Safest Medicine for Women's Complaints

Women certainly do neglect themselves. They work too hard—over-tax their strength—and then wonder why they suffer with diseases peculiar to their sex. Most cases of female trouble start when the bowels become inactive—the kidneys strained—and the skin not cared for. Poisons, which should leave the system by these organs, are taken up by the blood and inflame the delicate female organs.

Fruit-a-tives

OR (FRUIT LIVER TABLETS.) remove the CAUSE of these diseases. "Fruit-a-tives" sweeten the stomach—make the bowels move regularly every day—strengthen the kidneys—improve the action of the skin—and thus purify the blood. "Fruit-a-tives" take away those distressing headaches, backaches and bearing-down pains, and make women well and strong. "Fruit-a-tives" are fruit juices, intensified, with tonic and antiseptic added, and are sold for 50¢. At all druggists—or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa.

NEW SKATING RECORD.

New York, Feb. 26.—Morris Wood, the amateur champion, established a new world's record and won every event in the international match skating races last night at the Saratoga Rink in Brooklyn. Competing against a field of the fastest skaters in this country and Canada, including Edmund Lamy, who won two indoor championships in Pittsburgh last week, and Fred Logan of St. John, N. B., who won several championships at Saratoga Lake early this winter, Woods skated half mile in 1:16 4/5, lowering the record made by John Nillison in 1896 by 3 2/5 seconds.

BY MOTOR CAR TO THE SOUTH POLE.

British Expedition to Start in October.

London Daily Mail.—For the conquest of the Polar regions the motor-car is the newest device. It is to be employed in a new British South Polar Expedition, which will leave this country in October next, under the command of its organizer, Mr. E. H. Shackleton, who was third lieutenant on the Discovery in Captain Scott's "Furtherest South" Expedition.

The expedition will proceed to New Zealand, and thence will go down to the winter quarters of the Discovery in lat. 77.50 S. After landing a shore party of explorers, the ship will proceed back to Lyttelton, New Zealand, thus avoiding the risk of being frozen in like the discovery, and in the following year she will return to pick up the explorers.

The main object of the explorers is to follow out the discoveries made on the southern sledge journey from the Discovery.

If funds permit, the expedition will land a party of men at Mount Melbourne, on the coast of Victoria Land, and will try to reach from that point the South Magnetic Pole.

The most novel feature of the expedition is to be the use of a motor-car. The carrying out of the necessary changes in order to make a car suitable for ice surfaces is being undertaken by the Arrol-Johnston Company, of Paisley.

Mr. Henniker Heaton, M. P. has given notice that he will ask the premier whether he will take steps to invite the premiers of Canada, Australia and New Zealand to address the commons from the Bar of the house of commons on questions affecting our relations with the colonies.

Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Sir Frederick Borden have booked passage to England on the Empress of Britain, sailing from St. John, April 5.

COUNTY COUNCIL'S PETITION.

Against Certain Legislation Proposed by Fredericton at the Present Session.

The following is self explanatory:—TO HIS HONOR, THE LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR AND LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY OF THE PROVINCE OF NEW BRUNSWICK:—

The Petition of a Committee of the County Council of the Municipality of York:—

Humbly Sheweth

1. That at the annual meeting of the County Council held in the month of January last past, your petitioners were appointed a committee to watch all legislation which might be proposed at the present session of your honorable assembly, which in any way might effect the interest of the municipality of York.

2. That the appointment of such committee was considered particularly necessary owing to statements which appeared in the public press that the city council of the city of Fredericton intended to present a bill to the legislature to amend the law now in force relating to the administration of justice in the county of York.

3. That the annual session of said county council was held at Fredericton on the 15th, 16th, & 17th of January last past, but no communication, or intimation, was received from said city council of any proposed amendments to said act.

4. That some ten days after the said session of our county council had adjourned, a copy of the bill to be submitted to your legislature by the city of Fredericton in amendment of said act, was received by the secretary-treasurer of York, and such bill has been carefully considered by your petitioners.

5. The preamble of said bill is as follows:— "Whereas the common gaol and the county court house, both situate in the city of Fredericton are held and owned both jointly, two thirds by the municipality of the county of York, and one third by the city of Fredericton."

This claim that the city of Fredericton is joint owner with our municipality of the common gaol and county court house is entirely without foundation in fact.

The whole title to and ownership of both these properties is in the municipality of York.

6. Before the date of the municipal charter, the title to, and ownership of these properties was in the general sessions of the peace for the county of York. After the municipality was established such title and ownership became vested by act of assembly, and has always remained in the municipality of York. The city of Fredericton never at any time had any ownership in, or title to said common gaol or county court house as joint owners, or otherwise.

