

BUYING A HAREM.

Morocco's New Sultan Negotiating With His Brother.

A droll report has reached Casa Blanca from Fez, says the correspondent of The Daily Telegraph, stating that Mulai Hafid has manifested a desire to enter into possession of the harem of Ab dul Aziz. It should be noted that in Moslem States the harem is regarded as a mark of sovereignty rather than as the private and personal property of the Sultan.

SUNDAY SCHOOL RALLY.

St. Paul's New Pastor Principal Speaker at Sydney Gathering.

(Sydney Record, Friday.) The Sunday school rally held in the St. Paul's church last evening was fairly representative, some from as far away as Mira being present, although the attendance of the Sunday school workers of this city was not regarded as entirely satisfactory.

If you want to keep him in shape, never let him suffer pain. Rub on "Nerviline" it is noted for curing strains, swellings and stiffness and sore muscles. For internal use in curing cramps and colic, Nerviline is a perfect marvel.

A WIFE'S OBEDIENCE.

French Proposal to Remove Marriage Ceremony Pledge. A private bill has been introduced into the French Chamber of Deputies to abolish Article 213 of the French civil code, which reads: "The husband must protect his wife and the wife must obey her husband."

the Paris City Hall, demanding that the article in the code should be abolished. M. Paul Hervieu, the distinguished member of the French Academy, wanted recently to change Article 212: "Married couples owe to each other mutual fidelity, succour, and assistance."

SNOW IN THE NORTH.

CAMPBELLTON, N. B., Nov. 16.—The North Shore is in the grip of a heavy snow storm. Early Sunday morning snow began falling, and somewhat of a blizzard raged all day. About 8 o'clock Sunday night it began to cease, and about ten inches of snow has fallen.

WHY COUGH SYRUPS FAIL.

They slip quickly over the sore irritated membranes, drop into the stomach and do little else but harm digestion. It's different with Catarrhose—you inhale it. Every breath sends healing balsams to the inflamed tissues. Tightness, soreness and inflammation are cured by healing pine essences. The cough goes away, throat is strengthened, huskiness is cured. Nothing so simple, so convenient, so certain to cure as Catarrhose. Sold everywhere.

PRINCE EDWARD IN CANADA.

King Edward's Grandfather Visited America in 1793.

Prince Edward, afterwards Duke of Kent, and the father of Queen Victoria, passed through Burlington, Vermont, in February, 1793. He came from Quebec, where he had had command of a regiment. His trip through the country was accomplished in carry-alls and sleighs; a courier had been sent on to Burlington to prepare for his accommodation.

The Prince arrived in the afternoon with thirteen carry-alls and sleighs, and left the third day before noon. He had with him two aides and two bodyguards, a lady and a cook. The lady was to go to New York, and the Prince provided the sleigh which was to convey her with an abundance of furs, and placed a large dog at her feet.

A little incident occurred on the passing of the Prince and the lady from the house to the sleigh which illustrated the character and physical strength of the Prince. An awkward but stout young man was standing in the path, not making room readily for the party to advance.

Among the early settlers of the town was Colonel Stephen Keyes, a gentleman of the old school, who wore a cocked hat and kept a hotel on Water street. He proposed to pay his respects to Prince Edward, and several young men of the village made a call in the evening.

Napoleon and the Cobbler.

On Napoleon's arrival at Mars-la-Tours the mayor, a farmer, tried in vain to make the speech he had prepared. Bowing and scraping, he stood fascinated by Bonaparte's scrutinizing black eyes—an unhappy squirrel in the gaze of the rattlesnake.

The emperor laughed and inquired of the old man whether he had any sons. "Yes; four are in the army—two of these in the guards." Their names were taken down, and the honest shoemaker soon saw them raised to the rank of officers and found himself provided with a comfortable pension.

Gladstone's Peculiar Eyes.

Gladstone had peculiar eagle-like eyes. At a dinner at which he and Professor Blackie were present the two men were opposite, and when Gladstone gave in a forcible way his idea that Homer was no longer recited, but chanted, the professor cried out, "Mr. Gladstone, I don't believe a word of it!"

English Colonies in America.

From the founding of the first English colony in America, Virginia in 1607, to that of the last, Georgia in 1733, was a century and a quarter. During this time thirteen colonies were established, extending from New France on the north to New Spain on the south, and laying claim to all the land from the Atlantic to the Pacific, then called the South sea.

The Mayflower.

Never did a ship sail with such momentous results as the little west country clipper schooner the Mayflower, but few people have bothered to ask what was her fate after she had landed the heroic band of Englishmen on Plymouth rock.

COMMITTED SUICIDE.

Man who Shot San Francisco Lawyer took His own Life.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 16.—Morris Haas, who shot Francis J. Heney Friday, committed suicide at the county jail Saturday night by shooting himself through the head.

