heartily laughed at and applauded was the criticism of his friend, Mr. Hatheway about cold storage matters. Mr. Hatheway's and Mr. Maxwell's cordial support of him as an Independent in 1896 was referred to in pleasant terms, but he reminded the audience that both of these gentlemen had crawled back to the Conservatives while he had not. He dealt with the cold storage canvass in a brief and effective fashion, showing that the present structure was the finest of its kind in Canada, and had cost $159,175.66. He took occasion in this connection to say that no application had been received from Mr. Williams or from any party, save the New Brunswick Cold Storage company, to erect the plant.