7. The right the city has at present to use the said buildings depends upon a mutual agreement between the county and the city, which agreement was embodied in act of Assembly 21 Vic Chapter LII, (1858, page 106) entitled "An Act relating to the Administration of Justice in the county of York."

8. Under this act certain expenses in connection with the administration of justice were payable by the county and the city in proportion to population. This arrangement continued until the year 1878, when by mutual agreement a change was made, and such change was embodied in act of Assembly 42 Vic Chapter XLII, (1878 page 81). This act is now in force and is the act sought to be repealed by the said proposed bill.

By this act of 1879 the proportion of such expenses payable by the City of Fredericton was increased to one third, that payable by the County was fixed at two thirds of the total expenditure, and the class of such expenses was enlarged, and now includes expenses of which the City under the original act of 1858 paid no part.

9. Your petitioners are firmly of the opinion that as a matter of distinct right, as well as of courtesy, the City Council of the City of Fredericton should have submitted the proposed bill to our County Council before seeking to have the existing act repealed.

10. While our County Council have had no opportunity of considering the proposed bill, your petitioners well know that a strong feeling exists in said County Council that under the present act the City of Fredericton does not pay as large a proportion of the expenses of the administration of Justice as in fairness said City should pay. This feeling is evidenced by the resolution of Council appointing your petitioners a committee for the purposes aforesaid, which resolution is as follows:—

"Resolved that a committee consisting of councillors Goodspeed, Grosvenor, the Warden and Secretary-Treasurer, be appointed to watch all legislation in any way effecting the municipality which may be proposed at the approaching session of the House of Assembly. And further resolved that if any amendment to the act relating to the administration of Justice in the County of York, be proposed by the City of Fredericton, the petition of this municipal council be presented, praying, that the said act be so amended as to decrease the proportion now payable by the County."

12. Your petitioners beg leave to point out the fact that the proposed bill not only materially changes the arrangement now existing under the act of 1872, between the County and the City, but effects the acts of Assembly providing for the payment of fees payable to the Sheriff, Clerks of the Courts, Magistrates, Constables and Witnesses in connection with preliminary examinations and criminal prosecutions.

13. Your petitioners in the name of the municipal of York earnestly protest against the passing of the said bill which asks to deprive the municipality of rights in property of which they are the sole owners, without even asking the permission, or consent of the County Council.

Your petitioners therefore pray that the said bill do not pass, and that no alteration in or amendment of the present act be made until the said County Council has had an opportunity of considering the proposed changes, and as in duty bound your petitioners will ever pray.

Dated this 22nd day of February, A. D. 1907.

KING AND QUEEN OF ENGLAND

WARMLY WELCOMED IN PARIS.

Their Impromptu Visit "Incog" to the French Capital Was Greatly Enjoyed.

London, Feb. 25.—The King has never yet visited Paris without political significance being attached to the presence in the French capital. On the occasion of his recent trip, the thunders were even more extraordinary than usual, and consequently have been received with considerable skepticism.

Meanwhile King Edward and Queen Alexandra are at no pains to conceal the pleasure they have derived from their visit. To many of his friends, the "Duke of Lancaster" has expressed his great satisfaction at the deferential and unobtrusive yet wholly sympathetic reception which he and his consort have received at the hands of the Parisian population.

"Nothing could be nicer, nothing could be more discreet. The Parisians are the most courteous people in the world." His Majesty is reported to have said.

SURPRISE VISIT TO CIRQUE.

Their Majesties, travelling incognito as the Duke and Duchess of Argyll, reached the British embassy on Saturday evening. They made no fixed plans but decided to spend their time just as fancy dictated.

No sooner were Their Majesties installed at the embassy than the King despatched a messenger to the Nouveau Cirque to secure a box for the evening performance. The managers of the circus were completely taken by surprise, but hastily had three knocked into one for the royal party.

The King, in plain evening dress, and the Queen, wearing a black costume, drove up in a pair-horse landau to the circus door. By His Majesty's request there were no decorations, even the customary strip of carpet was dispensed with.

CORDIAL MEETING WITH PRESIDENT.

On Sunday Their Majesties attended service at the little embassy chapel in the Rue d'Argenson. The royal carriage passed between lines of military sightseers, who respectfully lifted their hats.

After lunch the King drove with Sir Francis Bertie to the Elysee Palace. On His Majesty's arrival the British National Anthem was played, and soldiers paid the usual military honors. The greeting between the King and President was a most cordial one. They shook hands warmly and conversed in private for twenty minutes.

As the King came out he turned towards the soldiers, saluting the colors which had been dipped before him. A very large crowd had assembled, and gave the most sympathetic demonstration, shouts of "Vive la Roi" being raised on all sides.

QUEST FOR MOTOR CAR NUMBER.

