to get around again.

Miss Eva Pond, who has been visiting in this place, returned home the 1st of February.

There is a lot of sickness in this place at present. Mr. A. Abernethy is busy hauling his logs into the Nashwaak.

Mr. E. Ramsay was in this place on January 29th.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Mr. T. H. Estabrooks and Mr. J. M. Scovil, of St. John, are among the arrivals at the Queen Hotel.

Dr. A. A. Stockton, M. P. of St. John, is among the guests at the Bark House.

Premier Tweedie, Attorney General Pugsley and Hon. C. H. LaBilloy are registered at the Queen.

Hon. L. P. Farris is a guest at the Queen.

GOVERNMENT BUSINESS.

Discussion in Sewerage Case Will Likely be Given Out Tomorrow.

Hon. Messrs. Tweedie, Pugsley, LaBilloy, Farris, Sweeney and Jones of the local government, arrived here by last evening's train and are at the Queen. A meeting was held last evening, at which Messrs. John P. Legere, president of the Bathurst Electric and Water Power Company, and P. J. Venoit, secretary of the Company, were heard in regard to a complaint that their organization is interfering with private rights. They were given a further hearing this morning, and the government promised consideration of the matter.

It is understood that Mr. Currie, the new M. P. P. for Restigouche, will either move or second the address in reply to the speech from the throne at the opening of the legislature.

Premier Tweedie stated at noon that the government's decision in the Fredericton sewerage case, will likely be made public tomorrow.

A meeting of the board of education is being held this afternoon.

PLAYED A DRAW.

Fredericton Curlers Tied with St. Andrew's at St. John Yesterday.

The curling between St. Andrew's and Fredericton at St. John, yesterday, resulted in a tie. The game was a considerable excitement. Until the last stone was curled the issue was in doubt, as with ne end to play St. Andrew's led by two points. Amos Wilson, of Fredericton, and C. S. E. Robinson, of the St. Andrew's were the skips on whom the issue depended. When the Fredericton skip curled the last stone a beautiful draw to the tee he tied the score.

During the match a notable score was made on the seventeenth end by Skip Frank White who made seven out of a possible eight.

At the close, the players sat down to an appetizing lunch in the club's rooms. The following is the score:

The Fredericton curlers will leave this morning for Moncton.

A number of the Fredericton curlers returned home by this morning's train and three rinks have gone to Moncton where they will play this afternoon.

Talking to a Herald representative, a curler stated that the match with the St. Andrew's club at St. John last night had a most exciting finish. Skip Wilson had the last stone to play and needed a score of two to tie and three to win. He made a beautiful shot, tying the score, and was given an ovation by his brother curlers.

Housekeepers and ladies generally will remember the big remnant sale and silk sale at Edgcombe's tomorrow. The sale commences at 9.30 o'clock, city hall time. With good time may be expected.—d.

Augustus Thomas, the well known playwright, was talking about first nights, and the heartrending anxiety of them. "On my own first nights," he said, "I am a pitiful object, utterly without hope, convinced in advance that my play is bound to fail." "At such times I often wish I had the self confidence that possessed Charles Reade. He, after he had dramatized his novel of Never Too Late To Mend, wrote on the margin of a certain passage: "If the audience fails to weep here, the passage has not been properly acted."
