FATAL ACCIDENT.

Man Killed in the St. George Pulp Mill.

ST. GEORGE, N. B., Sept. 12.—Russell Waycott, 23 years of age, while working in the wood mill of the St. George pulp mill, was fatally injured yesterday morning about ten o'clock and died at 6.30 p. m. No one was present when the accident occurred but one of the employees noticed the belt which drove the machinery had been thrown off. Workmen hurried in and found Waycott lying senseless on the floor. It is supposed he became entangled in the belt and that as his skull was fractured, he was carried round until his head struck the machinery.

All that was possible was done for the unfortunate man. He was taken to his home and Dr. Taylor was summoned, but he passed away at 6.30 o'clock last evening.

Mr. Waycott was unmarried and leaves his mother, one brother, William, and two sisters residing here, and another brother, George, in St. John. He is well spoken of and much sympathy is felt for his family in their sudden bereavement.

LAME BACK.

This is an ailment for which Chamberlain's Pain Balm has proven especially valuable. In almost every instance it affords prompt and permanent relief. Mr. Luke LaGrange of Orange, Mich., says of it: "After using a plaster and other medicines for about three weeks for a bad lame back, I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Pain Balm, and two applications effected a cure." For sale by all dealers.

DOUBLE EVENT AT TRURO.

TRURO, N. S., September 12.—A double wedding in which Truro people generally took a very great interest was celebrated in St. John's Episcopal church here last evening by Rev. Archdeacon Kaulback, assisted by Rev. Mr. Warner, curate. The contracting parties were Miss Helen Marie Bigelow, who married Rev. William M. Cox, Episcopal clergyman of Washington, D. C., and Miss Sarah Hermione Bigelow, who wedded Frederick L. Schwartz, accountant of the I. C. R. at Moncton. The brides are daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Edward Bigelow, of Truro. (Both brides are well known here.)

HAD TETTER FOR 60 YEARS.

I have suffered with tetter for thirty years and have tried almost countless remedies with little, if any relief. Three boxes of Chamberlain's Salve cured me. It was a torture. It breaks out a little sometimes, but nothing to what it used to be. D. H. Beach, Midland City, Ala. Chamberlain's Salve is for sale by all dealers.

DEATH OF M. E. ELLIS.

Former Overseer at Marysville Cotton Mill, and an Honored Citizen of Blackstone, Mass.

DECEASED'S WIFE 'DAUGHTER OF MR. ELLIS WHITE.

(Blackstone, Mass. Reporter Sept. 7.) BLACKSTONE, Mass., Sept. 7.—Selectman Melvin Elisha Ellis, prominent in the town politically, socially and in its industrial life, died Saturday morning at 1.40 o'clock at his home, Mendon street, after a lingering illness. Mr. Ellis had been ill for about five months, and every effort had been made for him to regain his former health, but in vain. Mr. Ellis, some time ago, when in Maine, at his parents' home, felt that his death was drawing near and went to the cemetery in his native place, Waterville, Me., and selected his burial lot. He faced death like a brave man and the arrangements for the funeral and burial were all practically made by him before the end.

Mr. Ellis returned home from the Carney Hospital at Boston Mass. nearly two weeks ago, where he was treated for Bright's disease, which was the principal cause of his death. He had gradually been growing weaker and his strength failed rapidly toward the last, death coming peacefully at the end. He was surrounded by those who were nearest and dearest to him, his wife, two sons, his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Albert Ellis of Winslow, Me., his sister, Mrs. M. Z. Fickett of Portland, Me., and Mrs. Ellis' sisters, Mrs. H. G. Phelps of Worcester, Mass., and Mrs. William Tracey of Springfield, Mass. At the last were also Archie Connors, overseer of the cloth department of the Blackstone mill, and William Carrigan, overseer at the Globe mill. Wooded, both of whom were closely associated with Mr. Ellis in the Blackstone mill at one time.

Born in Waterville, Me., Feb. 18, 1867, he being thus 45 years of age, deceased was the son of Albert and Harriet Ellis. His early life was spent in his native place, where he obtained his preparatory education. He was graduated from Colby university at Waterville. Twenty-one years ago Mr. Ellis was married to Miss Selina White of Marysville, N. B., in that place. Soon after their marriage Mr. and Mrs. Ellis moved to Newburyport, Mass., remaining there but a short time. About 19 years ago they moved to this town, where they had since lived. Mr. Ellis immediately entering the employ of the Blackstone Manufacturing company as overseer of the cloth department.

Besides his wife, he leaves two sons Percy W. and Albert W. Ellis. Deceased had had a noted public career here, and his demise will be a distinct loss to the community. His political career began in town seven years ago, when he became a candidate for the office of school committeeman. Three years later he was elected to the board of selectmen, in which capacity he was serving for the third time, having been re-elected last March. He also served for several years as a member of the republican town committee.

Up to the time of his illness he was overseer in the cloth room of the Blackstone mill. This position he held during the period of his residence in town. He resigned last April and left soon afterwards on an extended sojourn, in the hope of regaining health, with relatives at Waterville, Me., and at Marysville, N. B. In society and social circles he was active. He was prominent in the Masonic order, and a member of Blackstone River lodge, A. F. and A. M., and of the Royal Arcanum, and was the chief organizer of Intervale council, 2022, R. A., erected in town five years ago. An enthusiastic admirer of out-door sports, he also led in the organization of the Blackstone and Millville Rod and Gun club.