An amusing incident happened in connection with His Majesty's motor car. The royal chauffeur was arrested by the police for having no number on the car. In Great Britain His Majesty is exempted from showing identification marks on his motor cars. Of course, when the matter was explained, the royal chauffeur was at once released.

On Monday His Majesty himself noticed that his car did not bear a number as required by the Paris police regulations. Accordingly he despatched a messenger for the requisite identification plate, and delayed his departure for Versailles for two or three hours until the messenger's return.

parture for Versailles for two or three hours until the messenger's return.

Their Majesties' guests at the Hotel des Reservoirs at Versailles numbered fourteen, and the entire party afterwards visited the Palace of Versailles. The Queen was particularly interested in Marie Antoinette's apartments, and the King pointed out a number of objects of interest to Her Majesty.

HER MAJESTY SHOPPING.

The Queen devoted much time to shopping in the Rue de la Paix, trying on new dresses and hats ordered while Her Majesty was in London.

"The Queen," one modiste exclaimed "is a most gracious and unaffected lady. She puts you at your ease at once, and converses with you about the work in hand with real interest."

On Wednesday Their Majesties lunched with the President and ministry. As the royal carriage drove out of the embassy there was much waving of handkerchiefs from a number of "midnettes"—bare headed working girls from the dress making and millinery establishments—who had taken advantage of the lunch hour to come as far as the Rue du Faubourg St. Honoré to catch a glimpse of the Queen. Her Majesty smilingly acknowledged their salutes.

HERO OF POPULAR SONG.

The King is the hero of a popular song which is being sung all over Paris to the tune of "La Petite Teninoise." The following is the refrain:

Tiens, v'la Edouard d'Angletterre; Si tu voulais tins payer up v're, Mon vieux copain, ça s'rait chouette. On n'a pas beaucoup desalette, On te rendra ça, j'espere, Quand marcheront (bis) bien nos affaires. Lais's nous t' feter comme il faut! Malgre ton incognito.

"ALWAYS WELCOME."

As typical of the tone of the French Press, the "Figaro" may be quoted. That journal says: "The sovereign of the nation by which we are united by the close ties of the Entente Cordiale can come here when he pleases, without making preliminary arrangements, for he knows that he is always welcome and always at home here. Whether under the name of Edward VII. or that of the Duke of Lancaster, Paris recognizes and greets with faithful heart the true friend, whose loyalty has been proved."

NEGLECTED COLDS THREATEN LIFE.

(From the Chicago Tribune.)

"Don't trifle with a cold," is advice for prudent men and women. It may be vital in the case of a child. Proper food, good ventilation, and dry, warm clothing are the proper safeguards against colds. If they are maintained through the changeable weather of autumn, winter and spring, the chances of a surprise from ordinary colds will be slight. But the ordinary light cold will become severe if neglected, and a well established ripe cold is to the germs of diphtheria what honey is to the bee. The greatest menace to child life at this season of the year is the neglected cold. Whether it is a child or adult, the cold slight or severe, the very best treatment that can be adopted is to give Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. It is safe and sure. The great popularity and immense sale of this preparation has been attained by its remarkable cures of this ailment. A cold never results in pneumonia when it is given. For sale by all dealers.

The feet and portions of the legs a human body were found in a box in a snowbank in the backyard of a tenement house in Third avenue, New York, Saturday. The legs had been chopped off apparently with an axe. From the appearance of the feet and legs it is believed that an attempt was made to destroy them by fire before they were placed in the box and thrown where they were found. The limbs were taken to a police station, and an investigation was begun.

A HARD CASE OVERCOME.

No longer necessary to suffer from muscular rheumatism. Every case can be cured. Ferrozone is a drug as proved by David Johnson of Ormond, Ont. "My wife was a dreadful sufferer" he writes. "For two years she could scarcely do any work. Her knuckles and joints swelled, causing torture. To get up or down stairs was impossible. She took box after box of Ferrozone and rubbed the sore places with Nerviline. Improvement started and she mended fast. Today she is quite cured and we thank Ferrozone for her recovery." No remedy more popular with doctors than Ferrozone; it does cure, 50c. per box at all dealers.

A story is told of a New York car conductor who had once been in the ministry, and who retained some of his former ways of speech in his new calling. He had been at the front of the car collecting fares and when he returned to his platform a well-dressed person told him that a man had boarded the car at Houston street and had found a place inside. The conductor stepped inside the doorway and ran his mile gauge up and down the car, but could not be sure which of the passengers was the late arrival.

"Will the gentleman who got on at Houston street please rise?" he asked calmly. The gentleman rose involuntarily, and with a bow and a "thank you" the conductor collected his fare.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY A FAVORITE.

"We prefer Chamberlain's Cough Remedy to any other for our children," says Mr. L. J. Woodbury of Twining, Mich. "It has also done the work for us in hard colds and croup and we take pleasure in recommending it." For sale by all dealers.
