THE MAINE MURDER

Suspect Under Arrest, Blood on his Clothes
Victim of Crime had Money when last Seen Alive

CALAIS, Me., Jan. 22.—(Special)—week, and had at that time $25 in the coroner's jury, investigating the death of Andrew Higgins, of Baileyville, concluded its investigations late Thursday afternoon, returning a verdict to the effect that the said man, who found the body on foul play at the hands of some person or persons unknown. Nick Wallace, commonly known as Frank Williams, was arrested at Topshfield, Me., at ten o'clock Thursday morning, and brought to Woodville last evening. Wallace's coat has blood stains on it, which he claims were caused by carrying a deer he had killed. A razor, presumably stolen by Wallace from Higgins, the dead man, was found at the inquest. He testified that Higgins, the murdered man, had razor being sold by Wallace to Edwin deposited the sum of $50 with him. The witness who presented for safe keeping on Thursday of last it.

THE WARDEN'S SUPPER

Municipal Legislators and their Friends take Part in Pleasant Function at York Hotel

Warden M. Byron McNally of Kingsclear, was the host last evening at one of the most enjoyable warden's dinner ever held in York county.

The dinner which was a five course one, was held at the York hotel, and was certainly creditable to Proprietor Richards.

Those present included the county councillors, county officials, Judge Wilson, Judge Barry, Dr. G. J. McNally, R. B. Hanson, J. K. Pinder, Geo. Y. Dibblee, Ald. Hooper, Ald. Everett, Ald. Morris, ex-Warden Scott, Hubbard Niles, Chas. B. Morgan, Adam Moore, Mat McGivney, Robert Gray, Henry Anderson, C. H. Burt, Alex. Murray, Hedley Vanwart, Alby Grass, Edward Dunphy, J. D. Black, J. L. Neville, Jas. A. Bell and Bert Lint.

The genial warden occupied the chair, having Judge Wilson seated on his right and His Worship Mayor McLeod on his left.

After the excellent repast had been disposed of the toast of the King was proposed, and responded to by singing the National Anthem.

The toast of the Governor General also received a musical response.

The toast to the Lieutenant Governor and legislature was proposed by Scott Act Inspector McFarlane, and was replied to by Mr. J. K. Pinder, ex-M.P.P.

Mr. Frank L. Cooper next entertained the gathering with a solo, which was heartily received.

Coun. Hinchey proposed the health of the City of Fredericton, coupling with it the names of Mayor McLeod, and Alds. Hooper, Everett and Morris, all of whom responded in an appropriate manner.

Mayor McLeod paid a glowing tribute to the Warden, and continuing said he was proud to be a citizen of Fredericton. The sons of Fredericton love their little home city, and no matter where they may roam, they always have a warm spot in their heart for its elm shaded streets. It was a nice thing, he said, to meet as friends at the social board. He said that notwithstanding the fact that some of them might fight good and hard in the coming election, he trusted that when the smoke of battle cleared away, they would be as good friends as ever, and would meet around the festive board with the same good feeling which now prevailed.

Ald. Hooper said some of the best aldermen at the different council boards came from the county of York. The interests of the county and city were identical, and they should work side by side.

Ald. Everett, who was formerly a representative of Kingsclear at the municipal council, spoke of the recent improvements in Fredericton's water and sewerage system, and told how such improvements were an indirect benefit to the province.

President Dibblee of the Board of Trade made an excellent speech. He congratulated the council on the selection of the warden, and the warden on his election to the chair. The city requires the county, and the county cannot get along without the city. Mr. Dibblee pointed out needed improvements in the market, which would make it more convenient and comfortable. He thought the country people would be willing to pay a small toll.

The toast of the warden was next proposed by Mayor McLeod, and the gathering responded in a hearty manner by singing "For He's a Jolly Good Fellow." Warden McNally replied in suitable terms.

Judge Barry congratulated the warden on his election. He said the present warden was a man of the highest integrity, and square in his business and private life, and would be found to do what was right. He also referred to the career of ex-Warden Scott, who was respected wherever he was known. As a citizen of Fredericton Mr. Barry had much pleasure in extending a welcome to Mr. Scott, who had come here to reside. He hoped the evening of Mr. Scott's life would be spent pleasantly here.

The toast of the sister municipality of Sunbury was proposed by Mr. Dibblee, coupled with the name of ex-Coun. Alby Grass, who made one of his characteristic speeches, which was full of humor and philosophy, and was loudly applauded.

Coun. Thomas Robinson sang Loch Lomond in his usual pleasing manner.

The toast to the bench and bar was proposed by Councillor Brewer, and responded to by Judge Wilson, Judge Barry and R. B. Hanson.

The county council, brought forth speeches from ex-Wardens Scott and Morehouse and Secretary Bliss.

The toast of the press was next proposed, the company singing "For they are jolly good fellows." The representatives of the local press replied.

A vote of thanks was next passed and presented to Landlord and Mrs. Richards, who furnished the excellent dinner.

The gathering broke up by singing "Auld Lang Syne."

MONCTON, N. B., January 24.—The Moncton Victorias lowered the colors of the Fredericton Capitals last night in a game full of excitement, by a score of two to one. It took ten minutes' overtime to do the trick. When the gong announced the finish of the game, each team had one score to its credit.

It was agreed to play ten minute periods and before the end of the first, Moncton, on a lift of McGrath from cover point, scored the winning goal.