Selectman Ellis was one of the chief organizers in most every public movement inaugurated in the towns of this section, in society, social and political circles.

Besides a member of the board the present year, Mr. Ellis served the town as selectman in the years 1905 and 1907. He was deputy grand master of Blackstone River lodge, A. F. & A. M., and grand orator of the grand lodge of Boston. He was deputy of Intervale council, No. 2022, Royal Arcanum, and one of the official staff of the grand council. He was past grand master of the Masonic lodge, and the successor to the late Americans Welch as financial secretary of the local lodge. Deceased was also a member of the Elks' lodge of Milford.

As a public speaker he excelled, and was looked forward to by his constituency here as a candidate this fall for the house of representatives.

He was the presiding officer at many important gatherings of the Masonic fraternity, and at others held under the Royal Arcanum auspices, not only in the state, but throughout New England. Although an attendant at the Congregational church, he was of the Methodist faith, of which church he was a member at Waterville, Me.

Months ago, as though a premonition of the end, he felt that his illness might terminate fatally, and soon after returning from labor as an overseer in the mill he began to arrange for his funeral. With his parents in Waterville, Me., he visited the cemetery there and accompanied by his mother, selected and purchased what will be the sepulchral place wherein all that is mortal of him will be consigned to rest.

It was when Mr. Ellis first became a candidate for selectman in 1903 that the republican party in town was for the first time successful in about 35 years. A full board was elected. The success attained in land- ing the whole of the ticket was attributed more to the acumen and clever political work on the part of the deceased than anything else. Having previously served for years on the town committee, he was re-elected to that body last October. It was through his efforts that the French-speaking elements of New City, Miller ville and the other sections of town became voters. He accompanied them to the courts in Boston and elsewhere, in large numbers, and then before the registration boards to become registered voters. To this work is attributed the making of more voters in town than to any other one source.

He first kept night school with them in Arcade hall and at Miller- ville, where, for many sessions, held at the respective places, he taught them to speak the English language sufficiently to read the American constitution, in order to qualify as above stated. He was the chosen representative from town for the past four years to the county and councillors' conventions held at Worcester and Boston. At each his talents were again evidenced in noble efforts to secure a port of the candidacy of C. R. Day for a place on the governor's council. It will be recalled that it was three years ago this March, in an earnest appeal by a most eloquent speech that he almost carried the day for his man.

His funeral will be held from his late home here on Mendon street Sunday afternoon at 2.30 o'clock. Rev. G. H. Horton of the Baptist Church and Rev. Dorrell Lee, pastor of the Congregational Church, will officiate. There will be selections rendered by the Woonsocket business men's quartet. The funeral rites will be in accordance with the Masonic order. Undertaker Alexander Gilbert of Woonsocket has charge. The body may be viewed at the home Sunday from 9 a. m. until late in the afternoon. Monday morning the remains will be shipped from the railroad station at 8.30 o'clock to his parents' home in Winslow, Me., where services will also be held Tuesday at 10 a. m.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY ONE OF THE BEST ON THE MARKET.

For many years Chamberlain's Cough Remedy has constantly gained in favor and popularity until it is now one of the most staple medicines in use and has an enormous sale. It is intended especially for acute throat and lung diseases, such as coughs, colds and croup, and can always be depended upon. It is pleasant and safe to take and is undoubtedly the best in the market for the purpose for which it is intended. Sold by all dealers.

THE KING COMES HOME.

Monarch of the Plains is Returning to Canada.

MISSONIA, Mont., Sept. 12.—The roundup of the famous Pablo buffalo herd preparatory to removing them to Canada has commenced. The final payment of $70,000 by the Dominion Government to Mr. Pablo was made yesterday morning by Messrs. Howard Douglas and A. Ayotte, the Government agents, who are here to superintend the loading. There are 350 head, including the outlaws which defied all attempts to secure them last June in the mountains, and the task of coralling and loading will be herculean. The difficulties are greatly accentuated by the fact that grasshoppers have cleared the Flathead Range out, and many of the herd have crossed the Powder River and are now scattered in the ravines over the Pondera Mountains. Mr. Pablo has gone in quest of them with fifteen Mexican cowboys. The buffalo will be driven back across the river down to Ravalli, twenty-seven miles below, at which place they will be loaded. It is estimated that it will require two weeks, with loading gangs working fifteen hours per day. Every animal had to be put in by a separate block and tackle after a stall had been built for it in the cars.

HELPS MEN TO WORK HARD.

That's what Ferrozone does; it supplies the additional strength that enables a man to maintain health under difficulties. "Last spring I was so completely fagged out I could not work," writes J. W. McNichol of Turnbull, Man. "In the morning I was tired—limbs ached all over. Had no appetite, was sleepless, nervous and unhappy. Ferrozone put new life into me. Now I eat heartily, nerves are strong, I sleep well. I know the joy of health." It's by supplying
