A SHATTERED ROMANCE

Stormy Atlantic Robbed a Utah Man of Sweetheart.

NEW YORK, Dec. 22.—When the big liner Baltic arrived yesterday from one of the most tempestuous voyages of her career, Charles C. Clark of Eureka, Utah, learned that the woman he had waited years to wed had died while crossing the ocean to join him in the home he had made for both. The girl, Miss England, was stricken with feverish illness soon after the ship sailed. So rough was the sea that the ship surgeon found it impossible to perform an operation, and after two days' illness, death ended her sufferings. Neither the young woman or her brother, who accompanied her, had money to defray the cost of burial ashore, but several first cabin passengers, learning of the romance which had come to so tragic an end, made up a liberal purse and arranged to have the body brought to New York for burial.

Clark and Miss Hewitson had been childhood sweethearts, and when he came to America several years ago, she promised to wait until he had made a home and then to come to him. They had planned to be married before Christmas, so Clark came all the way across the continent to meet the young woman and take her back to Utah as his wife. Instead he and the dead girl's brother will be the chief mourners when her body is laid in Kersico cemetery on what was to have been her wedding day.

GUIDES IN SESSION

doing to further the cause in which we are so deeply interested. Wishing you all a Merry Christmas and Happy New Year,

I am,
Yours respectfully,
HENRY BRAITHWAITE,
President.

The reading of the president's address was followed by a brief discussion, and most of the suggestions were heartily approved of.

The election of officers for the ensuing year resulted as follows:
Honorary President—Surveyor General Grimmer.

President—Charles Cremin, Fredericton.

Vice-president—T. H. Pringle, Stanley.
Secretary-treasurer—R. P. Allen, Fredericton.

Executive—W. H. Allen, Adam Moore, Arthur Pringle, Burton Moore, and Lorenzo Savage.
Committee on Membership—H. Braithwaite, David Cremin and William Griffin, jr.

A number of honorary members were elected, including Hon. W. C. H. Grimmer, J. J. McCaffrey, May-strictly enforced, and slides run in a or Chestnut, F. B. Edgecombe, J. H. Hawthorn, R. T. Mack, Douglas Clinch, F. B. Ellis, J. S. Neill, Hon. J. D. Hazen, Warden McNally, C. W. Whelpley, A. M. Gibson, D. M. Richards and John Palmer.

A hearty vote of thanks was tendered Mr. J. J. McCaffrey for the use of a room and other courtesies extended to members of the association from time to time.

The meeting approved of a suggestion that a branch of the organization be formed at Newcastle or some other convenient point on the North Shore, and Messrs W. H. Allen and David Manderville were appointed a committee to carry out the undertaking.

The question of having an exhibit from New Brunswick at the sportsmen's show to be held in New York in February was discussed, and a committee was appointed to bring the matter before the Surveyor General.

A committee composed of Messrs. Moore, Pringle, Allen and Cremin was appointed to interview the Surveyor General on matters pertaining to the game law.

At the evening session Mr. Douglas Clinch, organizer for the New Brunswick Forest, Fish and Game Association, delivered an informal talk on game protection and advertising. He strongly urged the guides to unite with him in placing the attractions of the province before the sportsmen and tourists of the United States and England.

Brief addresses along the same line were also made by Warden McNally and Sergeant Major Duncan. It was after midnight when the pleasant gathering came to an end.

"Make a good article and tell the people of its goodness and the people will buy it and continue to buy it." The truth of this statement is proved by the success of "Salada" Tea.

WOULD NOT LEAVE DOG

North Dakota Lady Foregoes Visit to Toronto

SARNIA, Dec. 22.—Rather than part with her pet dog, from which she has not been separated for nine years, Mrs. Hayes of Fargo, N. D., gave up a visit with relatives in Ontario, to whom she had not seen in ten years. When she arrived here the customs officers told her that because of the strict quarantine against animals they would not allow the dog to enter Canada from the United States, but that with the canine left on the American side she might proceed to her destination. Mrs. Hayes refused the offer and immediately purchased a ticket back to Fargo.

Before you own one, it's an automobile—after, it's "my car."

Youthful Anxiety.
The baby was slow about talking, and his aunt was deploring that fact. Four-year-old Elizabeth listened anxiously.
"Oh, mother," she ventured at length, "do you think he'll grow up English? We couldn't any of us understand him if he turned out to be French!"—Lippincott's.

The Hair.
A single hair, which can support a weight of two ounces, is so elastic that it may be stretched to one-third of its entire length and then regain its former size and condition. Dr. Pincus has measured the growth of hair by cutting off circles about one inch in diameter from the heads of healthy men and so comparing the growth of the patches with that of the rest of the hair. He found that the growth rate generally became slower after cutting; that in some cases the hair on the patches grew at the same rate as the rest, but that it never grew any faster. The ordinary length of the hair on the head ranges between twenty-two inches and about forty-five inches, the latter being considered unusually long. —London Standard.