The crowd was by far the largest ever at a hockey match in this city, fully 3,000 people being present. The game was full of excitement from start to finish. Science was thrown to the winds, playing being too fast for effective combination work. Fredericton was the only team to attempt anything in the way of combination, but Moncton's fast forward line broke it up so badly that it lacked effect.

The score shows that the teams are very evenly matched but Fredericton was kept upon the defensive most of the time. Only the star work of Morrison in goal saved the visitors from a worse defeat.

Moncton started in with a rush that literally forced the Capitals back to the defense of their goal and for the first five or ten minutes Morrison was kept busy stopping hot shots rained on the net by Crockett and Gregory. Moncton's defence only had occasional spells when their goal was threatened, though Dunphy and Ranson, with brilliant runs at times, broke through the forward line and carried the puck into the Vic's territory. It is generally conceded that the Vics. had the better of the game in the first half. Their tactics were more aggressive. They played and followed up the puck better and their stick handling was more effective. The first half ended with a score of one to nothing, in favor of Moncton.

FREDERICTON TIED THE SCORE

At the start of the second half the Capitals rushed things more, evidently determined to do or die. They were met by equally aggressive tactics on the part of the home team and the result was heavy checking and some roughness. For the first five or ten minutes of the second half the game was exceptionally fast. Fredericton scored their only goal and tied the score the first part of the second half while Moncton had two men off. The Victorias were unfortunate in having two important men, Brown at point, and Gregory, centre, penalized at the same time, and this made the work of the Capitals to score comparatively easy. Murphy secured the only goal from a side shot. From this out the game became even faster. The Capitals made desperate efforts to score again before Gregory and Brown returned, but failed. With the return of the penalized players the Victorias started to play more aggressively and the Fredericton goal was seriously threatened on several occasions. Play at this stage, however, was fairly even, both teams bending their energies to shoot the deciding goal.

At the call of time, with a score of one to one, it was agreed to rest ten minutes and then play ten minute periods until the game was won. When the teams returned to the ice the excitement ran high and the players themselves showed the great strain.

Both teams started with a rush and there was little to choose between them. The puck travelled back and forth with lightning rapidity for five minutes and the defence men at both ends were kept busy. A series of lifting occurred between cover points, McGrath having the better of John D. McDonald in this play. Once or twice McGrath dropped the puck at the feet of Morrison, and finally on a long high lift he landed in the net much to the Fredericton team's surprise. This proved the deciding goal as the Capitals were unable during the balance of the time to get within striking distance of the Moncton goal.

Desperate as were the efforts of the Capitals to even matters up they were unable to get past the home team's defence and when time was called the puck had been returned to the Fredericton end of the rink by a lift from McGrath. The Capitals and their followers left the rink greatly disappointed.

The game was considerably delayed by players being injured. There was considerable off-side playing, but the double referee system worked so admirably that every off-side was checked and the game kept clear, considering the speed. The penalties were: Murphy, two minutes; Stoyles two; McDonald, one; McGrath two; Gregory two; Cushing two; Stoyles two; Murphy two; Brown four; Gregory three; Murphy four.

For the home team Gregory, Crockett and McGrath showed up strong. Cushing, on account of the injury to his eye in the Marysville game, and an injury to the same optic just after last night's game started, was unable to do his usual net work. Frank Brown, at point, played a strong defence. The line-up:

VICS.	GOAL.	CAPITALS.
Wortman	Point.	Morrison
Brown	Cover point.	Musick
McGrath	Centre.	McDonald
Greggory	Rover.	Stuart
Cushing	Right wing.	Murphy
Stoyles		Ranson

Referees—Howard and Blizard, of St. John, gave every satisfaction.

The Fredericton men brought quite a number of followers with them and considerable money changed hands on the game. On the merits of the two teams, it was generally conceded that the Moncton forward line is faster than the Capitals, while the latter have it on the Vics in combination play which the home team watched too closely to make it effective. Jack D. McDonald, at cover point, to say the least, did not distinguish himself, but was probably the coolest player on the ice. Musick also failed to work his effective rushes. Aggressive work was done by Ranson, Dunphy and Murphy. The result places Moncton in the lead in the New Brunswick League.

AMONG THE CURLERS

McLellan Cup Stays With Thistles—
Probable Foreign Matches here next week. Local Men need
Practice

It is said that both the St. Andrew's and Carleton Curling clubs will send teams here next week to play the local club, and if that is correct, the Fredericton men should get their rinks together and practise to make as good a showing as possible. The match with the St. Andrew's club will be for the McCaffrey trophy.

Local men are sadly in need of practice. The rink so far this season has been practically deserted by many members who formerly were very prompt in attendance, and this applies to old as well as new players.

The skips against St. Andrew's club are already selected, and it is the duty of the managing committee to choose the other players and no time should be lost.

The St. John Thistles continue to hold the McLellan cup captured last year. This season Fredericton, Pic-

Amherst was the first club to take the grip with the St. John men. The game was played last night at St. John, three rinks a side, and the Thistles held the cup by the narrow margin of three points.

The skips and scores were:
Amherst	Thistles
Fitzmaurice	12 Willet
Rogers	13 McClelland
Robertson	20 Mitchell
Totals	45 Total

The Fredericton men who played and won at St. Stephen Wednesday, tell amusing tales of the difficulties experienced. The ice was practically covered with water, stones had to be reversed and some of the weaker players got very few stones over the hog line.

DESTRUCTIVE FIRE

PORTLAND, ME., January 24.—(Special).—City Hall was destroyed by fire this morning and all valuable records were burned. The loss will be $1,000,000.

To loosen a screw, apply heat to the head. A small rod heated will do. It will come out easily.
