A HEARTY DEFENCE.

The Gleaner Warmly Commended the Local Government for Assisting the International and Central Railways.

And Scored the Opposition for its Attitude toward these Enterprises.

(From the Fredericton Gleaner, Mar. 30, 1905.)

The speech of Dr. Pugsley in the budget debate as admitted by every one to be the ablest ever delivered by him in the Legislature.

Even those who are opposed to him politically have to admit the talent he displayed in meeting the points made by the Opposition.

Dr. Pugsley does not pretend to be the financial man of the Government, but his exposition of the condition of the finances was masterly and effective.

But his greatest achievement was his complete justification of the conduct of his Government with respect to the Interaational and New Brunswick Railway and Coal Company.

If one might judge from the speeches of the Opposition it would appear as if they thought it was a very great wickedness for the Government to assist these two mportant enterprises which are likely to do so much for the resources of the province.

Dr. Pugsley was able to say that what the Government did for them was not more than its duty and was absofutely necessary unless the province was to take a backward step with respect to the utiiization of its resources.

The New Brunswick Coal and Railway Company, which has acquired the Central Rai way, is a line which will be of the greatest advantage, not only to the districts through which it passes and the city of Fredericton, but likewise to the city of St. John. It will form a part of the grand Transcontinental route of the Grand Trunk Pacific.

The advance of $30,000 to assist it, at a time when the whole enterprise was in danger of failure through lack of means, is precisely similar to the advance made to the Canadian Pacific Railway by the Government of Sir John A. MacDonald, which saved that line from ruin and placed it in its present prosperous and use ful condition as the greatest of American railways.

With regard to the International Railway, the action of the Government in assisting that important enterprise has been most praiseworthy, and now that line will open up a beautiful country to which there has been hitherto no access, and which in the course of time will become one of the most populous districts in the province.

The only government which would seem to suit the Opposition is one that will do nothing for the province, but that is not the kind of government that is under the Premiership of Hon. L. J. Tweedie, and the Attorney General Pugsley is the last man who would be likely to be a member of such a do-nothing administration.

Power In Ancient Arrows.

At 200 feet only the best Spanish armor could resist the English arrow. Many museums have steel corselets pierced through by an arrow.

Mexican Burials.

The Mexicans have a queer way of burying the dead. The corpse is tightly wrapped in century plant matting and placed in a coffin hired for about a shilling. One or two natives, as the case may be, place the coffin on their heads and go at a trot to the grove, where the body is interred, and the coffin is then returned.

FOUND DAUGHTER HE HAD NEVER SEEN.

After Separation of Twenty-five Years Former Kingston Militiaman Discovers Child.

KINGSTON, ONT., Oct. 26.— A peculiarly romantic story has just come to light, a father having found his daughter after twenty-five years.

Mr. J. F. Stellerington, now of Vancouver, B. C.., it appears, was a member of the Battery, stationed at Kingston some twenty-five years ago. He left this city and went sailing. He was shipwrecked, rescued and cared for by Indians, when word reached him that his young wife had died in the meantime in giving life to his first-born, which had also died. With nothing but sad recollections he turned his back upon his former home surroundings at Kingston and finally settled in Vancouver.

Years rolled on, until a Mr. Pat. Gallagher, also an old member of the Battery, and who knew Mr. Stellerton then and now, came to Kingston a few weeks ago, and in conversation with Samuel Jordan of this ci tion with Samuel Jordan of this city mentioned Mr. Stellerington's name. Mr. Jordan then let Mrs. Charles Herbert, of 7 Plum street, flingston, know of what he had heard, and she, believing him to be her father, wrote and received a letter from him which confirmed her hopes. It seems, Mrs. Herbert, of 7 Plum street, Kingston, er, when she was but a few days old, was adopted by her uncle, Mr. John Tisdale, of Barriefield, who never knew whether Mr. Stellerington was dead or alive.

A Dame School In England, 1837.

On a perch forming a triangle with the corner of the room sat a cock and two hens. Under a stump bed immediately beneath was a dog kennel in the occupation of three black terriers, whose barking, added to the noise of the children and the cackling of the fowls on the approach of a stranger, was almost deafening. There was only one small window, at which sat the teacher, obstructing three-fourths of the light it was capable of admitting.—Parliamentary Report.

OLD TIME THEATERS.

The Way House and Stage Were Lighted In Garrick's Time.

It must have often struck people when reading of the performances in the eighteenth century how it was that the lightning was contrived. The power of oil lamps was limited enough. Theaters like Drury Lane and Covent Garden were of enormous size. There were no footlights, at least until about the middle of the eighteenth century, and they were the humble "floats," dim enough. Yet there was ample light to observe expression and play of features, so necessary in interpreting the fine old comedies of character. Nowadays the stage is one blaze. It is literally bathed and suffused in light. There are no shadows, and yet it might be said the amount of necessary light is no more than there used to be and is not nearly as satisfactory. How was it then?

