POPE DISGUSTED.

Hon. Wm. Pugsley tells on Liberal Swap in New Brunswick.

(Toronto Globe.)

"Confidence in Sir Wilfrid Laurier and the Liberal government, the marvelous prosperity of the country during their administration, and the disgust of the people with the slander campaign of the Conservatives."

Thus briefly were the causes of the sweeping Liberal triumph in New Brunswick summed up by Hon. Wm. Pugsley, Minister of Public Works, who was in the city yesterday on private business. "I know," he said "that even many of our friends were surprised by the results in my province, but I never doubted but what the people would prove their confidence in Sir Wilfrid and the Liberal gove nm nt, and mark their disapproval of the slanders of the Opposition The e sl nd rs culminated in the false affidavit read by Premier Hazen at a Conservative meeting. Fortunately a complete denial was at once given to the story, and no doubt the slanderous statement did more harm to the Conservatives than to the Liberals. The people were disgusted by the attempt by falsehood to discredit me, and in St. John and other parts of the province clearly manifested their resentment at such tactics"

Mr. Pugsley added that the Liberals were fortunate in having strong candidates in New Brunswick. "I believe," he said, "that had the campaign lasted a week longer we would have won St. John city. As it was, Dr. Daniel's ma ority was reduced almost to the vanishing point.

FIREMEN INJURED.

Four Members of Halifax Brigade met with accident at Fire.

HALIFAX, Nov. 6—For three hours last evening the entire city fire fighting apparatus was battling with flames in Black Brothers' four story brick building on Water Street, and it looked for a time as if the entire Black Brothers' block, including Pickford & Black's steamship warehouses would be swept away.

The fire started in a room on the top floor of the building, in which a large quantity of pressed hay was stored, and the smoke was so dense that it was some time before the flames could be checked.

Four firemen were injured and had to be removed.

The building was occupied by the offices of the M. E. Keefe Company and G. G. Cooke, fruit importer.

A Western Land Rush.

The Lethbridge Daily Herald gives the following account of a "rush" on the land office where registration of homesteads in a half-township recently surveyed, was being received. "Last evening about six o'clock ten men camped at the door of the office, supplied with blankets, quilts, pillows, coffee, sandwiches and cake for the all-night session. Company after company of other men after homesteads came at all hours of the night. Some of them offered members of the first contingent as much as $150 for their position at the door but as the land is worth from $10 to $12 an acre the offers made were not accepted. When the door opened thirty-two got in. The door was locked with over forty outside. The crush inside nearly broke down the partition. The thirty-three quarters sections available were soon appropriated, leaving half the would-be farmers disappointed."

Heir to a Fortune.

After spending ten days in jail because he could not raise $6 to pay a fine for drunkenness, Alfred Arthur Johnson, alias A. Stanley, as he has always been known in Victoria, received word a short time ago in jail that he had fallen into a fortune of $2,000 through the death of his father. The father was a Trinity House pilot and settled an annuity some years ago upon the son which he has never collected. The family solicitors have been searching for the man and communicated with the police of Vancouver. Johnson was recognized by a Vancouver detective over in Victoria on another case.

Faulty Canadian Oarsmanship.

Guy Nickalls, the British rowing expert, speaking of the Olympic regatta, says that the Argonauts tumbled forward, used very little slide, swung from the middle of their bodies, instead of from the hips, and in their anxiety to rush forward forgot to go quickly back.

Scholes was faster than when he won the diamond sculls, says Nickalls, but, like his confreres, he was too quick forward and too slow back.

Appropriate.

Little Willie—Say, pa, what is a pneumatic tire?

Pa—It's a name that is sometimes applied to a bare, my son.

Candor.

"Pa, what's friendly candor?"

"It is generally the first aid to enmity."

THE NEW STENOGRAPHER.

She Showed a Sample of Her Work on the Typewriter.

Mr. Spotz was running his hands through his hair shampoo wise because his stenographress had suddenly left.

"Ten dozen letters to get out today and no chauffeur lady to run the typewriter! What shall I do?" he exclaimed.

Just then a young miss, with calcimined hair, in a fluffy-ruff-house costume, entered the office.

"Need a key puncher?" was her inquiry.

Mr. Spotz bade her have a chair. Upon investigation he learned that she has escaped from Taffy's big school, where she had learned to talk stenography ($7.59 puts you through).

The young lady was lined up in front of the typewriter, and Mr. Spotz began to dictate. She did not take down what he said in shorthand, for he doubted if she could transcribe her own hieroglyphics. In dictating he made an effort to assist her in punctuation. When the letter was finished it read as follows:

Mr. B. A. Goodthing.
Hotel Dubb, City:

Dear Sir—Looking over our leadger comma I notice that in your account don't abbreviate their is an outstanding cyetem of $14.34 in figures comma witch I thrust you will remit by return male parenthesis as we wish to clothes out all old outstanding accounts period new paragraph.

Trusting to be still favored with your patronage as in the passed, I remain comma Very resp. yours

M. WORTH COLWELL.

—Puck.

Her Best Wishes.

"Well, I must go now, auntie. Do take good care of yourself, I am so uneasy about that cold of yours!"

"It's nothing, Claribel. I'll be over it in a day or two."

"If it should grow any worse you'll let me know, won't you?"

"Nonsense, child! If I write to you it will only make you more uneasy If you don't get any letters from me you will understand that I'm well again. How will that do? In case you don't hear from me I'm all right."

"Yes; that will be better. And, oh, auntie, I shall be so anxious not to hear from you!"—Chicago Tribune.

Good Enough For Him.

City Niece—Why, uncle, I'm surprised to see you wearing such a rusty looking hat when you come to town.

Uncle Reuben—It's the hat I allers wear tew home.

City Niece—Yes, but that's different. Everybody knows you there.

Uncle Reuben—Waal, nobody don't know me here, so I ain't worryin', by grass!—St. Louis Post-Dispatch.

A Clever Omission.

"Did you write to papa, George?"

"Asking for your hand?"

"Of course."

"Yes; I wrote."

"That's strange. I supposed papa would be terribly angry. You know he doesn't like you."

"Yes; I know. But I fixed it all right. I—I didn't sign the letter."—Cleveland Plain Dealer.
