A PLEDGE REPEATED.

(Executive Committee:—Willard Kitchen, W. G. Clark, John Kilburn, J. J. Weddall, W. J. Osborne, Lewis H. Bliss, A. H. F. Randolph, Wesley Kitchen, A. H. Vanwart, C. A. Sampson, Thos. H. Colter, J. W. Spurdens, R. B. Wallace.)
The Editor of the Herald:

Sir: The License Committee's scribe or scribes have not carefully read the communications of the Scott Act Committee. In last Wednesday's letter their writer says:

"I want to ask if any person has seen in any of the letters of the Scott Act Committee any suggestion that the Scott Act should be enforced if it is continued."

We direct their attention to the first letters of the series which appeared in the Herald of February 8th, and in the Gleaner of February 10th, in which was this statement:

"Notwithstanding many difficulties, caused by those whose love of gain make them reckless of the evil consequences of their wrong doing, and in spite of the sometimes lax enforcement due to the unfaithfulness of those whose duty it is to administer the law we are sure it has done much good, and that the city is a much more desirable place of residence because of it. We believe it is capable of doing much more good. AND IN THE EVENT OF IT BEING RETAINED AS THE LAW OF THE CITY WHICH WE CONFIDENTLY EXPECT WE PROPOSE, AND HEREBY PLEDGE OURSELVES TO DO THE UTMOST TO BRING ABOUT SUCH CHANGES IN ITS ADMINISTRATION AS WILL MAKE IT IN THE FULLEST DEGREE EFFECTIVE IN PREVENTING THE RUINOUS DRINK TRAFFIC IN OUR MIDST."

This pledge we now repeat, and assure our fellow-citizens that we are determined in the event of the Act being retained, to make every effort in our power to have it faithfully enforced. We do not wish to be understood as believing it is especially the duty of any particular class of citizens to see to the enforcement of any law. Officials appointed to this duty are paid for doing it, and are sworn to perform their duty without fear or favor. Whatever measure of lax enforcement of the Scott Act has occurred from time to time is due almost wholly to the unfaithfulness

SCOTT ACT AT NEWCASTLE.

One Dealer Paid $900 in Fines Last Year Besides Losing Large Quantity of Liquor by Seizure.

Newcastle, April 6.—Scott Act Inspector Ashford is making it lively for liquor dealers. In his twelve months of office he has collected $900 from one establishment alone in fines. The same day he collected a $100 fine for a second offence of a clerk, he raided the same hotel and carried off the whole supply of intoxicants on hand. This proprietor is going out of the business on April 30.

COURT HOUSE SQUARE.

Grounds will be Graded and an Asphalt Walk Laid.

Court House Square, which has long been considerable of an eyesore to citizens who take pride in the appearance of the city, is shortly to be graded and a much needed asphalt walk laid down. The city council has been asked by the county authorities to prepare an estimate of the cost of the work, and this has been done by Chairman Mitchell and Roadmaster McKay. The city will at its own expense build an asphalt sidewalk along the front of the building from Dr. Torrens corner to Mr. Whitehead's office, and the county will lay a six foot walk to the front of the Court House and to the record office entrance on the south side. Roadmaster McKay estimates that the asphaltting to be done will cost $35 additional, making a total expense of $130. It is likely that the building committee of the county council will go on with the work just as soon as the frost is out of the ground.

The trouble with some people is it seems to take so little to encourage them.