In the theaters of Garrick and earlier days the stage was really lit by four great chandeliers, which hung directly over the heads of the actors from the arch of the proscenium and just outside the curtain. When the play was over, these were lowered slowly, a signal for the audience to depart. These chandeliers furnished a goodly amount of light on a circular zone immediately below them. The actors' faces and figures were lit in the natural way, as the sun would light them, but the rest of the stage was comparatively dark or gloomy.—Blackwood's.

Admiration.

"You must admire his high note," said the musical enthusiast.

"Not as much as his high salary," answered the rival tenor.—Washington Star.

THE MAN WHO WORRIES

Its Influence Upon Health

A well known physician relates the following instance. A patient suffering from some obscure pulmonary trouble called for a consultation and the symptoms were detailed at length.

For many years this man had not only consulted and treated with one physician after another, but he had read every book he could find on the subject of his trouble. His mind had been kept continually upon his ailment and in consequence his life was most miserable.

Had this man employed his mind with other subjects, taken plenty of fresh air, exercise, and built up his general health by taking our cod liver preparation, Vinol, which is made by a scientific, extractive and concentrating process from fresh cods' livers, combining with peptomate of iron all the medicinal, healing, body building elements of cod liver oil, but no oil, he would have been a well and happy man all these years. Vinol purifies and enriches the blood, tones up the digestive organs, and strengthens every organ of the body to do its work as nature intended. We sell Vinol on a guarantee to return money if it fails to give satisfaction. George Y. Dibblee, Druggist, Fredericton, N. B.

WOMAN RESCUED.

Ottawa, Ont.—Slavery is not dead. Daily, the traffic in human souls goes on. Only a short time ago, a number of Chinese were arrested as they attempted to smuggle young girls from Canada into the United States. In Eastern countries, the slave trader plies his vocation in the market place. Some go into another kind of slavery—unknowingly—yet make a valiant effort to escape. Ottawa is all agog over the wonderful escape of one of her charming matrons from that physical slavery, Rheumatism. Mrs. R. C. Small says, "I was a constant sufferer from rheumatism for over seven years. I used many treatments—consulted doctors—tried hot baths—used almost every known mineral water—but nothing did me any real good. The pains were in my joints and back, and I had frequent headaches and bad indigestion. About a year ago, I saw 'Fruit-a-tives' advertised and decided to try them. After I had taken two boxes, I was much better. Altogether I took seven boxes. I have had no rheumatism for over six months now and feel that I am quite cured. I have gained over ten pounds in weight."

"Fruit-a-tives" cure because the intensified fruit juices and tonics strengthen the kidneys—regulate the bowels—and invigorate the skin. This means pure blood, free of uric acid.

Cure yourself. Take "Fruit-a-tives" now and be free of Rheumatism all winter. 50c a box; 6 for $2.50. At druggists, or from Fruit-a-tives Limited, Ottawa, Ont.

HOW TO REPEL A DOG.

Letter Carrier Had a Remedy For Vicious Curs.

"No one comes in contact with all sorts of dogs more than the letter carrier," said the man in gray as the interviewer trudged along beside him. "Take it outside the business districts and every other family has a dog. Many of them I pay no attention to, but about one out of five aches to get his teeth into my legs at first sight. It is a part of my duty to teach such curs a lifelong lesson."

"Do you kick them?" was asked.

"That would be foolish. I carry here in my side pocket about a quarter of a pound of dry fine cut tobacco. You see it is almost as fine as snuff. The dog that means to bite you won't come charging down with a roar. He sneaks up behind and gives a jump in. I am ready for it. Without seeming to be watching, I know where he is, and at the right moment he gets the tobacco dust in his eyes. Then there is a circus. That dog goes through such a performance as you never witnessed, and his owner, man or woman, indulges in all sorts of threats. I deliver the mail and say nothing and go on. The dog's eyes are sore for a fortnight, and if he afterward meets me on the street he will drop his tail and make a bolt for home. It's a lesson he never forgets, and I believe it also increases his owner's respect for Uncle Sam's uniform."

Dr. Hamilton Speaks On Woman's Health

The reputation of this noted physician needs no comment. For years he was one of the most noted and distinguished practitioners in England. In speaking of the ills from which women suffer, Dr. Hamilton points out that nine out of every ten women are by nature inclined to habitual constipation. Harsh purgatives are resorted to which only intensify the trouble. Although not generally known, it is a constipated condition of the bowels that causes half the sickness aand tired weariness with which all womankind is so familiar. It was after long years of study that Dr. Hamilton perfected the pills which have been of such marvelous benefit to women the world over. In his pills of Mandrake and Butternut every sufferer will find an absolute specific for constipation, sick headache and biliousness. It is safe to say that Dr. Hamilton's Pills bring better health and keep the system in a more vigorous condition than any other medicine ever discovered. At all dealers, in 25c. boxes.
