

Events of a Day

OPEN EVENINGS.

The hardware stores of Tweeddale & Co., and Jas. S. Neill will be open evenings till after Christmas.

A BIG HOG.

Mr. James A. Bell purchased yesterday from Mr. Huestis, of Bear Island, the carcass of a 16-months old hog which weighed 618 pounds.

RETURNING TO ST. JOHN.

Dr. John G. Leonard, who has been conducting Dr. Crocker's dental practice during the past three months while the latter was ill, returned to St. John today. While here Dr. Leonard has made many friends, both in a professional and social way. Dr. Leonard will open a dental office at St. John early in the new year, and his many friends here will wish him every success.

THE CURLING RINK.

Janitor Higgins of the curling rink has had a great struggle to make ice for the popular game, on account of the mild weather, but has at last succeeded in getting a good sheet which, with a couple more floodings, and a sprinkle, will be in fine condition. Last year the curlers were at work early in December, but the first game this year will likely be that of Christmas Day. Mr. D. J. Shea, who is installing the new sanitary arrangements, is making good progress and will finish the job next week.

STILL ON DECK.

Mr. James K. Pinder of Temperance Vale, "the brains of the opposition party," was in the city today for the first time in some weeks. Asked by a friend if there was any truth in the report that he was to bid adieu to public life in the near future, the king, with a twinkle in his eye, replied that he was building a new lath mill on the Nackawick, and had merely run into town to do a little banking business and some Christmas shopping. He added that there had been no heavy snow storms up country so far this season.

ST. MARY'S SCHOOLS.

The closing exercises at the St. Mary's and Gibson school took place this morning in the presence of a large number of parents and friends of the school.

The pupils of Principal Hill's department carried out a carefully prepared programme in addition to reviewing the term's work.

The departments presided over by Misses Wiley and Machum assembled in Miss Wiley's room, where recitations, choruses and dialogues were carried out. In this room a Christmas tree containing presents for the teachers and pupils was erected.

The pupils of Misses and Miss McKnight's departments gathered together in Miss McKnight's room where they were put through a review of the term's work and gave a very creditable exhibition which showed that they and their teachers had not been idle during the term just closed.

The different departments were nicely decorated and the blackboard work in each of the departments was pronounced excellent by those present.

MARYSVILLE COLLECTIONS.

The Marysville branch of the Canadian Bazaar Society have completed collections for the present year and report as follows:

Ward 1 and part No. 2—Misses Mary Rowley and Florence Tapley. Amount collected $32.23.

Central section No. 3—Misses Carrie Dunbar and Dora Whittier, $11.10.

Lower section, No. 3—Mrs. W. L. Estabrooks, $7.65.

Collection at meeting, Rev. Mr. Campbell, $15.53.

GREAT STOCK OF FURS.

Mr. J. F. VanBuskirk, the Phoenix Square hustler, has in stock what is believed by those competent to judge the finest assortment of furs to be found in Central New Brunswick. He is offering rare bargains these days in men's and women's fur coats, men's and women's fur lined coats, muffs, collars, caps, gloves, etc. The entire stock has got to be cleared out, regardless of cost, and people who want genuine bargains had better postpone their buying until they see what VanBuskirk has to offer them. Mr. VanBuskirk has done such an enormous trade during the past year that he feels he can well afford to treat his patrons with magnanimity at this season of peace and good will.

POLICE COURT.

Julius Andrews, the Acadian, arrested a few days ago, charged with breaking into and stealing from houses along the Nashwaak, was arraigned in the police court this morning and discharged from custody. In view of the close proximity of the Christmas season and the fact that he stole only edibles, the parties decided not to prosecute. A soldier, run in last night for being intoxicated on the street, was handed over to the military authorities this morning. It seems that he has just completed a term of imprisonment.

OBITUARY.

Mr. Edward H. Balkam, a prominent citizen of Milltown, and father of Mr. Hugh Balkam, the well known civil engineer, now in charge of the Moncton-Chipman section of the Transcontinental, died at his home Wednesday, aged 80 years.

Carleton, Ontario Tories expect to have a Local Candidate for Parliament

In toasting Mr. F. A. Heney, warden of Carleton County, Ontario, at a banquet which that gentleman tendered the county councillors and others at his home a few evenings ago, Rev. R. H. Stacey expressed the hope that Warden Heney would be the Conservative candidate in Carleton at the next federal election. Mr. R. L. Borden, he thought, would undoubtedly go back to Halifax, as Sir John A. Macdonald, after finding refuge in Carleton county, after defeat, had returned to his old constituency. The suggestion of Mr. Heney's candidature is reported to have been received with much enthusiasm by the banqueters, who apparently would not feel at all hurt if the opposition leader should leave the county.

DALHOUSIE NEWS

MONCTON, Dec. 20.—(Special)—Hon. C. H. LaBelle, Chief Commissioner of Public Works, who is in the city, says that the Dalhousie Lumber company, whose mills were destroyed by fire some time ago, has been re-organized, a new mill will be constructed and additions will be made to the shingle mill.
