CURRENT COMMENT.

How would the aldermen look in nice, cool, white duck suits when the governor-general comes to Fredericton.

What discourages most the Tory machine, says the Hamilton Times, is the renewal of Sir Wilfrid's vigor. The man is actually growing younger.

Fredericton horses showed them the way at Woodstock.

If Fredericton could only cricket as well as it can trot and pace.

Dalhousie University is losing two of its prominent professors—Mr. Ernest Bydone Jack, who goes to Manitoba University, and Mr. D. A. Murray, who has been appointed to the faculty of McGill.

An Alberta politician, Hon. W. T. Finlay, Minister of Agriculture, has fallen on a nice piece of luck. A deceased relative in England left him $70,000 and he has gone there to collect his inheritance.

The report of St. John enumerators show 606 children in that city who do not attend school and are included in the school age. If the spotter rounds them all up it will take another building to accommodate the truants.

All New Brunswick Toryism turns eyes to the McKane "wad," the sign by which it seeks to conquer, and yet Tories are pretending to want clean elections. In the last election the Russell "wad" held the floor for Toryism.

The Gleaner said all the best horses of the government importation were sent to Moncton, and doubtless the Moncton Times, when the sale comes off there, will declare that the finest animals were sold at Fredericton.

The Moncton Times says that Mr. Hazen held his Port Elgin audience "spellbound" for an hour and a half, which probably means that he put them to sleep. The opposition leader is a great success as a spell binder.

Toronto News: A morning paper says that women are less particular about their food than men are. For instance, the female cannibal finds old and tough missionaries quite satisfactory.

"No graft" is one of the features inscribed upon the Telegraph's new declaration of principles. What a pity it had not reformed earlier. About the only printing bill that was questioned by the public accounts committee of the legislature last session was one from the Telegraph.

Evidently Mr. B. Frank Smith, M. P., is trying to make political capital out of the government's effort to help the potato shippers to solve the difficult problems of storage and transportation. The Tories of Carleton try to work everything into politics except a moral and religious standard.

Dear little Mandie, a Fredericton five-year-old, awoke about 2 o'clock the other morning, and asked mamma to tell her a fairy tale.

"It's too late, darling," mamma replied. "Daddy will be in shortly, and he'll tell us both one." Daddy was out with the bridge whisters.

Everything points to Fredericton having this year the most successful exhibition ever held in this city. The management, especially Secretary Hooper, is fully alive to the necessity of early completing arrangements, and with the experience gained in handling previous shows, everything works more smoothly and satisfactorily.

Liberal and Conservative committees in Carleton are to meet and mature arrangements for a pure election, but whatever conclusion is reached our Liberal friends will have to watch the other fellows. The Tories of that constituency are said to be still financing for the money put up against Mr. Carvell, M. P. in 1904.

Mr. Hazen held an informal reception at the close of the Port Elgin meeting, when many electors were presented, and all were greatly pleased with the manner of the opposition leader.—Moncton Times. "Did he ask them out to 'have something at my expense,' or was there only that expansive, self-satisfied smile on the opposition leader's face after he has delivered 'that same old speech'?"

The Halifax Chronicle made a laudable effort to get the party of British journalists visiting western Canada to come to Nova Scotia, but they are booked to sail for home August 23rd and express regret that they cannot call on the Maritime Provinces. Whoever arranged the journey for them showed poor judgment in not including eastern Canada in their itinerary. The whole of this country is not west of Lake Superior.

They were two newly arrived young Englishmen at the Fredericton races, and evidently green in the sport. A horse that had a fashion of bending its neck in an unseemly manner came up the track for the start, with a pole along its neck to keep it steady. "Oi soi, chum," said one of the Johnnies, "what 'ave they got the bloomin' pole on the 'orse for?" "That's the pole horse," promptly returned the other, and both showed satisfaction at the solution of the problem by lighting cigarettes.
