

SCANDAL EXPLODED.

Sir Frederick Borden Paid His Respects in a Vigorous Manner to Mr. Muckraker Foster in Parliament.

OTTAWA, May 28.—In the House of Commons yesterday Mr. Foster led the obstructionists, making a lengthy speech in which Sir Frederick Borden was accused with favoring the application of the New Brunswick Cold Storage company, because of his son-in-law being a member of the company, and turning down F. E. Williams of St. John.

Sir Frederick in his reply denied and personal interest in the matter and sailed for Mr. Foster without gloves.

FOSTER ON THE RACK.

Sir Frederick alluding to Foster's concluding suggestion that he ought to resign, doubted very much whether the member for North Toronto was fitted to act as censor of public morals of this country. He was very fertile in seeing wrong-doing in others. He seemed to have doubts even about members of his own party. This was certainly the case a few years ago, when the leader of his own party designated him among the nest of traitors. "The honorable gentleman," he went on, "seems to be suspicious. But Mr. Speaker, assuming that every word he had said today is true, I ask this House to consider if at its worst it is to be compared for one moment with the position of a man who succeeds in placing himself in a position of trust and then succeeds in placing himself in a position connected with another company, and then is engaged in the delightful occupation of selling out to one company of which he himself is a director, taking the commission which goes out of the hard earned savings of the people of this country in connection with one of the insurance companies and of putting it in his own pocket." (Liberal cheers.)

Mr. Foster—"All of which is untrue."

Sir Frederick—"It was proven."

Mr. Foster—"It was never proven."

Sir Frederick Borden—"It can be proved from the records of this House."

Mr. Foster—"It was never true and can never be proved from the records of this House."

Sir Frederick Borden—"The book is open; the honorable gentleman knows very well that the Minister of Justice proved it absolutely." (Liberal cheers.) The honorable gentleman has two peculiarities, one is that he cannot see any good in anybody but himself, and the other is that he is unable to see harm in himself. He is mentally and morally crooked. (Cries of order, order.)

The Speaker ruled that the expression was out of order.

Sir Frederick—"Well, then I will say that he is neither mentally nor morally crooked in a parliamentary sense. The honorable gentleman did utilize his position to act in two or three different capacities to his own pecuniary advantage."

The house had heard a great deal about a man named Williams, who applied some years ago for a subsidy for a bait freezer. He had said that he was engaged in the fish business in St. John, but the Minister believed that he was in the pork trade. That man had wished to get from the department of marine and fisheries a subsidy of fifty per cent. to enable him to freeze bait and carry on his own line of business.

He had certain negotiations and made application to the Minister of Marine and Fisheries. Owing to the change in policy of the marine department he failed to get what he wanted. "Finding," said Sir Frederick, "that he was not able to get what he wanted, namely, something for nothing, he published in the newspapers some very abusive articles and sent a letter to the prime minister. Now I wish to say with regard to him, as I said in the letter which I wrote to the minister of agriculture, that his statements from beginning to end are absolutely and utterly foundationless. (Liberal cheers.) I shall not waste any further time or Mr. Williams beyond saying that he is an unworthy man, a disappointed man, and being unworthy and disappointed he indulged in these letters and articles against me which have so delighted the honorable gentleman from North Toronto. If the honorable gentleman wishes it, I am prepared to be examined under oath and make my statements in answer to the charges brought by Williams or anybody on his behalf." (Cheers.)

"I do not own a single dollar of stock in the company," continued Sir Frederick. "I have never received one dollar of benefit. I never expect to hold one dollar of stock in it, and I never expect to receive one dollar of benefit." It had remained for the member for North Toronto, with his mind, to unearth this spectre, but he believed his (Sir Frederick's) statement would receive more credence than any statement by Foster. (Liberal cheers.)

DR. DANIEL.

Dr. Daniel, in supporting the complaint of Mr. Williams, said Sir Frederick Borden had taunted Mr. Foster with being the last person to preach morality, but he did not think the Minister of Militia was a man who should preach morality.

"Go on, speak out like a man, say what you mean," cried several Liberal members.

Dr. Daniel—"I had better say no more about that."

Sir Frederick Borden—"You had better not."

Mr. Johnston—"Is the member for North Toronto a man who should preach morality?"

Dr. Daniel—"You say your money and you take your choice."

Mr. Johnston—"And that is all you have to say for him. (Laughter.)"

The debate was continued by Mr. Fisher who corroborated Sir Frederick's statements, and Mr. Fowler moved the adjournment.

MARYSVILLE NEWS.

May 26th—Yesterday being a nice, fine, warm day, the cotton mill being down, our people enjoyed the holiday greatly. Some went fishing, some went to the St. Marys' range shooting, some went to Fredericton to celebrate while others attended to their farming. Beware of fish stories today and for the next few days as likely there will be some good yarns going about the big fish that got away.

One night last week some mean low degraded sneak thief thieves entered the premises of Mr. Freeman Libbey's and stole from the brooder 70 small chickens which were only a few days old; not being satisfied with that mean contemptible trick they went into Mr. Libbey's hen yard and let his hens loose glowering the different breeds to mix with each other. The guilty parties I suppose think it was a smart trick. They should be hunted up and punished.

Last Friday Mrs. Alexander Gibson, Jr., entertained a number of her young friends to a lawn party. A very pleasant time was spent by all. Ice cream and cake were served during the afternoon.

Messrs. George and John Hanson spent the holiday on fishing in the Burpee Brook district.

Mrs. E. M. Merritt and Miss Merritt spent the holiday at Gibson, the guests of Mr. and Mrs. E. G. Merritt.

Mr. William Cotton spent Sunday and Monday with his friend Mr. Wil-

May 28—Mr. and Mrs. Wendall Bubar are moving to Fredericton today, Mr. Bubar having accepted position with the James S. Neill Co., and he goes on duty next Monday. Mr. and Mrs. Bubar will be greatly missed by their many Marysville friends. Wendall has been employed in the Cotton Hall of the Cotton Mill for a number of years where he is very popular among the help. He will be a social loss to Marysville. He will be especially missed among the band boys with whom he was a great favorite.

She—You're wrong. They don't grow older; they merely grow wiser.

SYSTEM REQUIRES FREQUENT CLEANSING.

Not only outside, but inside as well, your body must be frequently cleaned. Otherwise it becomes loaded with wastes that clog up the wheels of health. Much better to act in time. Use Dr. Hamilton's Pills; they strengthen and regulate the bowels, assist digestion, enrich the blood and thereby fortify the nerves and lay the foundation of lasting good health.

Dr. Hamilton's Pills bring vim and vitality so much sought for today; they instill a feeling of freshness and spirit in those who have been ailing for years. Really no medicine so potent. Price 35c. at all dealers.

SPRING FEVER

The need of a spring medicine seems to be universal. This is due to the fact that during the winter the blood becomes impure on account of the hearty food eaten. This causes that tired weary, all-gone, don't-care-to-work feeling which is so prevalent at this time of the year.

BURDOCK BLOOD BITTERS

USES IT EVERY SPRING
Mr. H. Langley, Hamilton Ont., writes—"I have used Burdock Blood Bitters as a spring tonic, and I find it the best thing I can take. It builds me right up and I use it every spring. It is excellent for the blood."

THAT TIRED FEELING
Mr. F. H. Leard Saskatoon, Sask., writes—"I have used Burdock Blood Bitters as a blood builder and think it an excellent remedy. Everyone should take it in the spring to cure that tired feeling that comes to so many at this time of year."
