PUGSLEY BUSY

Minister of Public Works Industrious at Ottawa in Behalf of St. John

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—Dr. Pugsley, minister of public works, was in the city yesterday, and left this morning for St. John.

He had a busy forenoon in his office and attended a meeting of the cabinet in the afternoon. In the afternoon he met a delegation from Toronto, asking that work be proceeded with on a new breakwater there. Afterwards Dr. Pugsley also interviewed the minister of railways, and arranged for certain improvements to the railway yard at St. John and the building of a flour shed.

Mr. Graham assured Dr. Pugsley that he would give the order so that the work would be proceeded with at once.

The minister of public works also arranged with the minister of railways to have a continuation of the new suburban service with the motor car so that people could get in and out to their cottages all the year round.

VANCOUVER RIOT

Considerable Anxiety in Official Circles Over Anti-Japanese Demonstration—An M. P. Talks About Secession

OTTAWA, Sept. 10.—The Japanese disturbances in Vancouver have given the government considerable anxiety. The matter was considered at a meeting of the council yesterday afternoon and afterward the following message was sent by Sir Wilfrid to the Mayor of Vancouver:

"Ottawa, Sept. 9.—His Excellency the Governor General has learned with the deepest regret of the indignities and cruelties which certain subjects of the Emperor of Japan, a friend and ally of His Majesty the King, have been the victims and he hopes that peace will be promptly restored and all the offenders punished."

(Signed) "WILFRID LAURIER."
 Later reports of the riot say that it lasted five hours, during which Chinatown and Japanese stores were attacked and yellow residents assaulted or thrown into the harbor. The damage to property is estimated at from $50,000 to $100,000. A number of persons were injured, and a score of arrests made. The Japanese fought the crowd, and in one case put it to flight, but the Chinese were terror stricken.

The disorders were but the culmination of increasingly bitter feeling against the influx of the Orientals.

VANCOUVER, B. C., Sept. 10.—The burning in effigy of the lieutenant governor for the first time in the history of Canada, which started a crowd, 10,000 strong to riot, was a protest at his refusal to assent to the Anti-Asiatic bill passed last session by the legislature.

It followed on the heels of a parade, which began its two mile march through the principal streets with 800, ending at the city hall with 3,000. While the anti-Asiatic and Orientals within the hall repeated the urgency of immediate action by the federal authorities, in moderate language, the passing half dozen resolutions to that end disappointed the crowd without and urged by hoodlums from Bellingham, sought diversion by the burning in effigy of Lieutenant Governor Dunsmin, which had been carried through the streets, then wrecking Chinatown and Japtown, breaking 300 windows, nearly 100 being plate glass. Not until 2 o'clock Sunday morning could the police, with drawn revolvers, control the mob. Twenty are under arrest, two Japs, who threatened the crowd with knives, eighteen rioters, idle sailors and loggers, who made the parade an excuse for violence.

The outraged Orientals will present Vancouver with a bill for $25,000 for property destroyed. A special emissary from Japan watched the mob from an automobile, and will demand an apology and reparation.

M. P.'s PROTEST.

MONTREAL, Sept. 10.—"British Columbia is to be a white man's country. The majority of the residents of that province are utterly opposed to the present flinging wide the gates to Asiatics. If the federal government does not step in and put a stop to the already humiliating condition of affairs there will be another little episode like the one which occurred in Boston harbor when the tea was thrown overboard."

This was the statement made at the Windsor hotel last night by Robert MacPherson, the Liberal member for Vancouver, who in company with his other Liberal colleague, William Gallagher, member for Kootenay, left for Ottawa to lay the whole facts of the Asiatic invasion before the premier.

Mr. MacPherson claims that more than any other province, British Columbia is the white man's province which above all others should attract the best class of British settlers. He claimed it was impossible to put the necessary overwhelming logic, before the British settler, the claims of the province as the white man's paradise.

"Something must be done, and done quickly," added Mr. MacPherson, and to this Mr. Gallagher nodded solemn assent.

Mr. MacPherson was reminded that his statement regarding the tea episode in Boston harbor was practically tantamount to stating that unless British Columbia got redress for her present grievances she would cut loose from the bonds of confederation.

Mr. MacPherson cheerfully stated that he fully recognized the serious importance of the phrase and he also understood the serious frame of mind in which the people of British Columbia were in also. There was no telling what might happen, but one thing was certain according to the federal member for Vancouver and that there was a very ugly feeling in that province against further immigration concessions being given to Asiatics, and if the warning were not heeded by the government grave consequences might be anticipated.

LATE GOVERNOR'S PORTRAIT.

Painted by Order of Government and Will be Hung in Assembly Chamber.

Chatham World: Mr. A. Dickson Patterson, of Toronto, portrait painter, has been in town for some time, completing portraits of the late Governor J. B. Snowball for the government of New Brunswick and Mr. W. B. Snowball.

The portrait which is destined for the walls of the House of Assembly is three quarter length and Mr. Snowball's is somewhat smaller. Both portraits show the late governor in a standing position and in full gubernatorial uniform. Mr. Patterson has succeeded, with the aid of several photographs and suggestions from the family, in producing a speaking likeness of the original. The government's picture was placed on exhibition at the town hall on Friday and will remain there till 10 o'clock

Monday evening. It will be sent to Fredericton on Tuesday.
