

Events of a Day

WILL HOLD THE TRAIN.

The I. C. R. authorities will hold the Marysville train until eleven o'clock to-night for the convenience of those from Marysville wishing to attend the hockey match.

A NEW ORGANIST.

Miss May Wetmore who last week resigned her position as organist at St. Dunstan's church left for her home at St. John this morning. Miss Kate Lynch, daughter of Mr. Timothy Lynch, has been appointed organist in Miss Wetmore's place.

NOTHING IN IT.

When asked as to the truth of the report that the C. P. R. was negotiating for the purchase of the Star line of steamers, J. Willard Smith, of St. John, president of the company, said as far as he knew there was nothing in the story.

68 YEARS MARRIED.

Mr. and Mrs. James Flemming, Folly Village, Colchester Co., N. S., will be "at home" to their friends on Tuesday, Jan. 21st, afternoon and evening, it being the sixty-eighth anniversary of their marriage. Mr. Flemming is 92 years old and his wife is about the same age.

QUEEN HOTEL STABLES.

Mr. Roy W. Smith has purchased the Queen hotel livery stable business, carried on for upwards of two years by Messrs. Allen and Fairly, and assumed charge yesterday. Mr. Smith is well and favorably known to the public, and is deserving of and will, undoubtedly, receive a liberal share of patronage in his line. Mr. Smith will pay particular attention to the coaching business, and it is his intention to run a baggage express. The closest personal attention will be given to the business in all its details, and satisfaction is guaranteed.

A BIG MEETING.

The date of the local elections has not yet been announced, but the date is fixed for a big meeting at St. Mary's, when this city, Marysville, and points in York and Sunbury will be represented.

This big meeting will be on Monday evening next, Jan. 20th, when the character social will be held at St. Anthony's hall at that place.

The social will be one of the most pleasant functions held for some time. Hanlon's orchestra will provide a program of music. Refreshments will be served by a number of winsome young ladies, and several new features will be introduced. All though not necessary, simple character costumes may be worn, and many of those who attend are going to wear them. The admission will be 25 cents.—d.

INTERRED AT KESWICK.

The remains of the late Mr. Elias Yerxa, brought here from Boston yesterday, were taken to Keswick yesterday and interred in the Baptist cemetery at that place. Rev. J. H. MacDonald conducted service at the Baptist church in this city, and also at Keswick. A large number of old friends attended the obsequies, including several from this city. Relatives of the deceased desire to thank Rev. Mr. MacDonald and the members of the male quartette who took part in the service.

STILL HAVE THE CUP.

St. John Sun: The Thistle curlers have had two bloodless victories since the McLellan cup came into their possession. The Pictou challengers have followed the example of Fredericton and defaulted for the trophy. The match was to have taken place last night, but F. F. Burpee, secretary of the Thistles, received a telephone message yesterday afternoon in which it was stated that as three rinks could not be got together the club would default the match.

LOST HIS MOTHER

Mr. McCaffrey Proprietor of the Queen Hotel Suffers Serious Bereavement

Many in all parts of the city, says the St. John Telegraph will be shocked in learning that Mrs. Catherine J. McCaffrey, wife of James McCaffrey, died suddenly last night at her home, 23 Cornarthen Street.

She had apparently been in her usual good health until late Wednesday night, when she was troubled with an attack of indigestion. She became better under the usual treatment, but it was thought well to call in a physician last night, although Mrs. McCaffrey had apparently improved much during the day. About 9.45 of the clock she was bright and there was no thought in any one's mind that her illness would be more than a day's duration, when there came a sudden collapse and death followed in a very few minutes. Heart trouble was the cause of death.

Mrs. McCaffrey leaves her husband and two sons—John J., proprietor of the Queen Hotel, Fredericton; and William J., general manager of the New Amsterdam Casualty Co., New York; also one daughter, Miss Katherine L., at home. Mrs. P. J. O'Keefe, Waterloo street, is a sister. Mrs. McCaffrey's friends were limited only by the number of her acquaintances, for by all who knew her she was admired for her admirable qualities, brightness of manner and sterling worth. She was born in Carleton and had lived in this city all her life. For her bereaved family there will be deep sympathy from all who knew her. The sons are expected here as soon as can be, and the funeral arrangements will not be completed until their arrival.

