After suffering eight years, this woman was restored to health by Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. Read her letter.

Mrs. A. D. Trudeau, Annapolis, Ontario, writes to Mrs. Pinkham: "I suffered terribly from ulceration of the feminine organs for eight years. I tried four doctors but got no relief, and thought I would have to die. One day I saw an advertisement of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in the paper. I sent for some, and before I had used five bottles I was entirely cured. I hope every suffering woman will take my advice and use Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

FACTS FOR SICK WOMEN.

For thirty years Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, made from roots and herbs, has been the standard remedy for female ills, and has positively cured thousands of women who have been troubled with displacements, inflammation, ulceration, fibroid tumors, irregularities, periodic pains, backache, that bearing-down feeling, flatulency, indigestion, dizziness or nervous prostration. Why don't you try it?

Don't hesitate to write to Mrs. Pinkham if you need advice about your sickness. She will treat your letter in confidence and advise you free. Because of her vast experience she has helped thousands. Address, Lynn, Mass.

WELL-TO-DO DRUGS AND MEDICINES

You know heart fluttering means you're not as well as you should be. It's an evidence of impaired nerve and muscular power. To obtain cure, try Ferrozone; it has a special action on the heart, as seen in the case of Thos. Grover of Cole Harbor, N. S., who says: "If I exerted myself it would bring palpitation. To carry any heavy weight or go quickly upstairs completely knocked me out. When bad attacks came on I lived in fear of sudden death. Ferrozone gave my heart the very assistance it needed, and now I am quite well." For heart or nerves it's hard to excel Ferrozone. 50c. per box at all dealers.

Mrs. De Smythe—Tommy, do you want some nice plum jam?

Tommy—Yes, mother.

"I was going to give you some to put on your bread, but I've lost the key to the pantry."

"You don't need the key mother. I can reach down through the window and open the door from the inside."

"That's what I wanted to know. Now just wait until your father comes."

THE RING

GREAT WRESTLING MATCH.

Chicago, Ill., April 4.—After two hours and one minute of nerve-wrecking wrestling, Drank Gotch won from George Hackenschmidt last night because Hack was so tired he was compelled to quit.

Dexter pavilion, in which the match was held, was crowded to its utmost capacity.

At 10.25 Referee Smith called the two men together and gave them their final instructions.

At 10.30 time was called and the men went to the centre of the ring. They walked around, watching each other carefully and grappling for an opening.

Gotch shoved Hackenschmidt head around several times, and after a bit of this kind of work, Hackenschmidt suddenly reached out and the men went to a lock with heads together. They broke loose but immediately returned to the position.

In the scuffle, Hackenschmidt smacked Gotch alongside the head, but smiled and apologized. The first real move was made by Hackenschmidt, he dropped to one knee and tried to get Gotch by the knees.

Failing, however, the men continued tumbling about the ring without taking any chances. Gotch did a lot of feinting. As the time wore on Gotch's stock began to soar, while Hackenschmidt's friends were beginning to realize that the big fellow had met his Waterloo at last. Hackenschmidt made several attempts to bring his man down, but to no avail.

After they had been at it for one hour and forty-two minutes, Hackenschmidt wanted to quit, but his handlers insisted upon his going on. It is said he asked for a draw. Hackenschmidt by this time was very tired and growing weak, while on the other hand Gotch was holding his own.

Finally after two hours and one minute of work on the mat, Hackenschmidt refused to continue, realizing that he could not win from the better boxer and therefore gave the match to Gotch.

WHY CHEST COLDS ARE DANGEROUS.

They lead to pleurisy and pneumonia. Follow the advice of W. H. Powles of Powles's Corners, Ont., who says: "I used to be subject to attacks and although I used most everything nothing relieved me quickly till I discovered Nerviline. I have used it for pleurisy and sore chest and found it just the proper thing, as lightning. I cheerfully recommend Nerviline." Strongest, cleanest, most pain destroying liniment on earth, is Powles's Nerviline. 25 cent bottles sold everywhere.

OTTAWA, April 6.—(Special)—Sir Charles Tupper, who listed to address the Canadian Club, has written from Vancouver that on account of the illness of Lady Tupper, he will be unable to come.

Sir Charles was to have given his views on Confederation.

Do you think Ophelia really loved Hamlet?" asked Maud.

"I should say so," answered Mamie. "She was crazy about him."

MONTREAL SENSATION.

Book Agent Resisted Arrest, Killing one Officer and Wounding Others Before He Was Maimed and Secured.

MONTREAL, April 7.—For five hours yesterday afternoon and evening John Smith, a book agent, kept a large posse of the Montreal police force and a detachment of the fire, leveled his rifle at those standing in front. Again he fired, and this time Chief Detective Carpenter fell, shot through the hand and hip.

When Carpenter fell the police urged on by the demands of the crowd, disregarded the order to take Smith alive and the revolvers of fifty men blazing. After a few moments the firing stopped.

Smith gave no sign of life and the police finally decided to rush the place. This they did, meeting with no opposition. Smith was found lying on his bed and submitted to arrest without further resistance.

During the fusillade of the police he was hit in three places—the shin, breast and arm. None of the wounds appear to be mortal. He was conscious and appeared sane. He was taken to the hospital and a guard placed over him.

Smith is a well known figure around town, having been engaged in selling books for years. About himself he was most reticent. It is believed that he comes from the Southern States, and that Smith is not his right name. His habits were generally good, but recently he has been drinking heavily and it was a threat to kill his landlady that led to her taking out the warrant.

