THAT CRUELTY CASE

Peterson and Ross on Trial Before the Police Court.

The case of John Ross and James Peterson, the young men charged with wantonly ill-treating a horse from Gunter Bros' stable, was taken up in the police court this morning, pursuant to adjournment. Mr. James Roberts, agent for the S. P. C. A., appeared as complainant, and Mr. J. D. Phinney, K. C., as counsel for the prosecution. The accused pleaded not guilty to the charge, and the trial was at once proceeded with.

The witnesses examined were Mr. Dell Gunter, Warden McNally, Policeman Foss and Grace Robinson. Mr. Gunter testified that he had hired a horse to the accused on Saturday afternoon, and a short time afterwards learned that they were ill-treating the animal near a well known resort on the Woodstock road. He drove up to the place in company with Policeman Foss, and found the horse in the stable. An examination showed that one of its fore legs had been badly injured, and Veterinary Stockford, who was called, found that a bone had been broken. He thought that the horse would be helpless for some weeks.

Miss Robinson, or Williams, as she gave her name, is an inmate of the resort on the Woodstock road. On the day the incident occurred she told Policeman Foss and Mr. Gunter that she saw the defendants driving the horse into the yard, and it appeared to be travelling on three legs. Today on oath, however, she suffered from loss of memory, and was wholly unable to throw any light upon the case. At the conclusion of her testimony the case was stood over until this afternoon.

John F. Whear of Charlotte-town is the second representative from the Maritime Provinces.

Babbitt, 55; Private Barnett, 53; H. H. Hagerman, 52. The match for the Logie cup, shot at 600 and 800 yards, was won by H. H. Hagerman, with a score of 58. Sergt. Farnsworth put on 56, R. T. Mr. H. B. Ames, Tory M. P., who has been through the west with his moving picture show, declares that if the foreigners, who have been brought in by the North American Trading company, did not vote, the Conservative party would sweep the West. Yes, but the new settlers are going to vote for Laurier, and consequently the Tories will not sweep the West. These men have new and prosperous homes, and they know whom to thank.