WEDDED IN THE WEST

At the residence of the bride's aunt Mr. and Mrs. B. O. Nason, 301 Main Street, Medicine Hat, Alberta was the scene of a pretty home wedding on December 10th when their niece Miss Hattie B. McKay was united in marriage to Mr. G. A. Wintermute of the C. P. R. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. H. Bryant. The bride who looked charming attired to blue silk with cream applique and chiffon trimmings, was given away by her uncle Mr. Nason and she was attended by her cousin Miss Louise Nason, who wore blue with white trimmings with gold necklace, the gift of the groom.

After receiving congratulations they all repaired to the dining room where a sumptuous dinner was awaiting them.

The groom's present to the bride was a substantial check, also checks from the following: the bride's parents, the groom's parents and Mr. and Mrs. D. F. Knight, grandparents of the bride. The bride received many handsome and useful presents which showed the high esteem in which the young couple were held.

The bride's travelling suit was navy blue broadcloth with fox furs and hat to match.

Mr. and Mrs. Wintermute left on No. 2 train for Manor, Sask., amid showers of rice and the whistling of engines, where they will be absent for a few weeks and after returning will reside in Medicine Hat.

Mrs. Wintermute is the eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McKay of Central Kingsclear, N. B., and has many friends in Kingsclear and they all join in wishing Mr. and Mrs. Wintermute a long and prosperous wedded life.

UNIVERSITY DEBATE

McGill, Mavor and Orchard Chosen to Meet St. Joseph's College Men

The final trial debate for the inter-collegiate team which took place in the University library last evening, proved a great success. The speakers were Mavor, Orchard, McGill, Burchill, Sharpe and Estey. The judges were Bishop Richardson, J. D. Phinney, K. C. and R. W. McLellan.

All the speakers did exceedingly well and the judges found some difficulty in making the choice which we believe to be a good one: Messrs. McGill, Mavor and Orchard were chosen and they will continue a series of debates on the subject. The other three candidates, Burchill, Sharpe and Estey will be the second team.

The debate in this city with the University of St. Francis Xavier will probably take place the first week in March.

The glee club will meet at seven o'clock on Saturday evening.

MARRIED

At the residence of the bride's parents, Marysville, on the 14th inst., by Rev. W. B. Thomas, Joshua Edward Cowan of St. John, to Annie Hatt McConnell, fourth daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John R. McConnell.

THE SEVENTH DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH.

There will be preaching service to-night at 7.30 after which we will have a social and prayer meeting. On Saturday afternoon there will be the usual services at 2.30 and 3.30 respectively. All are cordially invited. F. E. GIBSON, Pastor.

WORKS BOTH WAYS.

Merchants who send out of town for their printing should not complain if citizens send away for their supplies.—d.

PERSONAL MENTION

Mr. Frank Yerxa and Wallace Wright of Boston, who accompanied the remains of the late Mr. Elias Yerxa to this city, returned home by last evening's train.

Mr. J. J. McCaffrey, proprietor of the Queen Hotel left for St. John this morning, called there by the sudden death of his mother.

SCOTT ACT REPEAL.

The petitions for the repeal of the Scott Act, now being circulated in the city are being quite extensively signed, and no trouble is anticipated in securing the necessary twenty-five per cent. of the electors, qualified to vote at the Dominion and local elections. The petition will be forwarded to the secretary of state, after which the sheriff will receive instructions in regard to the date of the election. It is not believed that the election can be pulled off inside of two months. A legal gentleman when asked for information in regard to the matter this morning, stated that the Scott Act would have to be repealed by a vote of the people in every county of New Brunswick before the legislature could pass a prohibitory act.

POLICE COURT.

A Scott Act case against Howard Crangle, for a fourth offence was dismissed by Col. Marsh at the police court this morning for want of prosecution. Mr. Crangle, it is understood followed the example of Mr. John McCoy, and signed the agreement not to sell liquor again in this city while the Scott Act is in force. The complaint was laid by Mrs. Olmstead and Rev. J. J. Colter appeared as her agent, and intimated that the case would not be proceeded with. A man named William Craig, hailing from Quebec, was fined $5 or ten days in jail for assaulting William Blizard. It seems that they quarrelled over a girl, and Craig struck Blizard a blow in the face.

THE WEATHER.

Fresh northwest winds, fine and cold, Saturday, fresh southwest winds with light snowfalls.

THE SAVORY

Seamless Roaster will make a second choice out of meat tender, sweet and juicy, so that it serves up more tender and better than an expensive first choice cut cooked in the old way. It requires no attention, the concave bottom collecting the natural juices which are steamed through the meat, self-basting and self-browning in its own juices.

The roaster is practically air tight. No part of the meat essence is lost through evaporation. Can't burn because the bottom of the roaster is never in contact with oven bottom.