LAW STUDENT JAILED.

An Oldtime Fredericton Commitment at the Instance of the Legislature.

Mr. Clarence Ward of St. John in his interesting reminiscences in the Globe of old times in St. John says:

The paper of February 8, 1839, contains an account of the commitment to prison of Mr. Andrew Ramsford, of Fredericton for a breach of the privileges of the House of Assembly. The old time Legislators claimed, and exercised very extensive powers when the House was in session, and anyone infringing on what they considered their "privileges," was handled in a very summary manner. Many cases of reprimand and imprisonment are recorded at this period. The people, however, were now becoming inclined to withstand the exercise of such arbitrary powers by the Legislature. The following is the account of this latest exhibition of the exercise of paramount authority over the liberty of the subject with the comment thereon: "We understand from a private source that the House of Assembly during this week has been debating with 'closed doors,' the result of which was that a young Mr. Ramsford of Fredericton, student at law, has been committed to prison for a breach of the privileges of that august body. It is represented that the head and front of his offending is the handing of a letter to Mr. Beardsley, the member for Carleton, which letter contained the copy of a common process. We thought that the House had got enough of this wanton exercise of a power, which has been questioned by high judicial authority in the matter of Mr. Pierce.

We are quite surprised to find this sort of 'star chamber' proceeding again resorted to on so trifling and ridiculous an occasion. It is very evident that there are other tyrannies besides those arising from despotic governments. The inhabitants of Fredericton are exceedingly enraged at this high handed proceeding. A full report of the proceedings of the House of Assembly in the breach of privilege case is given on the 9th February. Mr. Beardsley, member for Carleton County, stated that an action had been instituted against him at the suit of George Jarvis Dibble, and that a copy of the bill had been delivered to him on the floor of the House by William Payne, one of the door-keepers, who said he did so at the request of Andrew Ramsford, 7a student-at-law in the office of Berton & Dibble. Mr. Ramsford, on being brought to the bar, acknowledged that he had given the paper to W. Payne, with a request to deliver it to Mr. Beardsley, at the same time stating that he intended no disrespect to the House. He was on motion of Mr. Owen declared guilty of contempt and committed to gaol during the pleasure of the House. A motion made by Mr. Weldon that no further proceedings be had respecting the matter was negatived. Yeas—Messrs. L. A. Wilnot, Bartarrie, Wilson, Weldon, Street, Rankin, Nays, Hon. Mr. Johnston, Hon. Mr. Crane, Messrs. McAlmon, Allen, Palmer, Stewart, Hannington, Partelow, End, J. M. Wilnot, Jordan, Woodward, Connell, Freeze, McLeod, H. T. Partelow, Hill, Hayward, Brown, Weyer, Gilbert, Owen.

Mr. Ramsford served quite a protracted term of imprisonment for infringement of the privileges of the House. In the proceedings of the Assembly, dated 26th February, "it was resolved on motion of Mr. End, that Andrew Ramsford be discharged from custody."

NERVOUS CHILDREN.

St. Vitus Dance, Neuralgia and Headaches Common Among School Children.

St. Vitus dance is a disease that is becoming more and more frequent among school children. Young people tire the nerves with study and the nerves cry out. Sometimes the trouble takes the form of neuralgia, headache, nervous exhaustion, weakness of the limbs and muscles, and what we call "being run down." In other cases St. Vitus dance is the result, and the sufferer frequently loses all control of the limbs, which keep up a constant jerking and twitching. There is only one way to cure the trouble—through the blood which feeds and strengthens the nerves. And Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are the only medicine that can make the new rich, red blood that feeds the nerves and strengthens every part of the body. The case of Flossie Doan, of Crowland, Ont., proves the value of Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. Mrs. Doan says: "A couple of years ago my daughter Flossie was dangerously afflicted with St. Vitus dance. She became so nervous that after a time we could not let her see even her friends. She could not pick up a dish, lace her boots, or make any movement to help herself. She had grown thin and very pale, and as she had been treated by several doctors without benefit, I feared she would not recover. A friend advised me to give her Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, and after she had used a couple of boxes I could see that they were helping her. We gave her nine boxes in all, and by that time she was perfectly well, and every symptom of trouble had passed away and she is now a strong, well developed girl."

If your growing children are weak or nervous, if they are pale and thin, lack appetite or complain of headaches give them Dr. Williams' Pink Pills and see how speedily the rich red blood these pills make will transform them into bright, active robust boys and girls. You can get these pills from any medicine dealer or by mail at 50 cents a box or six boxes for $2.50 by writing The Dr. Williams' Medicine Co., Brockville, Ont.

A COWARDLY FALSEHOOD.

So Mr. Birrell Pronounces Rumor About Lord Haddo.

LONDON, April 3.—Chief secretary for Ireland Augustus Birrell in the House of Commons this afternoon publicly denied the rumor which has been current in Dublin and other parts of Ireland connecting the name of Lord Haddo, the eldest son of the Earl of Aberdeen, Lord-Lieutenant of Ireland, with the theft of a portion of the State regalia, valued at £250,000, from Dublin Castle last summer. It has been suggested that this was the Government's reason for its refusal to grant a public inquiry into the affair. Mr. Birrell stated that the jewels must have been stolen between June 11 and July 6, and he wished to take this opportunity of denying the "cowardly falsehood" connecting Lord Haddo with their loss. He explained that Lord Haddo left Dublin on March 7 of last year, and lived in Scotland and in London thereafter until December 11.