One report is that the pistol with which Haas shot himself was concealed in his shoes, where he hid after shooting Heney. Another report says the pistol was secretly passed to Haas since his incarceration.

The five surgeons attending Francis J. Heney, after their consultative last night, stated that Mr. Heney was resting easily, and that his pulse temperature and respiration were practically normal.

The bullet was located in the muscles of the lower maxillary. The bone was not shattered and the doctors say they will perform an operation to remove the piece of lead to day.

The Hair.

A single hair, which can support a weight of two ounces, is so elastic that it may be stretched to one-third of its entire length and then regain its former size and condition. Dr. Pincus has measured the growth of hair by cutting off circles about one inch in diameter from the heads of healthy men and so comparing the growth of the patches with that of the rest of the hair.

Beetles.

The Rev. Theodore Wood, a well known English authority on beetles, makes an interesting observation on a little beetle found frequently in the flowers of the primrose, but nowhere else, which is quite a mystery. It is small, brown and flat, and Mr. Wood remarks of it: "How its life is lived nobody knows. Where its eggs are laid, the chrysalis be hidden, nobody knows. Nobody knows even why the perfect beetle gets into the primrose blossom."

An Easy Way.

"In order to succeed in life," said the experienced person, "you must not be afraid to make enemies."

When the Adamases Move.

Mrs. K. while telling her children about Adam and Eve and the beauties of the garden of Eden, was interrupted by one of the tiny tots saying, "Oh, mamma, when those Adamases move away let us get that place to live in."

The Longer Title.

If there is a system of abbreviation of mercantile terms in Germany, perhaps all the shorthand clerks know it. There is a little story about social rivalry among a semi-official class in Berlin: A proud young matron exclaimed in high spirits that she was enjoying the happiest moment of her life. "My Fritz has been appointed hauptkassenverwaltungsassistent!" That means assistant cashier. "Now," she went on, "in my title of hauptkassenverwaltungsassistentin I boast of five letters more than that stuck-up oberhofsteuermann spectorin (excise inspector's wife) can claim!"

Poor Old Bird.

"What's the matter with that old hen?" asked the guinea fowl. "She looks worried." "Oh," replied the bantam rooster "she's a temperance crank, and she's worrying for fear some of her eggs will be used in the making of eggnog."

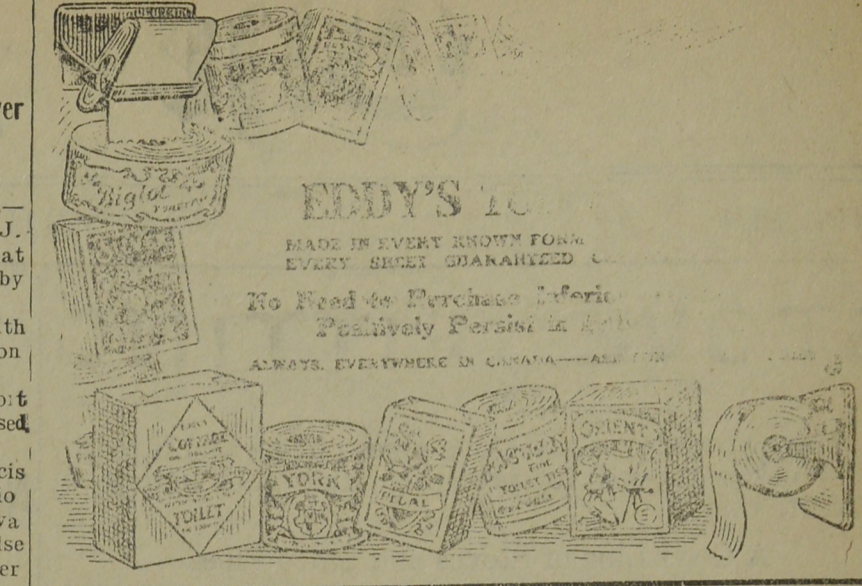

DR. WOOD'S NORWAY PINE SYRUP

Is without an Equal for COUGHS, COLDS, BRONCHITIS and all Affections of the THROAT and LUNGS.

All the most serious affections of the throat, the lungs and the bronchial tubes, are in the beginning but colds or coughs. Too much stress cannot be laid on this fact, and neglect to cure the cold very often causes years of suffering and in the end comes "Consumption." Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup combines all the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree with other absorbent, expectorant and soothing medicines of recognized worth, and is absolutely harmless, prompt and safe.

Mr. J. L. Purdy, Millvale, N.S., writes:—"I have been troubled with a hard, dry cough for a long time, especially at night, but after having used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, for a few weeks, I find my cough has left me. To any person, suffering as I did, I can say that this remedy is well worth a trial. I would not be without it in the house."

So great has been the success of this wonderful remedy, it is only natural that numerous persons have tried to imitate it. Don't be humbugged into taking anything but "Dr. Wood's." Put up in a yellow wrapper, three pine trees the trade mark; price 25 cents.
